

Don't wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair, with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone.

Help and happiness surely awaits you if you accept Mrs. Pinkham's advice. Disease makes women nervous, irritable, and easily annoyed by children and household duties; such women need the counsel and help of a woman who understands the peculiar troubles of her sex; that woman is Mrs. Pinkham, who with her famous medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, have restored more sick and discouraged women to health and happiness than any other one person. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. Write today, do not wait.

Will not the volumes of letters from women who have been made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince others of the virtues of this great medicine?

When a medicine has been successful in more than a million cases, is it justice to yourself to say, without trying it, "I do not believe it would help me?"

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak and sick and discouraged, exhausted with each day's work. If you have some derangement of the feminine organism try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It will surely help you.

Mrs. Emilie Seering, 174 St. Ann's Ave., New York City, writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—If women who are always blue and depressed and nervous would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would find it the medicine they need to bring them to a more cheerful frame of mind. I was terribly worried and downcast, and was thin and bloodless. My back ached all the time, no matter how hard I tried to forget it or change my position to ease it, and the pain at the base of my brain was so bad that I sometimes thought that I would grow crazy; I had the blues so much and was always so depressed I could not seem to shake them off; half of the time I did not seem to have the courage to do my work; everything seemed to go wrong with me, and I was always worrying and fearing the worst. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After the first few doses a load seemed lifted from my shoulders, I felt better in every way. The blues left me and my head stopped aching; before long my back was better too, and I looked younger and stronger. I took six bottles in all, and it is with thankfulness that I acknowledge that my present good health is due to the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN. If there is anything in your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. No man will see your letter. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

THE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Latest Quotations from South Omaha and Kansas City.

SOUTH OMAHA.

CATTLE.—There were only a few bunches of beef steers in the yards, and the market was quite active and fully steady. As is apt to be the case under such circumstances, some of the more desirable grades sold at prices that looked a little higher. There was also more life to the cow trade than was noted yesterday. The market was fully steady, and in some spots was a little higher. Although the big end of the receipts consisted of cow stuff there did not seem to be any too many to fill packers orders, and an early clearance was made. The bull market showed no improvement so far the better grades were concerned, and in fact the trade was very dull and buyers did not seem to care whether they got any or not. Packers claim that the demand for bull meat is the poorest it has been for a good many years, and that they have to sell the best grades at little better than canner prices. There were only a few stockers and feeders in the yards, so that the better grades held about steady, but owing to the close of the week being at hand the commoner grades were even harder than usual to dispose of.

HOGS.—There was a moderate run of hogs and the market opened 5610c higher. Trading was not very brisk, however, as packers were slow to bid the advance and a good many salesmen were unable to get satisfactory offers on their droves. The situation, however, got worse instead of better as the day advanced and by the time about 10 loads had changed hands the market flattened out and closed extremely dull, with the advance of the morning practically all lost. The bulk of the early sales went from $6.70 to $7.75. The light stuff sold largely from $6.70 down, medium weights from $6.70 to $6.75, and the prime heavy hogs from $6.75 to $8.85.

WIRELESS NEWS FOR SHIPS.

First Attempt Made to Supply Incoming Steamer with Service.

LONDON.—The first attempt to supply in coming steamers with a news service was made, when Reuter's Telegram company filed with the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company 100 words of news for the Cunard line steamer Lucania, which left New York Saturday last, and which is due to arrive at Queenstown today or tomorrow.

The wireless company thus far will only engage to attempt to transmit twenty to thirty miles from Brow Head, so the news will only reach the steamer a few hours before its arrival at Queenstown. The company will have a better chance with the Atlantic Transport line steamer Minnetonka, which also left New York Saturday, to which a news message will be transmitted.

The Minnetonka passes twenty miles from the Scilly islands, but only reaches London forty-eight hours later.

Land Swalls Half House.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah.—An accident occurred in one of the slopes of the Old Telegraph mine at Bingham Saturday, wrecking the residence of James Johnson, a miner, and instantly killing two of Johnson's sons, aged 3 and 5. The sudden sinking of the ground split the Johnson house in twain. One half, in which the two children were playing, was completely swallowed up.

Goes to the Philippines.

MOBILE, Ala.—Captain Spencer Cosby, United States engineer in charge of harbor and river improvements in the Mobile district, has been ordered to the Philippines. He will be succeeded here by Captain W. F. Craigill, now in charge of Ohio river improvements.

Goebel Suspect Gives Up.

FRANKFORT, Ky.—Frank Cecil of Bell county, under indictment as an accessory before the fact to the murder of William Goebel, has surrendered. He was immediately presented in court, pleaded not guilty, and, by agreement, released on $3,000 bail. Cecil came into Frankfort secretly, by agreement with the commonwealth's attorney, and not more than a dozen persons saw him here, as he was spirited away after examination.

A Lover of Habit.

Love of habit was pushed to an extreme degree by a wealthy grazier near Le Mans, of the name of Chapelain. In order to avoid the uprooting from his habits that in his opinion death might cause he had a little chapel built over the family burying place, and so arranged that he could use it every day as a sitting room. He used to spend in it the early hours of the afternoon reading his paper, going over his account books, and writing letters. His coffin contained a comfortable mattress, and he used it as a bed. When the cure came to administer the last sacraments, M. Chapelain said, on being asked whether he felt comfortable: "Absolutely so, M. le Cure. In dying, you see, I shall not break with my habits, and in the grave I shall be in a home that I am used to." He begged that his old pipe and tobacco pouch, his penholder that he had used thirty-five years, and some other familiar objects should be buried with him.

Justice Harlan's Caddy.

Caddy on the links of the Columbia and Chevy Chase Golf clubs is a favorite method for getting spending money among Washington boys of high and low degree alike. A few days ago Justice Harlan of the supreme court, who is a golfer, hired a bright-eyed youngster about 12 years of age to caddy for him. The boy was polite and attentive, and was an exceptionally good caddy. Justice Harlan engaged him to caddy for him the following day. When the justice reached the links the boy was not to be found, and he took another boy. As Justice Harlan approached the fourteenth hole the handsome victoria of a rich senatorial family drove up. The boy who had been the justice's caddy the previous day jumped out. He ran up to Justice Harlan, cap in hand, and said: "I am awfully sorry I couldn't get here at 2 o'clock; but, you see, mamma had a luncheon for Senator Depew, and I just couldn't get the carriage to come out in any sooner."

Had Mice in Her Hat.

A New York street car incident a days ago should furnish a dreadful warning to women who wear last year's hats. A tolerably young and charming woman boarded a suburban car on the other side of the river, and after having seated herself discovered that her hat was alive. The next instant saw the millinery on the floor and the woman standing on the floor with skirts lifted rather indecorously high. Four mice scurried around the floor of the car in great consternation at having been dispossessed of their tenement. After the mice were killed the woman explained that the hat was an old one which she had not worn for a year.

Was Spooner's Tender Point.

Senator Simon of Oregon is the only man in the senate who is shorter than Senator Spooner. The Wisconsin senator is inclined to be touchy about his stature. A short time ago he was sitting reading a book in his committee room, when Dr. Heenan, consul at Odessa, was brought in by a friend for an introduction. Heenan is a giant, six feet four inches tall and broad across the shoulders. When Senator Spooner arose to be presented Heenan looked down on him and said: "And this is Senator Spooner?" "Great Scott!" flared Spooner, "you don't think every United States senator must be seventeen feet tall, do you?"

Many House Changes.

Since the house of the Fifty-seventh congress came into existence in March, 1901, twelve members have died, three have resigned and two have been unseated as a result of contests, making a total of seventeen changes in less than two years. This, according to those interested with the compilation of data of this character, is the greatest number of changes occurring during one session of congress in the history of that legislative body.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

THE CHILDREN ENJOY Life out of doors and out of the games which they play and the enjoyment which they receive and the efforts which they make, comes the greater part of that healthful development which is so essential to their happiness when grown. When a laxative is needed the remedy which is given to them to cleanse and sweeten and strengthen the internal organs on which it acts, should be such as physicians would sanction, because its component parts are known to be wholesome and the remedy itself free from every objectionable quality. The one remedy which physicians and parents, well-informed, approve and recommend and which the little ones enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects, is—Syrup of Figs—and for the same reason it is the only laxative which should be used by fathers and mothers. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy which acts gently, pleasantly and naturally without griping, irritating, or nauseating and which cleanses the system effectually, without producing that constipated habit which results from the use of the old-time cathartics and modern imitations, and against which the children should be so carefully guarded. If you would have them grow to manhood and womanhood, strong, healthy and happy, do not give them medicines, when medicines are not needed, and when nature needs assistance in the way of a laxative, give them only the simple, pleasant and gentle—Syrup of Figs. Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic syrups and juices, but also to our original method of manufacture and as you value the health of the little ones, do not accept any of the substitutes which unscrupulous dealers sometimes offer to increase their profits. The genuine article may be bought anywhere of all reliable druggists at fifty cents per bottle. Please to remember, the full name of the Company—CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.—is printed on the front of every package. In order to get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine only.
