His Last Hope Realized.

(From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.)

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping on his claim he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed, and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by L. W. McConnell.

Constipated Bowels.

To have good health, the body should be kept in a laxative condition and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr. G. L. Edwards, 142 N. Main street, Wichita, Kansas, writes: "I have used Heroine to regulate the liver and bowels for the past ten years, and found it a reliable remedy." 50c., at A. McMillen's.

More Low Rates.

"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis, of Lee, Mass., "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which have helped me very much, so that now I can eat many things that before I could not." If you have any trouble with your stomach, why not take these Tablets and get well? For sale by L. W. McConnell.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints. It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children, and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children each year. For sale by L. W. McConnell.

Wedding of a Former McCook Girl.

The following brief account of the marriage of a former McCook girl comes to us from a friend too modest to make known identity:

"Mr. John H. Davis of Laramie, Wyoming, and Miss Nelle Drury Fisher of Denver, Colorado, were married at eight o'clock, Wednesday evening, June 24th, 1903, in the parlors of the Albany hotel, Denver, Colorado, Rev. Frost Craft of Trinity Methodist church, Denver, performing the ceremony.

Mr. Davis is manager of the Union Pacific stockyards in Laramie, and is a prominent stockman in his own right and interest. Miss Fisher is a daughter of Mrs. Martha E. Fisher, who has spent the last four years in Denver.

The relatives and friends of the groom present from Laramie were: Mrs. John Davis, mother of groom, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, W. A. Whitney, assistant sup't of the Union Pacific, Wyoming division, S. H. Campbell, fish commissioner of the state of Wyoming, and Mrs. Campbell.

Relatives and friends of the bride were: Mrs. Martha E. Fisher, mother of the bride, Mrs. Ashmore, Miss Carrie Ashmore, Mr. and Mrs. George Ashmore and Hugh Ashmore, Mrs. J. W. Line of McCook, Nebraska, Thomas Kelley, Miss Julia Kelley, Miss Jennie Ray and Miss Jessie Barker of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis departed on the 8:40 train for Salt Lake City, Portland, and a tour of the Pacific coast on their wedding trip."

The bride spent a number of years in McCook in the early days, and a host of friends of the olden times will join THE TRIBUNE in wishing her and the gentleman of her choice great joy and much prosperity in their wedded life.

They will be at home after August 1st, corner Fremont and Fourth sts., Laramie, Wyo.

George Bonger Has an Experience.

At 11:30 o'clock last Saturday night three men held up and robbed a West Twenty-ninth street car at Twenty-ninth and Yates street. From the conductor, George Bonger of 3241 Gallup avenue, they secured $8 of his money and $10 belonging to the Traraway company.

When the car reached West Twenty-ninth avenue and Yates street it stopped to let a passenger, a young man, off. The young man was seen to start in a fast run, and Conductor Bonger had just turned to ring the car ahead, when a man wearing a white domino sprang on the step and with a revolver cried:

"Give me your money or I'll blow your brains out!"

Bonger immediately put his hands up, and the robber hastily searched him. Bonger had $8 in silver belonging to himself and about $10 of the company's money. The bandit took this and shoving it in his pocket jumped off the car. Bonger then rang to the motorman to go ahead.

When Bonger threw up his hands he drew from his pocket a purse containing $20 in bills, and unnoticed by the bandit tossed it into the car. His watch was not taken, and the robber left him $1.50 for change.—Denver Post, Sunday.

THE TRIBUNE hastens to congratulate Miss Blanche and her dotting parents.

Not Up to Specifications.

Concluding from the remarks of quite a number who heard the gentleman, THE TRIBUNE is constrained to the opinion that Colonel Nat Franco, impersonator, comedian, et cetera, is not up to specifications. His entertainment, last Friday evening, in the court-room, under the auspices of the literary board, did not comport with the flamboyant announcements and endorsements at hand, through no fault of the board, however, as they have been particularly careful and conscientious in the matter of securing talent. They seem to have been imposed upon, this time, or our people are not appreciative of that sort of talent.

Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia, and Grip. Guaranteed by L. W.
