The Loose-Wiles Cracker and Candy Co. were among the unfortunate in the Kansas City flood, but they are out in a card announcing the complete and full resumption of business. While their power plant was completely submerged, it was not seriously damaged, and as the manufacturing machinery was located on the upper floors it was unhurt, so just as soon as the seepage into the power house was controlled they were ready to resume operations in every department, and are now prepared in every department to fill all orders.

Avoid the Rush and Delay.
If you need repairs for binders or harvesters, look up the numbers of each part wanted, at once, so as to avoid the rush and delay in getting your machines ready for the harvest.

No Pity Shown.
"For years fate was after me continuously," writes F. A. Gulledege, Verbena, Ala. "I had a terrible case of piles, causing 24 tumors. When all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It is equally good for burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c at L. W. McConnell's drugstore."

No Hunting, Fishing or Trespassing.
The public is hereby notified that hunting, fishing or trespassing is prohibited under penalty of the law on the Lawson farm south of the city.
