A Cut and Slash.

The Weekly State Journal, which for thirty-five years has been a dollar a year, will now be sent to new subscribers a whole year for 25 cents. Every family in Nebraska that does not have a daily paper should get the Weekly State Journal at this price, 25 cents a year. A big eight or ten-page paper published every Friday, with all the news of the world, all of Nebraska news in particular and full of good reading matter for the whole family. At this price you can not only afford to take it yourself, but can send it to your friends in other states. All you have to do is to send your name and address with a quarter to the Weekly State Journal, Lincoln, Neb. Why not send in your order at once?

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturer in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by L. W. McConnell, druggist.

Ferrier-Gregory.

FRANKLIN, Neb., Sept. 10.—Mr. Ira Ferrier and Miss Minnie Gregory were married at this place today at high noon at the residence of the bride by Rev. O. T. Douglass. Relatives from different parts of the state were in attendance. The bride has resided here since girlhood. Mr. Ferrier, who is employed by the B. & M. railway, worked at this place several years ago and is at the present time cashier for the same company at Cheyenne, Wyo., where they will make their future home.—Omaha Bee.

Shop Foreman Resigns.

Plattsmouth, Neb., Sept. 13.—(Special)—Joseph Lake, who has for eighteen years been the assistant foreman in the coach department of the Burlington in this city, resigned his position yesterday. He expects to leave next week with his family for Seattle, Wash., where they will reside in the future. Mr. Lake was tendered a solid gold watch and charm by the employes who have worked under him for many years as a slight token of the respect in which he is held.—Lincoln Journal.

Shut Your Eyes and See How

You would like to go through this world with a black veil before you. That is what will happen if your eyes need attention and you neglect them. If you need glasses, have your eyes examined by Dr. Schwartz, the graduate refractician and eye specialist of Denver, who will be in McCook, September 25-26, at the Commercial hotel. Come early and have your children's eyes examined before sending them to school.

21 Years a Dyspeptic.

R. H. Foster, 318 S. 2d St., Salt Lake City, writes: I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years; tried many doctors without relief; recently I got a bottle of Herbina. One bottle cured me, I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends; it is curing them, too." 50c at A. McMillen's.

Advertised Letters.

The following letters were advertised by the McCook postoffice, Sept. 14, 1903: Alberts, Joseph. Burton, Lillie. Cunningham, H. E. Crawford, J. W. Griffith, C. DeWitt. Raudel, Fred.

When calling for these letters, please say they were advertised.

Devoured by Worms.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and to begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 50c at A. McMillen's.

F. E. Seeley Hurt By Falling Skylight.

F. E. Seeley, a railway postal clerk living at 1519 F street, was seriously hurt in Ewing's clothing store at 1115 O street yesterday afternoon about 4:30. Mr. Seeley, with his wife, were standing near the center of the store. Mr. Seeley happened to be directly under the skylight, which lets light into the store from the upper story. The upper story is occupied by Rudge & Guelzel as a warehouse. Someone walked over the skylight above and immediately afterwards a big pane of glass, perhaps 31-2x2 feet and very thick, fell to the floor below with a crash. In falling it divided into two pieces, one piece coming down edgewise and striking a pile of clothing cutting the cloth and doing great damage to what it struck. The other piece seemed to fall in a manner that it struck Mr. Seeley on the head and on the side. It broke in pieces and Mr. Seeley was carried to the floor by the weight. He did not rise. He was picked up and found to be badly injured. He was placed on a table and a physician called who dressed his wounds. Later he was taken to his home. While unconscious for a time he later partially regained consciousness. Dr. Dawson, who attended him said that the scalp was badly cut by the glass, yet he did not think the skull was fractured. There was a possibility, he said, that a fracture had been made at the base of the brain. The injury was regarded as a very serious one, yet it was believed Mr. Seeley will recover.

Mr. Seeley is a well known employe of the railway mail service, running between Lincoln and Omaha.—Tuesday's Journal.

Dancing.

Mrs. C. O. Brown, formerly of Omaha, has been making preparations for a dancing school in this city.

Her opening dance will be held in the opera house, Monday, September 28th, 1903. Invitations will be sent out next Wednesday. Music furnished by K. P. orchestra.

All mothers wishing to enter their children in the classes or to have private lessons will kindly see Mrs. Brown at her home, or call at Republican office from 3 to 4 Saturday afternoon, September 19, to make arrangements. Others wishing to take lessons can do likewise. Prices are as follows: Ladies and gentleman class—ladies, 12 lessons, $6; gentlemen, 12 lessons, $8; season, September to May, $15. Children—new beginners—term—10 weeks, 20 lessons, $10; season $20. A reduction is made if more than one child out of the same family attend. Children's advance classes, term, 12 lessons, $8. Season October to May, $15. Private lessons will be given to ladies, gentlemen or children unable to attend classes. One lesson $2, three lessons $5, six lessons $8, private lessons to pupils of the classes $1 each. The hours for classes will not be decided upon until classes are arranged. Respectfully, Mrs. C. O. Brown, 'Phone 230, Dancing Instructor.

Unique Case in This County.

On a hearing before Judge Vinsonhaler, George Conrad was bound over to the district court, his bond being fixed at $800. Attorney P. A. Wells of South Omaha was the complainant and the testimony was clear and explicit.

The case is a criminal one, the charge being that Conrad threatened Wells with great bodily harm, and that he would kill him if he (Wells) did not dismiss a case in the district court in which Conrad was interested.

The petition does not ask that Conrad be bound over or put under bonds to keep the peace, and is the first of its kind brought in Douglas county for a number of years, if not the first case of its kind in the county. The penalty for "threatening" a man is not less than one nor more than three years in the penitentiary.—Omaha Bee.

Only One Little Bud.

By Mrs. Lillian Van.
Did'st thou find a tiny flower.
With a fragrance new and rare,
Nestled 'mong the other blossoms
Tended with such loving care?
'Twas the wee bud thou hadst tended
Just a while with love and care,
Blooming now in all its splendor
Of new beauty sweet and rare.
Did'st thou see a new star shining
Through the gathering clouds tonight?
Did'st thou hear a low, sweet murmur
In the breezes soft and light?
'Twas the bright eyes of thy darling
Like some strains of music sweet,
Flushing back a smile to cheer you
Ere you whispered that good-bye.
Did'st thou hear a low, faint echo
Like some strains of music sweet,
Drifting o'er the flower-strewn meadow
Nestling softly at thy feet?
'Twas God's voice that softly whispered:
"I have only claimed my own.
Thou hast still my other blossoms
That shall cheer thy journey home."

Stomach Trouble.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"B. L. Byer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says B. T. Little, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by L. W. McConnell, druggist.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. For sale by L. W. McConnell.

For a bilious attack take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by L. W. McConnell, druggist.

Rev. Carman of Huntley was a city visitor, last evening.
