THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

"Have Shelly Licked."

THERE is room for difference of opinion about D. E. Thompson in a number of respects, but that he will make a thoroughly business-like and wideawake minister to Brazil for Uncle Sam is undeniable.

SENATOR JONES of Arkansas, the "Democratic Moses," who has never yet in his career tasted the sweet fruits of national victory, is busily engaged in a "claiming contest." He has already attached to the Democratic congressional column all the close districts in the north, south, east and west and is now awaiting advices from Porto Rico and Hawaii. Senator Jones ought to make good once in a while for he has been in training many moons as a rainbow chaser.

WITH Judge Norris in congress the people of the Fifth district will have a member in touch with the administration, and in the matter of pensions, postoffices, mail routes, tariff matters, and the various other things that come up, will be in a position to accomplish results more quickly and satisfactorily than one who is all the time fighting the administration. People should think of these things when they cast their votes for congressman.—Minden Gazette.

THE barometer of prosperity is steadily showing an upward tendency. Treasury receipts from customs indicate the purchasing inclination of the people, and measured by this test national prosperity has been rising ever since the passage of the Dingley law. The increase in customs receipts for the current month thus far, exceeds by $2,500,000 that of the corresponding period a year ago. The accumulation of gold in the treasury vaults has now reached the sum, unprecedented in this country, of $580,000,000. An abundant harvest is yet to be gathered. Truly are these Republican years of fatness.

IT is an unprecedented honor in the history of Redwillow county, save in the case of Dr. J. E. Hathorn, for any man to be named for representative for the third time. The exception in this instance is the more notable for the reason that the doctor did not seek the honor, which the people of this county have thrice thrust upon him. He was named in the first instance on account of his fitness and qualifications, which being found in fact in his record, his succeeding nominations came naturally and wisely. He will be elected and to the best of his ability and information will faithfully represent this constituency.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN, who is now essaying the somewhat difficult role of "running the earth," is quoted as opposing the renomination and reelection of President Roosevelt on the grounds of opposition to the chief executive's views on trusts. So be it. If J. Pierpont is determined to be reckoned with The Tribune knows of no man in America who is better equipped for the work than is Theodore Roosevelt. And the American people are daily growing more impatient to give Mr. Morgan and his trusts a turn.—McCook Tribune.

That is what Mr. Bryan thought. Possibly the spectacle of his assisting Mr. Roosevelt in giving Mr. Morgan a turn may yet be witnessed.

Well, THE TRIBUNE will give Bryan one unmistakable credit mark, if the prophecy is realized. Stranger things have and are happening.

Kodol
Dyspepsia Cure
Digests what you eat.

This preparation contains all of the digestants and digests all kinds of food. It gives instant relief and never fails to cure. It allows you to eat all the food you want. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. By its use many thousands of dyspeptics have been cured after everything else failed. It prevents formation of gas on the stomach, relieving all distress after eating. Dieting unnecessary. Pleasant to take. It can't help but do you good Prepared only by E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The $1 bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c. size.

PENNSYLVANIA'S entire military force has been called out for strike duty, the first time the entire division of the National guard has been called out since the great Homestead riots.

C. E. ELDRÉD has made a model county judge. He now seeks the position of county attorney. It is unnecessary for us to add that his personal and legal qualifications for prosecuting attorney are unquestionable. His election by a large plurality is absolutely certain.

It is not a creditable matter that congress should vote extravagant and unnecessary sums for such a public building as is now being completed in Omaha, when the mere item of decorating a room or two would give such a town as McCook a public building that would meet every reasonable requirement. Verily, to him that hath shall be given, while the needy hold the sack.

THE Lincoln Evening Star, D. E. Thompson's new daily newspaper, is now a reality. Though issued under some difficulties, it presents a handsome appearance, resembling the Journal somewhat. Mr. Thompson's signed "foreword" is a manly, businesslike product and if the sentiments therein contained shall be realized the Star's future is assured. In fine, the Star's mission is to fill a long-felt-want, and incidentally to see that the Journal doesn't get too gay.

THE only Federal law ever passed for the regulation of trusts was passed by a Republican congress. Don't overlook that fact. The Democrats subsequently had control of congress, as well as of the presidency, but not only did they fail to pass anti-trust laws through their congress, but their president and attorney-general failed to execute the laws that actually were on the statute books, placed there by a Republican congress. When Democrats talk about the great things the Democratic party would do against the trusts, just spring that record on them.

THE successful farmer or the good business man who has in his employ a faithful hand or a good employe seldom discharges him to make room for a new man untried and of uncertain quality. The same rule should apply in the management of the affairs of the state. Good men should be retained. For the past two years the business of the state has been handled in a business-like way and very economically. A surplus exists where usually a deficit is found. The boys at the state house have been faithful to the trust imposed on them and are deserving of re-election by an overwhelming vote. If you are satisfied with the good showing made, vote the Republican ticket.

EVERY student of political economy knows that the so-called trusts are the result of present wonderful industrial conditions. It is simply evolution. Just as the individual manufacturer, in his small shop or house, gave place to the joint stock-company and the factory system, so the combination of factories and plants succeeds the smaller corporation. President Roosevelt rightly says they will be a wonderful benefit to the country if handled by prudent men in the right manner. The Republican party has never been found wanting in an emergency. If government by the people is a success, the Republican party will see that the rights of the people are adequately preserved and protected at this critical stage of American progress. The people must look for aid to the party that does and need expect nothing from the party that DOUBTS.

Keep A-Coming, Boys!
You can't fool even Democrats, all the time. They can be jollied along by their leaders for a while, lured by the siren song of the specious and glittering arguments which their leaders know so well how to advance. But in the past few years the boys have been dropping out of the Democratic procession in numbers, and lining up with the Republican parade. They have contributed to the Republican success and made possible the execution of the splendid policies under which the country is thriving like the proverbial green bay tree.
Keep a-coming boys; there is plenty of room for you and a hearty welcome. If you stick with the Democratic leaders you will feed on husks as sure as fate. Every time you vote the Republican ticket you cast a vote for good times, good government and the betterment of the great big nation of which you are justly proud.
In this connection, perhaps there is but one suggestion to offer: G. W. Norris, the Republican nominee for congress in the Fifth district, is in harmony with the party and administration now conducting the nation's unprecedented campaign of prosperity and commercial supremacy. If you like prosperity's fruits, why vote for Norris. He will support the president who executes the will and pleasure of the party responsible for the policies now holding America in the front rank of the world's progress and prosperity.

His Election Occurs November 4th.

A prominent Frontier county Populist was this week heard to say: "I voted for Norris for judge, three years ago, because he had made the best judge the district ever had. During the seven years he has been district judge he has by his fairness and fearlessness, saved the county thousands of dollars. I will not vote for him for congress, because as a taxpayer of Frontier county, I want him to continue on the bench. There is no one in either party who can make as good a judge as Norris has." And the man was sincere in what he said. The Clarion admits that Norris has been the best judge the district ever had, and that it will be difficult to find a man who can fill the place so well. But the needs of the congressional district are greater than of the judicial district. The Fifth district has been misrepresented in congress long enough. It is high time for us to select a man who knows our wants and who has the courage and ability to make them known. Mr. Norris' record as a judge proves him a man of the people, his popularity attests his fairness and honesty; his success on the bench bespeaks his ability and integrity. No matter what the needs of this judicial district may be the Fifth congressional demands the services of George W. Norris in congress. His election occurs, November 4th.—Cambridge Clarion.

A New Idea.

Congressman Shallenberger hands us something novel in the way of campaign argument. He is endeavoring to induce the voters of his district to vote for him upon the plea that he secured the public building for Hastings. The idea that a Republican Senate and House passed that appropriation in order to accommodate a Populist member of the lower house is so altogether novel that we consider it worthy a place in the "Important If True" column of the Congressional Record. Mr. Shallenberger was a gold Democrat until he saw a good opening, whereupon he changed his mind about the money question. He might think this matter over again and see if it will not be possible for him to come to the conclusion that a reluctant "Me too" was about all the work he did for the Hastings building bill.—Lincoln Star, Oct. 7th.

Out of Death's Jaws.

"When death seemed very near from a severe stomach and liver trouble, that I had suffered with for years," writes P. Muse, Durham, N. C. "Dr. King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave me perfect health." Best pills on earth and only 25c at McConnell & Berry's drug store.

Help Yourself.

Before voting for Shallenberger, the intelligent farmer should try to figure out why he is doing it. What has Shallenberger done for his district? He can accomplish nothing in congress and it seems a poor policy to send a man to Washington for the sole purpose of drawing a salary. To send a Democratic congressman to the capital is as foolish as it would be to send a landsman to sea, expecting him to take part in navigating a vessel. Judge Norris, on the contrary, will be in a position to help his district and the state, and he will be as eager as well as able to do it. Friends and countrymen, in this matter of electing representatives, let us have more than enough sense to get out of the rain. Let us help ourselves, as well as the man we vote for. In order to help ourselves, it is necessary to vote for the Republican candidate.—Arapahoe Public Mirror.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by McConnell & Berry.

C. S. VanPelt went to McCook, today, 140 head of cattle which he will fatten, this winter, on his Cedar Bluffs ranch. Ball Brothers dissolved partnership, last week, John taking full possession of the ranch and threshing machines. Thomas and family are temporarily located in Danbury. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woods leave, tomorrow, to attend the national encampment of the G. A. R. at Washington, D. C.—Danbury News, October 2.

PUBLIC FREE LIBRARY NOTES.

It is no longer necessary to demonstrate to the people the benefits to be derived from a fine circulation of good literature. It has already become a question of trying to find additional space for those wishing to read at the library, as the constant flow of visitors in search of books break the necessary stillness. One month has elapsed since the opening, and on Saturday night 317 applications had been filed, 681 books read and returned and 234 books now out. 1805 persons have visited the room.

All those having files of magazines to donate please report, as a move is on foot to procure an index to the leading magazines, which will render them of great value as reference books. This will benefit not only the patrons of the library and the schools, but others who have files of magazines. There are many books on the shelves of interest to the railroad employes, scientific and otherwise. A new order for books has just been sent. This list contains many juvenile books for which there is an extraordinary demand. We have had several school boys who have taken out and read from eight to twelve books each.

PUBLIC SCHOOL ITEMS.

Mrs. Ida E. White of the east primary has been out of school all week on account of injuries sustained in a fall. Mrs. F. R. Dobson has been substituting for her.

The High School cadets have been organized and had their first drill on Thursday afternoon after close of school, Sup't Thomas in command, assisted by Rex Duncan. There are about forty boys in the company.

The program for this morning was as follows:
Morning hymn.....School
Piano Solo.....Winnie Phillipi
Vocal Solo.....Eva Burgess
Piano Solo.....Blanche McCarl
March.....Bessie Peterson
