C. L. DeGROFF & CO.

Goes Like Hot Cakes.

"The fastest-selling article I have in my store," writes Druggist C. P. Smith, of Davis, Ky., "is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, because it always cures. In my six years of sales it has never failed. I have known it to save sufferers from throat and lung diseases, who could get no help from doctors or any other remedy. Mothers rely upon it as the best physicians prescribe it, and McConnell & Berry guarantee satisfaction or refund the price. Trial free. Regular sizes, 50c and $1.

America's Famous Beauties

Look with horror upon skin eruptions, blotches, sores, pimples. They don't have them, nor will any one who used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glorifies the face, Eczema or salt rheum vanish before it. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains. Infallible for piles. 25 cents at McConnell & Berry's drug store.

NOTICE OF SUIT.

In the district court in and for Red Willow county, Nebraska.

The McKinley-Lanning Loan & Trust company, plaintiff, vs. Maria Johnson, John O. Johnson, Thomas M. Campbell, Martha E. Campbell, Hiram W. Johnson, Tillie E. Johnson, Benjamin O. Johnson, Carrie E. Johnson, William V. Johnson, John E. Johnson, and John Johnson, Isabel Johnson, heirs at law of William Johnson, deceased. John Doe, real name unknown, Mary Doe, real name unknown, defendants.

The defendants Hiram W. Johnson, Tillie E. Johnson, Benjamin O. Johnson, Carrie E. Johnson, John B. Johnson and Annie Johnson will take notice that on the 5th day of September, 1922, the McKinley-Lanning Loan & Trust company, plaintiff, above named, filed its petition in the district court of Red Willow county, Nebraska, against the above named defendants, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose a certain real estate mortgage executed by William Johnson, now deceased, and Martha Johnson, his wife, to the plaintiff upon the following described real estate to-wit: The northwest quarter of section (33) thirty-three township (8) four, north, range (29) twenty-nine, west of the 6th P. M., in Red Willow county, Nebraska. Said mortgage was given to secure one promissory note for the sum of $1,000.00, one thousand dollars, dated April 10, 1893, and due March 1st, 1898. There is now due and unpaid upon said note and mortgage the sum of $846.00 eight hundred and forty dollars, interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum, from the 1st day of September, 1922, for which sum with interest and cost plaintiff prays for a decree of foreclosure and a sale of said lands to satisfy the amount found due. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 17th day of November, 1922, or the same will be taken as true and a decree rendered as therein prayed. Dated this 7th day of October, 1922.—10-10-22. The McKinley-Lanning Loan & Trust Co., Plaintiff.

HER CARRIAGE LUXURY.

It Doesn't Last Long, but it Fills Her With Exquisite Joy.

"Of course," said the New York young woman who earns her own living through a "natural born lady," "I can't afford to ride in carriages, and ordinarily I get around in the street cars, but there is a moment or two in my life when I rise superior to common things and take to wings.

"I have some friends who are able to live at the Waldorf, and I go there to see them once or twice a month. But do I go in the cars? Never. I come down from home in the cars, but at Thirty-third street and Broadway I get out and interview a caddy at the stand there. I always pick out the nicest looking turnout, and I offer the driver 50 cents to drive me to the Waldorf. He looks at me as if I were daffy, but I tell him I know what I am about, and if he wants to earn 50 cents in about two minutes he has the opportunity.

"He smiles and tells me to get in, and I order him to drive up to the Thirty-third street entrance with a whirl and a dash. There are always two or three funkies there, and it does make me feel too good for anything just to swing into the curb and have the crowd of them simply fall over themselves to wait on me and bow me in.

"It is all over in a very few seconds, but such exquisite pleasure as I get out of it couldn't, in the nature of mortal things, be of long continuance. The human system couldn't stand it."

—New York Herald.

How Wine Judges Keep Sober.

If you have ever gone into a wine merchant's office and sampled different vintages, says the Philadelphia Ledger, you will have observed that the dealer never swallows the wine he puts into his mouth, but holds it there for a time while he lightly breathes through his nose. His palate tells him whether the wine is rough or smooth, but his sense of smell detects its aroma and is largely dependent on to determine its quality. Of course it is the brain to which the smell is communicated that is really instrumental in fixing values, and as the effect on the brain is only momentary a great deal of wine may be sampled in this way without ill effects, but when the wine is permitted to pass into the stomach the fumes which arise from it continue to assail the brain as long as the liquor remains there in its original state and if taken in large quantities results in muddling the brain.

The Legion of Honor.

The red ribbon which superseded the titular distinction of pre-Napoleonic days has rarely been given to women, but it has a feminine side for all that. Napoleon, after Austerlitz, founded three splendid educational establishments for the daughters of the decorated. Most of the women who have been admitted to the order have been superintendents of these establishments. Marie Laurent was honored not as an actress, but as president of one of these institutions. An exception was made in the case of the late Rosa Bonheur, upon whom the cross of the Legion was conferred in 1865. Mme. de Staël's witticisms at the expense of messieurs les honores contributed to the causes of her enforced exile.

Leominster's Old Ducking Stool.

In the old Priory church of Leominster is a very interesting specimen of the old cucking or ducking stool, a universal mode of punishment of scolds, scandal mongers and women with too long a tongue. It was also inflicted on brewers and bakers, etc., transgressing the law, who in such a stool were immersed over head and ears in stercore (stinking water). This mode of punishment dates back to Saxon times, and the Leominster specimen was the last used in England of which we have any record in 1839. Several other specimens still exist about the country, as at Montgomery, Warwick, Fordwich and Leake.—Travel.

Hedgehogs.

Hedgehogs are very strong in the water, swimming with ease against a rapid stream, and with their muscular claws they turn up the nests of trout or salmon and make a goodly haul therefrom. They will breast a very rapid stream, and cold water, as near the freezing point as may be, seems to have no terror for them. The eggs of the salmonidae are a welcome prey to nearly every animal that will face water. Aquatic birds, rats (both house and water), hedgehogs, beetles and their larvae, the so called fresh water shrimp, are deadly foes.—London Opinion.

A Shattered Poem.

"Beautiful, beautiful silken hair!" Philip murmured fondly, toying lovingly with one of her nut brown tresses. "Soft as the plumage of an angel's wing, light as the thistle-down that dances on the summer air, the shimmer of sunset, one glitter of yellow gold, the rich red brown of autumnal forests blending in entrancing beauty in its."

And just then it came off in his hands, and he forgot what to say next.

Power of Gems on Bad Eyes.

The ruby was considered good for derangement of the liver as well as for bad eyes. The sapphire and emerald were also credited with properties which rendered them capable of influencing ophthalmic disorders, and there is a superstitious belief that serpents are blinded by looking at the latter stone.

The business man who clutters up his brain with some other fellow's "success maxims" is pretty certain to score a quick failure.—Denver Republican.

Ran a Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten-penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured part was soon healed." For sale by McConnell & Berry.

Cut this out and take it to McConnell & Berry's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c per box.

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranfill of Troy, N. Y., writes: "For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. McConnell & Berry.

It stands alone, it towers above. There's no other, it's nature's remedy, a warming poultice to the heart of mankind. Such is Rocky Mountain Tea. 3c. McConnell & Berry.

Look Out For Fever. Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Bitters. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. McConnell & Berry.

Enlarging Half the Round-House. William Roder and gang are now busy putting in the concrete foundation for the enlargement of the round-house at this place. A ten-foot extension will be added to the north side of three sections of the round-house. This includes fifteen stalls or one-half of the completed part of the round-house, which only lacks five stalls of the complete thirty-five. This enlargement will necessitate taking down and rebuilding the brick wall on the north side for the entire distance of the fifteen stalls and the extension of the roof on the north side to cover the addition. When completed the new stalls will be 75 feet deep, which will easily accommodate the largest locomotives now in the service as well as the still larger ones expected within a few weeks.

The new big engines ought to be here some time during October.

E. S. Jones has resumed service in the blacksmith-shop as a helper.

No. 56, which was used up in the Barr wreck has gone in for an overhauling.

A new carpenter-shop will be the next necessity to the Burlington's plant at this place.

Engineer Milligan of the Oxford-Red Cloud passenger run was at headquarters, Thursday.

The company will soon build a small round-house at Lyons, Colorado, a two or three-stall affair.

"Dusty" Rhodes succeeds Clark Bross of Foreman Fuller's office, Bross going back to Lincoln to go to school.

Machinist J. F. Whiteford left, Sunday, for Omaha, where we understand he has been offered a foremanship in the Union Pacific shop.

Frank T. Blue has quit the service and returned to Plattsmouth. L. P. Forsman succeeds him in the charge of the flue department.

Ralph Walls, who resided in this city several months about a year ago, but later went to McCook and entered the B. & M. train service in the capacity of fireman, was married at Wray, Colorado, last week. Ralph is a model young man, and during his stay here made many friends among our town's people who extend to him their congratulations.—Benkelman News, Oct. 31.

Cap. Utterback has been transferred to McCook, for which place he left Monday night. Fred Wagner will twist brakes out of McCook hereafter, having secured a transfer from Lincoln.

"Tone" Mitchell has resigned his position on the B. & M. at Holbrook and moved his household goods to this city. Mrs. M. and her mother will occupy their house in the north part of town for the present and "Tone" leaves for McCook in hopes of securing a place as fireman.—Arapahoe Mirror.

Four hundred and eighty-four miles is a long run for a lone engine. This remarkable feat was performed a few days ago by engine No. 30, built at the Havelock shops. It made the trip from Denver to Lincoln on schedule time, hauling twelve coaches of No. W, which arrives at 1:45 in the afternoon. The journey was made without accident and the engine had lost only a split key from a knuckle pin when it came to a stop in Lincoln. The trip was one of necessity. All the other engines were busy. The regular four relays were dispensed with, though four crews handled the locomotive. It was demonstrated that the engines made at Havelock are done well.—Lincoln Star, Oct. 7th.
