

The McCook Tribune.

TWENTY-FIRST YEAR.

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 17, 1903.

NUMBER 48

Their Annual Ball and Banquet.

The annual ball and banquet by the members of Harvey division No. 95, Order of Railway Conductors, Monday evening, April 13th, was one of the notable social events of the season...

Blind Boone Concert.

The musical prodigy, Blind Boone, gave an entertainment in the chapel of Drake University, last night. The chapel was crowded and the efforts of the blind boy were highly appreciated...

A Delightful Little Book.

THE TRIBUNE is just in receipt of a copy of Bertha Gerneau Davis Wood's "Book of Verses," and confesses being charmed with many of the little poems therein contained.

Pay Your Lawn Tax First.

Pay your lawn tax before using water on lawns, trees or gardens, as water will be turned off from all services without notice...

White and colored lawn waists, white and also black silk waists, dressing saques, wrappers, kimonos, shirt waist suits...

An infant child of George W. Beard was buried in Riverview cemetery, Sunday afternoon. Brief services were conducted at the home by Rev. L. H. Shumate.

Medallions, pendants, escarols, appliques, beadings, allovers, buttons, braid and other trimmings at The Thompson Dry Goods Co's.

New Etamine suitings in cream, black, brown, navy, light blue and green at 75c, 65c and 40c at The Thompson Dry Goods Co's.

Ferris waists for ladies, misses and children at The Thompson Dry Goods Co's. Also Nazareth and E. Z. waists.

A Vision of Beauty.

We would be pleased to have every housewife in the county come and examine our spring stock of wall paper which the assortment is complete. We have striven to find as many novelties as possible.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.

I. F. BARGER is here from Indiana for a few weeks. Dr. RIDGLEY of Holdrege was a city visitor Wednesday. Mrs. A. C. WIEBE has gone to Glen, Nebraska, on a visit.

Two Council Meetings.

The city council met as a canvassing board, Monday evening, and declared the following result: Mayor, C. E. Eldred; clerk, C. I. Hall; treasurer, A. C. Ebert; engineer, C. H. Meeker; councilman—first ward, W. S. Perry and J. E. Kelley, a tie vote.

RAILROAD NEWS ITEMS.

Resignations are popular. Engine 264 is out of the shop. W. J. Ingham is a new wiper. Henry C. Smith is on the sick list. H. Vogel is a new member of the night force.

Easter Services in McCook.

Despite the cold and lowering weather the Easter services in the several churches of the city, last Sunday, were largely attended and participated in with deep interest by the worshippers.

MINOR ITEMS OF NEWS.

Millet seed. W. T. Coleman. Hygeia Creamery Co. See Coleman. You can buy Jap-a-lac at Cone Bros'. Get your garden hose of F. D. Burgess.