Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Baily, P. O. True, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frost bites and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at A. McMillen's, druggist. Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these Tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by L. W. McConnell, druggist.

Miss Ida M. Snyder, Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club.

"If women would pay more attention to their health, we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctor's prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for. "In consulting with my druggist he advised McElree's Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

DANBURY.

Rosa Minnear is quite sick with typhoid fever. Our lumber men are doing a fine business nowadays. W. R. Burbridge moved into his new residence on the Morrow. Mr. Rebman is reported quite sick. Too bad, Mr. Rebman is one of our best citizens. Web Dowler has quit clerking for Lis Leisure and can be found at George Morgan's. The doctor reports Squire Lafferty's child some better but it is still in a critical condition. We noticed Mabel Whittaker of McCook on our sidewalks. Mabel is as pretty as ever. Miss Bessie Toner, who has been suffering with typhoid fever, is convalescing, so Dr. Robinson reports. Agent Cann's fine residence, just east of town, is nearing completion and is a valuable acquisition to east Danbury. Banker Hupp had a lively runaway just north of town, Saturday night, spilling the contents of the buggy, so we learn. We notice Chauncey Messner distributing tracts about the postoffice department every Sunday evening. No better missionary could be found. Willie Watkins pulled in from Fillmore county with a 22-horse power engine and the best separator, of course, to do up the balance of the threshing, commencing at H. W. Naden's. What makes Bill Henton smile so like Bryan? Because he is a grandpapa, it's a fine boy and also a grandson of Frank Eno. I suppose he came to help the latter granddaddy run for assessor. Mother and boy doing well. The new road through Will Stilgenbauer's place south to the Sappy country is to be surveyed and opened at once, which will give Danbury a large trade that hitherto went to Noregaur, Oberlin and Lebanon. When you beat Danbury you must be up and doing. Some talk of a mill in the near future. We hope it will not be all talk—like the Farmers' elevator. We need a good mill to make Danbury what it should be. We have the best territory in the west for a good mill. We also need a good barber shop. Who will be the lucky men?

A Worm Killer. J. A. J. Montgomery, Puxico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have little twin girls, who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches; the other child was only relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms, it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. 25c at A. McMillen's, druggist.

BOX ELDER.

J. H. Huntwork attended quarterly conference at Spring Creek, Saturday. The proceeds of the ice cream supper, last Saturday evening, were nine dollars. Mrs. Clark, who has been visiting Mrs. M. S. Satchell, went to Atwood, Kansas, Tuesday, to visit a sister. Mrs. Martha Johnson and daughter Eliza are expected home this week from their Kansas and Oklahoma visit. The Misses Maude Stone, Florence Younger and Jeannette Doyle returned from McCook, last Saturday, where they have been attending the normal. The last quarterly meeting on this charge was held at Spring Creek, last Saturday and Sunday. On account of the weather there was not a very good turnout from the other points on Sunday. A splendid sermon by Elder Hardaway is reported.
