Republican Convention.

The Republicans of the 20th Senatorial District, Nebraska, are hereby called to meet in convention, in the City of McCook, on Wednesday, September 10th, 1902, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for the office of state senator, to be voted for at the next general election, to be held in the state of Nebraska, November 4, 1902, and for the transaction of such other business as may regularly come before the meeting.

The basis of representation of the several counties in said convention shall be the vote cast for Hon. Samuel H. Sedgwick for judge of the supreme court, at the regular election, held on November 5th, 1901, giving one delegate for each 100 votes or major fraction thereof so cast, and one delegate at large for each county. Said apportionment entitles the counties to the following representation:

Furnas.....12	Gosper.....4
Red Willow.....11	Franklin.....8
Hitchcock.....5	Hayes.....8
Dundy.....4	Chase.....4

It is recommended that no proxies be allowed in said convention, but that the delegates present thereat be authorized to cast the full vote of the county represented by them.

By order of the senatorial committee,
GEORGE WILLIAMS, Chairman,
G. G. EISENHART, Secretary.

THERE does not seem to be a decreasing need of hedges with the increasing number of those who do not have faith in its existence.

EVERY now and then the grim reaper must do a stunt in which he can take the liveliest satisfaction. For instance when he made a harvest of that fool Kansas farmer who ate fifty ears of corn in one day and died in one short night.

THE republicans of the Fifth congressional district have put up a candidate for congress of which they may well be proud, and he will win. Judge Norris wins approval on sight, and that approval grows into approbation upon further acquaintance.—Clay Center Sun.

Who is Judge Norris? We are asked. He is the fellow that carried the 14th judicial district for judge by 400 majority. A clean, vigorous, able man; clear cut; a vote getter. With the district 1701 republican at the last election, it is safe to predict that while he is Judge Norris now he will be Congressman Norris after November 4, 1902.—Alma Journal.

THE matter issued under authority of the railroads of Nebraska may not prove all the railroads hope to show, but the exhibit clearly indicates that Nebraska has about as rotten a system of assessment as the ingenuity of man can well devise. But it is not new to anyone, and the papers of Nebraska, to the writer's knowledge for two decades, have inveighed against it without appreciable effect. There seems to be at least two actions beyond the intelligence and patriotism of Nebraska voters: First, to pass an amendment to the state's archaic constitution; and secondly to enforce its assessment law.

WHAT this state wants now is a congressional delegation composed of statesmen, and it appears that the republican nominees so far are well up to the standard required. Burket, McCarty, Norris, Kinkaid and Hinshaw are all the kind of men an energetic young state like Nebraska ought to send to Congress and keep there as long as they do well. The little, old states of the Atlantic seaboard amount to something in congress because they seldom change congressmen and their representatives are old hands at the business and are onto the ropes. There's merit in the idea.—Fairfield News-Herald.

Bondville Precinct Caucus.
The Republican voters of Bondville precinct will meet on Monday, September 1st, at 2 o'clock p. m. sharp, at the house known as the Sim Billings place, for the purpose of placing in nomination a precinct ticket and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the caucus.
CHARLES SKALLA, Committeeman.

Mistakes Made at the Mint.
John Erhard of Philadelphia has a coin dated 1891, which has a head on either side, showing that mistakes are made even at the mint. Every finished coin passes through the hands of a great many experts, and there is little chance of an imperfection piece escaping this scrutiny. There are said to be many of them in circulation, however. No particular value is attached to the coins outside of their rarity as curiosities.

ARE YOU A GOING MOTHER? ARE YOU EXPECTANT?

makes childbirth easy by preparing the system for parturition and thus shortening labor. The painful ordeal is robbed of its terrors, and the danger lessened to both mother and child; the time of confinement is shortened, the mother rested, and child fully developed, strong and healthy.

Morning sickness, or nausea arising from pregnancy, is prevented by its use. As pregnancy advances, the breasts enlarge, become swollen and hard. Long before the child is born, they are preparing for the secretion of milk. It is important that they receive early attention. Mother's Friend softens the skin and facilitates the secretion of Life Fluid. Undeveloped breasts, hard-acted shortly after delivery, are the result of non-treatment, and likely to culminate in Mammary Abscess, from which so many suffer excruciating pain and are left with these organs permanently impaired.

Softness, pliability and expansion are given to the muscles and sinews, thus bringing comfort and causing an easy issue of the child. Try it. It is druggists' $1.00. Our book "Motherhood" free. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

"To Call Sinners to Repentance."

Perhaps the man who attracted most attention about the Lindell last evening was Judge G. W. Norris, of the Fifth district. Mr. Norris is a young man with a frank and open countenance and a handshake that melts even an opponent. He is serving his second term on the bench in the Fourteenth district. He has been in politics for several years, not because he sought offices, but because offices sought him. After serving two terms as prosecuting attorney of Furnas county he was called to the bench. Both positions he has filled with such satisfaction that even his political opponents respect him, and so express themselves when it comes to exercising the privilege of franchise. That he is a campaigner of no mean ability is evidenced by the way in which he sweeps strong fusion strongholds. Here is the sample of the humor of the man. When called on to make a few remarks at the meeting of republican committeemen and candidates last night, he said:

"I take it that my mission, this fall, is not to save the righteous but to call sinners to repentance. I don't think any one here need salvation."

Moran was beaten in the Fifth by Shallenberger two years ago by only 409 votes. Shallenberger has been renominated, but it is believed that Norris can overcome the adverse majority.—Lincoln News.

Public School Items.

School begins, Monday, September 8. The regular teachers' meeting preliminary to the commencement of school will be held in the east ward building, Saturday afternoon, September 6th, at four o'clock.

Sup't Thomas arrived in the city, early in the week, and is shaping up matters for the opening of the fall term, September 8th. The other out-of-town members of the teacher corps are drifting back.

Those having rooms to rent to pupils or teachers would do well to leave their names with the superintendent, who will keep the list for the information of inquirers. There are frequent applications from pupils for opportunities to work for their board. Those who desire such service, the help of a boy or girl out of school hours, will confer a favor upon some deserving pupil if they will make their wants known at the superintendent's office.

WHEATOSE

California Breakfast Food

If it wasn't popular, if it wasn't loved by the people, why do dealers say: "We have something just as good as the Madison Medicine Co.'s Rocky Mountain Tea." Think it over. 25 cents. McConnell & Berry.

C. P. Olson Drowns at Burlington, Iowa.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—While stepping from the steamer Mary Hill, last night, Charles P. Olson of Lincoln, Nebraska, accidentally fell into the river here and was drowned. He had gone on an excursion and had just returned to Burlington after an enjoyable day. The accident was the result of darkness and Mr. Olson's ignorance concerning the location of the gang-plank. The body has not been found.

Mr. Olson was superintendent of bridges and buildings of the Burlington railroad in Nebraska and a prominent western railroad man. He had come to Burlington, last week, to attend the funeral of a friend, and had gone on east to purchase a rock crushing plant for the Burlington. He returned to Burlington, Sunday morning, and accepted the invitation of friends to go on the excursion. He came to Burlington in 1898 and went to work for the Burlington road, his advancement being steady. He was well liked by his employers and popular among his fellow railroad men. He is survived by a widow and two children in Lincoln.

Charles P. Olson resided at 2748 O street. He leaves a wife who is at present visiting at McCook and two children, daughter Mrs. H. M. Stratton of Chester and a son, twenty-two years old, living in Lincoln. Mr. Olson was fifty-eight years old.

A telegram received by T. E. Calvert from H. C. Nutt of Burlington, Iowa, last night, states that Mr. Olson was on an excursion boat which was near a dock. The rail on the side of the boat toward the river was down in one place and Mr. Olson walked off and was drowned. Diligent work in searching for the remains had at that hour been unsuccessful.

Mr. Olson had lived in Lincoln twenty-five years and during all that time was employed by the Burlington road. Twelve years ago he was promoted to the office of superintendent of bridges which position he held at the time of his death.

The news of the death of Mr. Olson came as a shock to his associates at Burlington headquarters. He was the first bridge foreman for the road in this state and was an earnest and indefatigable worker. At the time of his death he was superintendent of bridges for the lines west of the river and had five division foremen working under him. He has inspected every bridge on the system west of the river. He had many men under him, the bridge work for a large system like the lines west of the river requiring much attention.

The first news of the accident reached Burlington headquarters at noon yesterday in a telegram addressed to General Superintendent T. E. Calvert of the Burlington from John Olson, a brother of the deceased. It was dated Burlington, Iowa, and read: "C. P. Olson drowned here, last night. Body not recovered."

The Burlington people at once set about to notify the members of the family. A telegram was sent to Mrs. Olson at McCook, and to Mrs. Stratton, a daughter at Chester.—Tuesday's Lincoln Journal.

Mrs. C. P. Olson was in McCook when the sad news was telegraphed her, guest of her brother, Engineer F. G. Westland. She and Mrs. Westland and Mrs. C. J. Roman of Lincoln, who was also a guest in the Westland household, departed for Lincoln on 12. Tuesday morning. Later word reports the recovery of the body, some twenty-five miles below Burlington, and its shipment to Lincoln for burial.

Changes on the Burlington.

Several appointments and promotions of note in mechanical department of the Burlington railroad were announced by Superintendent of Motive Power Smith, Monday. The principal one is the elevation of Piecework Inspector M. F. Ackerman to the position of master mechanic at the Havelock shops. Mr. Ackerman takes the place of A. B. Pirie, who has been transferred to Wymore. Charles S. Bricker will succeed Mr. Ackerman as inspector for the northern and F. J. Kramer, now master mechanic at Wymore, will assume the position of inspector for the Wyoming division, vice J. P. Reardon, who has been assigned to other duties.

W. F. Ackermann, who is placed in charge of the immense shops at Havelock began work for the Burlington sixteen years ago as an apprentice in the shops at Plattsburgh. In 1892 he was transferred to the shops at Havelock and a few years later was sub-foreman of engine construction. When the piecework system was inaugurated Mr. Ackerman's abilities were recognized by his appointment as general inspector, his territory taking in all the road's shops west of the Missouri river.—Tuesday's Bee.
