Best Offer Ever Made.
THE McCOOK TRIBUNE has succeeded in getting the special clubbing price from the publishers of the Nebraska Farmer, one of the best they have ever made, and during the past two months a good many have taken advantage of this offer and are well pleased with it. We have had the time extended for this offer, believing that many more would like to take advantage of it before it is withdrawn.

For $1.25 we can send you the Nebraska Farmer and THE McCOOK TRIBUNE both for one full year, and worth $2.00. The Nebraska Farmer is the leading general farm and live stock journal of the west. It prints from 24 to 40 pages each week, is well known and well liked, having been established since 1869. Its publishers are practical and experienced men, who are now and have been for thirty years extensively engaged in farming and stock raising in Nebraska and know from experience the needs and conditions applicable to the west. It is a journal for the farmers by farmers. No other farm paper can fill its place or be so helpful to the farmers of the west. It is contributed to by all the leading agricultural writers and experimenters of the west and at our special club price should be taken by everyone.

GREATLY ALARMED.

A Persistent Cough Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
H. P. Burbage, a student at law in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough, which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size was permanently cured." L. W. McConnell.

When you want a pleasant physic try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by L. W. McConnell.

PUBLIC FREE LIBRARY NOTES.

There are few sections of this country where the people are freer from race prejudice than they are here. We have no appreciation of the bitterness of feeling in the south against the negro, and in the far west against the mongolian. It is only the unusual manifestations of this deep-seated spirit that attract attention, and bring us to a realization of the fact that in many localities the estimation in which a man is held depends, not upon his qualities, but upon his color. When, a year or so ago, Booker T. Washington was entertained at the White House, a tremendous outcry went up from the south, and so recently as within a week or two this same distinguished representative of the colored race again achieved unpleasant notoriety because of a gratuitous insult offered to him by a chambermaid in an Indianapolis hotel. Mr. Washington can be charged with no crime against either the moral or the material, but he has been an offender against good taste. He has not sought to be conspicuous. He has devoted himself to the most splendid work a man can be engaged in—the betterment of his people. In a letter donating $300,000 to the college of which Mr. Washington is president, Mr. Carnegie said:

"I give this without reservation, except that I require that suitable provision be made from the gift for the wants of Booker T. Washington and his family during his own or his wife's life. I wish that great and good man to be entirely free from pecuniary cares, that he be free to devote himself to his great mission."

"To me he seems one of the greatest of living men, because his work is unique—the modern Moses who leads his race and lifts it, through education, to even better and higher things than a land overflowing with milk and honey. History is to tell of two Washingtons—one white, the other black; both fathers of their people."

"I am satisfied that the serious race problem of the south is to be solved wisely only through Mr. Washington's policy of education, to which he seems to have been especially born—a slave among slaves—to establish and in his own day greatly to advance."

A few days ago the Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, in an address delivered in New York, paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Washington. One who commands the respect and esteem of such men as President Roosevelt, Dr. Hillis and Mr. Carnegie must, indeed, be worthy.

No form of literature is more interesting than autobiography—than a man's own story of himself. All who care to know what Mr. Washington has to say of himself should read "Up From Slavery," a most interesting and instructive book—a book in which the cause of the negro is eloquently pleaded.

ORDINANCE NO. 111.

An ordinance to establish a fire limit and prohibit the erection of frame buildings, wooden structures and veneered buildings within the same; to require a permit for the construction of buildings within the fire limit, and provide a penalty for the violation of the same; to repeal ordinance No. 93, and all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the City of McCook:

Section 1. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person or persons, company or corporation, to build, construct or erect, or cause to be built, constructed or erected any frame building or wooden structure, or any veneered building of any character whatever, on any lot or lots in said City of McCook, hereinafter set forth and described in section 2 of this ordinance; provided, that this ordinance shall not apply to any veneered building in the process of construction of which the frame work therefor shall have been erected prior to the passage and approval of this ordinance.

Section 2. Section No. 1 shall apply to and effect the erection and placing of buildings on all lots in said city, described as follows: All lots fronting on Marshall street between Railroad and Dodge streets, and all lots fronting on Main avenue between Railroad and Dearborn streets, and all lots fronting on Manchester avenue between Railroad and Dodge streets, all lots fronting on Manchester avenue between Dodge and Dearborn streets, in blocks 15 and 9; all lots fronting on Railroad street between Dodge and Dearborn streets, in blocks 15 and 9; all lots fronting on Railroad street between Dodge and Dearborn streets, in blocks 15 and 9; all lots fronting on Manchester avenue between Dodge and Dearborn streets, in blocks 15 and 9; all lots fronting on Douglas street between Manchester avenue and Marshall street.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, company or corporation, to remove or place in any manner whatever, any frame building or wooden structure or veneered building of any kind or character upon any lot or lots described in section 2 of this ordinance.

Section 4. Whenever any person or persons, company or corporation shall desire to erect or construct or place any building of any kind or character upon any of the lots described in section 2 of this ordinance an application for a permit for the erection or construction or placing of such building shall be made to the city council, in which application there shall be set forth in detail the description of the proposed building, and designate the material of which the same is proposed to be constructed, and if said application is approved by the city council a permit shall be issued for such building.

Section 5. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, company or corporation to erect or construct or place upon the lots described in section 2 of this ordinance any building of any character whatever without first having made application to the city council and receiving a permit, as provided in section 4 of this ordinance.

Section 6. It is made the duty of the city marshal to prevent the violation of this ordinance, and he shall be lawful for him to tear down and abate any house or structure erected or in course of erection, or placed or being placed, in violation of this ordinance, upon any lot or lots included within the description set forth in section 2 of this ordinance.

Section 7. Any person, or persons, company or corporation violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall stand committed until such fine and costs are fully paid.

Section 8. Ordinance No. 93 and all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Section 9. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, approval and publication according to law.

Passed and approved this 25th day of May, 1903.
Attest: C. L. DeGROFF, Mayor.
City Clerk.
