

The Pope's American Cousin.
Rev. Don Luigi Sartori, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Midland, Md., a cousin of Pope Pius X, will sail for Rome next month to pay his respects to the new pontiff. The pope and the American parish priest are descendants of the same grandfather, the parents of the Midland pastor having added the "ri" to their name, according to the custom of the Venetian province in which they lived. There is a striking physical resemblance between Pope Pius X and Father Sartori. They are well acquainted.

A Great Map of France.
A complete, minute and exact map of the whole of France was completed over half a century ago, after thirty-five years of incessant labor and at an expense of over 10,000,000 francs, or $2,000,000. It was executed by officers of the general staff and the engineers of the army. It is the grandest work of the kind ever undertaken by any country in the world.
Difficulty in securing a jury isn't always a sign of decreasing stupidity in a given locality.

SHOCK CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS
How One Man Was Cured of All Desire for Liquor.
Jones, in spite of being a really kindly, honest fellow, with a loving wife, a cozy home and a flourishing young family, was rapidly becoming a slave to drink. Night after night he went home in a state which made his little wife heartsick, until she with a woman's ready wit, devised a scheme and with the aid of the family physician gave Jones such a shock that he probably never will drink again.
Like many other men, Jones usually lost all recollection of his actions after he had reached a certain period of intoxication. When, five or six weeks ago, he arrived at his home in a fit state for the experiment, his wife had him put to bed. As he lay there, dead to the world, the doctor put his right leg into a casing of plaster of paris and splints, taking care to bind them so tightly that when Jones recovered consciousness all sense of feeling would have left the limb.
It was a pathetic scene, mixed with grim humor, when Jones awoke the next day, and was told that in trying to find the keyhole he had fallen down the area and broken his leg. His remorse was augmented by the pressure on his leg, which the doctor took pains to keep alive at each successive dressing, and by the time that Jones had been in bed a month all desire for stimulants had left him.
It is not likely he will drink to excess again, but he reads this story of his loving wife's new cure for the alcoholic habit he will surely drop that limp which he now affects during his daily walk down Broadway.—New York Press.

THE LIVE STOCK MARKET.
Latest Quotations From South Omaha and Kansas City.
SOUTH OMAHA.
CATTLE—There was a moderate supply of cattle in sight and about the usual conditions prevailed. Neither packers nor feeder buyers seemed to be very anxious for supplies, but still they bought up about everything offered at right around steady prices. The few corn fed steers that arrived sold without much trouble at steady prices, but there was nothing strictly choice offered. Good to choice corn fed steers in good demand all the week and if anything are a little stronger. The cow market did not exhibit any great amount of life, but prices held about steady. The feeling seemed to be a little better, but there was not the strength that characterized yesterday's market. For the week cows are much over a dime lower as part of the loss of the early part of the week has been regained. Bulls, veal calves and stags sold in just about the same notches they have all the week. There were very few stockers and feeders offered and not many were wanted. The few that did arrive sold at not far from steady prices. Strictly choice feeders are not much lower for the week but aside from a few sales of that kind the general market is safely quoted 15¢ to 20¢ lower. There were only a few western grass beef steers offered and they sold about steady. For the week choice stuff about steady. The week's choice stuff could safely be quoted strong, but common grades have shown no improvement. Range cows held steady.
HOGS—There was not a heavy run of hogs, but reports from other points were not very favorable to the selling interests and as a result the market was rather weak. The heavy hogs sold largely from $5.50 to $5.60, medium weights from $5.75 up to $6, the top price being paid for a very fancy load weighing 147 pounds. This is the first load of this kind that has been received this year, all the other fancy lightweights averaging around 200 pounds.
SHEEP—Quotations for grass stock: Good to choice lambs, $4.65@4.85; fair to good lambs, $4.25@4.45; good to choice yearlings, $3.35@3.55; fair to good yearlings, $3.35@3.55; good to choice wethers, $2.50@2.70; fair to good wethers, $2.50@2.70; good to choice ewes, $2.75@2.95; fair to good ewes, $2.35@2.55; feeder lambs, $3.75@4.35; feeder yearlings, $3.25@3.50; feeder wethers, $3.00@3.25; feeder ewes, $1.50@2.20.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.
As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from a reputable physician, as the damage they will do is often permanent. It is true that you can possibly derive some benefit from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and it is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

King Edward's Coffee Maker.
Wherever King Edward goes nowadays he is accompanied by his own coffee maker, an Egyptian named Emin Abraham who serves his royal majesty with the fragrant beverage in small cups. The attendant of course, appears in all the glory of Oriental costume. Favored friends have been privileged to taste the carefully prepared brew, but none of them has gone into raptures over the inky looking fluid of which his majesty has become so fond of late.
Always look on the bright side.
To the housewife who has not yet become acquainted with the new things of everyday use in the market and who is reasonably satisfied with the old, we would suggest that a trial of Defiance Cold Water Starch be made at once. Not alone because it is guaranteed by the manufacturers to be superior to any other brand, but because each 10c package contains 16 ozs., while all the other brands contain but 12 ozs. It is safe to say that the lady who once uses Defiance Starch will use no other. Quality and quantity must win.
It is usually the idiot who rocks the boat that lives to regret it.
Most of the things that seem too good to be true are not.
Fought With Eagle.
James Ogle, a farmer at Nashville, Ind., had a fight with an eagle recently, which came near proving serious. He was working with his two sons when he heard some of his lambs beating. He went to investigate, and as he was climbing a fence a large eagle flew at him, struck him on the head and chest with its wings and knocked him down. It then flew away and Ogle went for a gun and then to his lambs. He found that two had been killed, and while he was looking at them the eagle came back and attacked him the second time. He fired several shots at it, and it flew away seemingly unhurt.
Fortune in Old Clock.
An artisan of Munich has become a rich man by the sale of an old clock which had been in the possession of his family for a number of generations. One day a stranger appeared at his house and offered him $25 for the clock. This sudden offer aroused the artisan's suspicions, which were increased when another stranger turned up on the following day and offered $250 for the timepiece. He took it to a dealer, and ascertained that it was a genuine "Peter Henle," worth nearly $25,000. He promptly sold it for that amount. He has hitherto been in receipt of a weekly wage of six dollars.
A Boy's victory.
Crossroads, Tenn., Sept. 14th.—Orbra Young, the ten-year-old son of Lester Young of this place, is a bright boy, and one who is very well liked by all who know him.
For some years Orbra has suffered a great deal with a form of Kidney Trouble which was very annoying, and which made him miserable all the time. He had to get up three or four times every night, almost all his life. His father heard of a remedy called Dodd's Kidney Pills, and bought some for the little fellow with the result that he is now completely cured of the old trouble. He says:
"Dodd's Kidney Pills soon gave me great relief, and now I can sleep all night without having to get up. We will always praise Dodd's Kidney Pills."
There are many children suffering from Kidney and Urinary troubles. These disorders should be promptly corrected. Dodd's Kidney Pills is a safe and sure remedy for all such derangements.
Master Orbra Young conquered his troubles and made a well boy of himself by using Dodd's Kidney Pills, and any one may do the same by the same means.
Parents should see to it that their children are given a fair chance in life, and there is nothing that can undermine the health of a growing child as much as Kidney and Urinary derangements.

For One Flea, $5.00.
Five thousand dollars is a big price to offer for one flea, but this is the amount positively offered by the Hon. Charles Rothschild of England for one of those bothersome insects. Mr. Rothschild needs a polar flea to complete his collection of these insects, and the $5,000 will be paid over to the person who brings him a flea from the back of the Arctic fox. The flea of the Arctic fox is to flea fanciers what the egg of the grea auk is to the collectors of birds' eggs. Mr. Rothschild has fitted out a whaler, which is now in the far north, to look for this flea among other Arctic curiosities.

NO NEED OF OFFICERS.
Dead Man's Friends Had Satisfied Ends of Justice.
John Fox, Jr., author of Kentucky mountaineer stories, and a Blue Grass man himself, was talking about the reign of lawlessness in the mountains of that state.
"I remember," he said, "the case of a man in a town where I lectured one time only, who shot a man in cold blood from behind a fence, and the authorities didn't do a thing with him."
"That's the trouble down there," responded an indignant listener. "The authorities seem to wink at that kind of killing. Did they know all the facts in this case?"
"Of course; but that didn't seem to make any difference."
"Well, I don't see why they didn't punish the murderer."
"They weren't altogether to blame," said Mr. Fox, rather apologetically.
"They must have been," contended the listener, still indignant.
"No," persisted Mr. Fox, "they were not. You see, the other man's friends caught the assassin before he got out of town and shot him so full of holes the grand jury didn't think it worth while to bother with the remains."
"Oh!" exclaimed the listener.—New York Times.

SUNDAY.
On Sunday no slum shock
"To work!" beats on the tired brain;
What bliss to wake, to scorn the clock,
To smile and go to sleep again.
And joy goes dimpling through the town,
On heart-strings her sweet tune she strains.
And care-worn brows forget to frown,
When Sunday comes.
On Sunday there's no breathless haste
To mill or mart on tireless legs;
And oh, how beautiful the taste,
Of leisure in the ham and eggs!
To munch your breakfast at your ease,
To jeer at time and snap your thumbs—
You only get such joys as these
When Sunday comes.

When Sunday comes the little girls,
Before the glass with huge delight,
Take out of jail the little curls
That they have had in pins all night.
The little boys don "Sunday best,"
Which Freedom's ardent spirit nubs;
And by clean collars they're oppressed
When Sunday comes.
When Sunday comes how grand to sit,
(When you have dined among your kin)
To read a bit, and doze a bit,
Until they bring the supper in,
With music of the jingling spoon
And saucer, while the kettle hums
An extra pleasing Sabbath tune
When Sunday comes.

When Sunday comes with what a glow
A man may puff his pipe and say
(As Horace said some time ago)—
"Lord of myself I live to-day!"
So here's to Sunday, three times three;
With glad heart's inward sifs and drums;
And—keep a corner, please, for me,
When Sunday comes.

Craved Salmon and Oregon Water.
Many Oregonians were inclined to laugh at the Missouri woman mentioned a short time ago who insisted on going back to her native state because there were no catfish in Oregon. It appears, however, that Oregon women are as whimsical as Missouri women, as a citizen who has two sons practicing law in Brooklyn, N. Y., and doing very well went on there with his wife to visit them a short time ago, and at her desire left her here. She thought she could look after the boys and enjoy life in the East, but she has quite unexpectedly returned home. When asked why she did not remain in Brooklyn, as arranged, she said such a craving came over her for a slice of Chinook salmon and a drink of Bull Run water that it seemed as if she could not live without them, so she came back.—Portland Oregonian.

London's Unoccupied Houses.
A count of the unoccupied houses in London shows 40,669. That is one house in fifteen of the whole city.

Attorney General Knox, the Pittsburgh member of President Roosevelt's official family, virtually becomes a resident of Philadelphia by acquiring the Matthews mansion, at Valley Forge, where Lafayette had his headquarters with Washington during the revolution. His ancestor, General Knox, lived there with his brave wife during those troublous days, and it has long been the attorney general's desire to get possession of the old place and restore it as nearly as possible to the conditions of old days. He gave about $100,000 for the estate, which includes 266 acres.

Proceedings Begun to Bring Back Leopold J. Stern.
WASHINGTON—This government has instituted proceedings for the extradition of Leopold J. Stern, the Baltimore contractor who disappeared when indicted by the grand jury in this city for conspiracy in a postal contract and who was located recently at Toronto, Canada. Postoffice Inspector Walter S. Mayer of Chicago left here Friday night for Toronto, where he will confer immediately with the crown's attorney and the American consul there.
The state department also telegraphed the consul to request the authorities at Toronto to hold Stern under the provision in the extradition treaty between the United States and Great Britain that a fugitive can be held by either country at the instance of the other for forty days. Mayer carried certified copies of the papers in the Stern case and other documents essential.

RAILROADS TO ABOLISH RATES FOR MERCHANTS' MEETINGS.
CHICAGO—Railroads composing the Central Passenger association have practically decided to discontinue the practice of granting reduced rates for merchants' meetings, which are now held in nearly every large center of the country. Territory covered by the lines extends from Chicago to Pittsburgh and Buffalo on the east and north of the Ohio river. A resolution, which was passed at the monthly meeting of the association Friday, is to the effect that in granting reduced rates the railroads are discriminating against small cities and in favor of the large distributing centers.

Enters on Routine Work.
SOUTHPORT, England—The British Association for the Advancement of Science has entered upon its regular work with a large attendance.
Will Abolish Direct Taxes.
COPENHAGEN—The report of the West Indian commission has been published. It practically coincides with the forecast of the Associated Press from Berlin, August 31. The abolition of the majority of the direct taxes and the export duty on rum, sugar and molasses are recommended. One colonial council for all the Danish West Indian islands, with three representatives in the Danish parliament, is also suggested.

Food and Energy.
A London newspaper has published statistics to show that people with large appetites become the chief nations of the world, and that the nature of the food eaten has a striking relation to national character. Thus, comparing the daily expenditure per head on food with the exports of a country, it is found that the people eating the most work the most. The following table shows the result of investigation along this line. The first column of figures represents the expense of food per head per day in cents, and the second column the annual exports of the countries named:
United States 58 $1,495,000,000
Great Britain 46 1,400,000,000
Germany 42 1,105,000,000
France 38 830,000,000
Italy 18 270,000,000
