

Jim Dumps' young wife while yet a bride
Some biscuits made with greatest pride.
Jim looked with fear upon the food,
But to a bride one can't be rude.
"Let's eat 'Force' first, dear, 'tis my whim,"
It saved the life of "Sunny Jim."

All "Sunny Jims" Now.
"In our household 'Force' is as familiar and welcome as 'Sunny Jim,' and that's saying a good deal, for we are all 'Sunny Jims' now."

Tax on Babies.
Extreme hot weather is a great tax on the digestive power of babies; when puny and feeble they should be given a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy, and active. 25c., at A. McMillan's.

The Lincoln Asylum.
One of the first acts of the republican administration was to remove the incompetent officials from the asylum at Lincoln and place in charge of the institution a man known for his integrity and business ability, and of national reputation as an expert in the treatment of insane persons.
Through the excellent management of the present superintendent the state is being saved fully $30,000 per year, the figures being based on the expense per capita. In the mass of juggled figures recently sent out from fusion sources the large increase in the number of patients was ignored, the attempt being made to fool the people with mysterious and often mythical "totals." They did not give credit for the $35,000 unpaid bills left for the republican officials to pay in addition to the "deficiencies."
The "economy" boasted of at the Lincoln asylum was the sort which lined the pockets of the fusion officials. One employe was permitted to spend his time making ink which he sold to the state. Another raised ducks on the premises and sold them to the institution. Still another sold all the calves on the premises to his father at from $2 to $3 per head—animals which now sell for five times that much.
Land Commissioner Wolfe sent six hogs to the institution to be "boarded" at state expense, and eight months later worked off one of them on the institution at the exorbitant price of $140. At about the same time C. S. Jones, who was living at the Home for the Friendless and raising hogs on his own account, bought six shoats from the asylum at $2 apiece.
This is another brand of "economy" for C. Q. DeFrenzy to explain. It is like the "economy" practiced at all state institutions under fusion management.

A Clean Candidate.
Nebraska voters never had a cleaner candidate for governor than John H. Mickey. He has never been a manipulator of conventions. He has not been an intriguer for power. He has not been a party boss, neither will he be, for he is not built that way. He has been a practical worker in practical every day affairs. As governor he will be a practical helper in the state government just as he has been a practical man in Polk County for the last thirty-five years. His business qualifications are first-class. He is in the prime of life now and his working capacity is at the best. He is never sick in body and is never discouraged in mind. His purposes and his activity are always along the higher lines toward something that is good. He is a common man in his personality with an uncommon capacity for doing things and doing them well.

A Dangerous Proposition.
The election of W. H. Thompson, the brewers' candidate for governor, would be a sign that this interference in Nebraska politics is not offensive to Nebraska people. It would be an invitation for them to go further. It would bring to the next legislature corrupt lobbyists and a whisky trust boodle fund. The legislature would be organized largely with reference to the liquor interest. The liquor interest would be consulted in the making up of the legislative committees. When the machinery of legislation had been adjusted for that purpose, then there would be inaugurated a struggle to rob the Slocum law of its power. To make it easier to get a license; to make it easier to get bonds; to make the law more lenient in general toward the saloon, these are the objects sought by the brewers who own the Nebraska saloons. To accomplish these things the brewers want a friend in the executive office. They want the governor to start with. The rest they believe will be easy after that. A governor friendly to the brewers would be the opening wedge. To put the executive office into the hands of the democratic candidate means to put Nebraska government in fact into the hands of the Milwaukee brewers.

A Shameful Record.
B. R. B. Weber, one of the state chairmen of the fusion party, was superintendent of the Geneva Industrial school under Poynter. When he left, the state's property was a wreck, and the inmates were demoralized. He had at one time shut a young girl for seven days and nights in a basement dungeon, where she was compelled to sleep on the cement floor without even a blanket. The official papers in the damage suit filed against Weber say the girl has lost the use of one arm as the result of the cruel treatment. Yet Weber is deemed the proper person to direct a fusion state campaign, and is to be sent back to Geneva if his party is successful.
Don't Want Him.
Out at Alliance the whisky trust owns three of the six saloons. The bookkeeper of these institutions is one "Doc Edwards," who makes his office in the "Red Light" saloon. He also acts as assistant barkeeper. He was "physician" for one of the state institutions under Poynter, and he has the promise of a similar place in case the democrats are triumphant.

Fusionism and the Schools.
At a democratic meeting at Sidney the other day John Powers in a speech turned to Claude Smith, democratic candidate for state superintendent, who occupied a seat near by, and said: "Elect my friend Smith and he will put a stop to this foolishness of going out into the country with wagons to haul children to school." Smith accepted the pledge without a protest. The children who are seeking for better schools and better education now know what to expect, if Smith is elected.

Postponed Until Next Tuesday.
The daily newspapers have been vainly making a desperate effort, the past week, to manufacture a large sensation out of the return from Colby to St. Francis for a preliminary trial of Chauncey Dewey, Clyde Wilson, and W. J. McBride, charged with the murder of Daniel P. Berry and his two sons Alpheus and Burchard B., and the serious wounding of W. Roy Berry, a nephew of Daniel P. Berry.
Rumors have been rife of attempts by enraged farmers to take the prisoners from an escort of Kansas militia and officers en route.
In fact, however, the trip was made without incident, and the preliminary hearing has been postponed until Tuesday of next week.

Glen Gartside came over to Bartley from his home near Lebanon, last Saturday, to visit friends, intending to return Tuesday. Monday evening, for some unaccountable reason, he left here and when next heard from was at Indianola, and had gone from there to McCook. Mr. and Mrs. Gartside have always been very kind and loving to their children and it is strange that the foolish boy should leave home. His mother is nearly crazed. Mr. Gartside went to McCook, Wednesday afternoon, to look for his boy.
