

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."

J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1. All druggists.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows. Leave it with him. We are willing.

J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

EAST SIDE BOXELDER PRECINCT.
R. H. Harrison has erected a new windmill.

R. E. Hatcher has just completed a new barn. It is 40 by 60 feet in size.

Mr. Bogle will build a new six-room dwelling for his renter Nelson Wolfe just as soon as carpenters can be secured to do the work.

As the years go by THE TRIBUNE covers the county more widely and thoroughly and becomes more nearly the ideal county newspaper. It is getting to be harder every year to keep house without it. And it is only one dollar a year at that.

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargeton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at L. W. McConnell's drug store.

At our old home in Indiana it rained all day last Thursday, and all night and all day Friday. The mud is half knee deep.

Ernest Cross lived in this town from 1881 to 1890 with his uncle Wm. Coleman. He has lived in California for several years. On December 16th last, he and a bright California girl were married. We wish them a long and prosperous life.

May they always live happy
And not in hot water
And the first child a boy
And the next one a daughter.

Will buy hogs Tuesdays and Saturdays.
F. S. Wilcox.

Wm. S. Crane of California, Md., suffered from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. For sale by all druggists.

CONGRATULATIONS.
Mr. John H. Cullom, editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have 5 children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by all druggists.
