When it comes to keeping a community in an uproar we know of no two Nebraska newspaper men who are in the class of Jasper and Samuel Randolph. BAND RECEPTION—On Friday evening, in the Masonic Temple, an elaborate reception was given to the Indianola Cornet Band by the Misses May Hotze, Nettie McCool, Ena Gamsby, Gertrude Teel, May Neel, Stella McCool and Angie Quick. A mass of flowers and smilax formed an archway between the reception and dining-rooms and beautiful table center pieces were made of pink and white carnations. A number of toasts were given to the boys of the band, and also to the girls who had so successfully planned and arranged the reception, and to Mrs. Beardslee of McCook, who had sent the band boys an elegant cake as a token of her esteem. Solos were rendered by Misses Owen and Quick. FEMALE WEAKNESS

542-1-2 Congress St. PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902. I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whom I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Wilhelmina Sauer Treasurer, Portland Economic League
