NEBRASKA AT THE EXPOSITION.

Display One that the State Need Not Be Ashamed Of.

James Walsh, superintendent of the agricultural exhibits for the Nebraska commission to the Louisiana Purchase exposition, has returned from St. Louis on business connected with the Nebraska exhibit, says the Omaha Bee.

"We are getting the Nebraska exhibit in shape," he said, and few states will surpass us in the variety and excellence of our display. The Nebraska corn exhibit will be one of the very best at the exposition grounds. While not the largest, it will make up in excellence what it may lack in quantity. Our sheep grain and grass displays are exceptionally fine and will surpass anything at the exposition. We are purposely a little slow in installing our exhibits, for we do not desire to give our competitors too much of an advantage to profit by our ideas, and then we want to keep the exhibit fresh and continuously interesting.

"The other state contingents to Nebraska are extremely anxious to know just what we are going to do. Most of them have thrice the money appropriated for exhibition purposes that Nebraska has and they are going into it very extensively, but I want to say right here that even with our meager appropriation the Nebraska exhibit will be a thing that no Nebraskan need blush for.

"The special object of my return to Nebraska is to procure kinesiograph pictures of actual spring plowing scenes in Nebraska. I shall go to Benson and obtain a moving picture scene of actual plowing with gang plows there and this will complete our list of moving pictures for the exhibition. This moving picture series of actual living farming scenes in Nebraska is an unique and extremely fascinating manner, a feature not as extensively undertaken by any other state. These views will be added to during the summer harvest season and they will have the merit of being fresh and real.

"Prof. Barbour, superintendent of the educational exhibit, is putting the Nebraska school exhibits in the best of shape and these, too, will be unequalled in completeness and will reflect the highest credit on the state."

Women who work, whether in the house, store, office or factory, very rarely have the ability to stand the strain. The case of Miss Frankie Orser, of Boston, Mass., is interesting to all women, and adds further proof that woman's great friend in need is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered misery for several years. My back ached and I had bearing down pains, and frequent headaches. I would often wake from a restless sleep in such pain and misery that it would be hours before I could close my eyes again. I dreaded the long nights and weary days. I could do no work. I consulted different physicians hoping to get relief, but, finding that their medicines did not cure me, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it was highly recommended to me. I am glad that I did so, for I soon found that it was the medicine for my case. Very soon I was rid of every ache and pain and restored to perfect health. I feel splendid, have a fine appetite, and have gained in weight a lot."—MISS FRANKIE ORSER, 14 Warrenton St., Boston, Mass.

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak, sick and discouraged, and exhausted with each day's work. Some derangement of the feminine organs is responsible for this exhaustion, following any kind of work or effort. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you just as it has thousands of other women.

The case of Mrs. Lennox, which follows, proves this.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Last winter I broke down suddenly and had to seek the advice of a doctor. I felt sore all over, with a pounding in my head, and a dizziness which I had never experienced before. I had a miserable appetite, nothing tasted good, and gradually my health broke down completely. The doctor said I had female weakness, but, although I took his medicine faithfully, I found no relief.

"After two months I decided to try what a change would do for me, and as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was strongly recommended to me I decided to try it. Within three days I felt better, my appetite returned, and I could sleep. In another week I was able to sit up part of the day, and in ten days more I was well. My strength had returned, I gained fourteen pounds, and felt better and stronger than I had for years. I gratefully acknowledge its merits. Very sincerely yours, MRS. BERT E. LENNOX, 120 East 4th St., Dixon, Ill."

MARCH, APRIL, MAY.
Weak Nerves, Poor Digestion, Impure Blood, Depressed Spirits.

The sun has just crossed the equator on its yearly trip north. The real equator is shifted toward the north nearly eighteen miles every day. With the return of the sun comes the bodily life peculiar to spring. With one person the nerves are weak; another person, digestion poor; with others the blood is out of order; and still others have depressed spirits and tired feeling. All these things are especially true of those who have been suffering with catarrh in any form or la grippe. A course of Peruna is sure to correct all these conditions. It is an ideal spring medicine. Peruna does not irritate—it invigorates. It does not temporarily stimulate—it strengthens. It equalizes the circulation of the blood, tranquilizes the nervous system and regulates the bodily functions. Peruna, unlike so many spring medicines is not simply a physic or stimulant or nerve. It is a natural tonic and invigorator. If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio
