TWENTY-THIRD YEAR

MCCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 10, 1904.

NUMBER 2

The Thomas-McCarl Wedding.

A very pretty home wedding was that solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah R. McCarl, 1423 P street, Lincoln, Neb., at 6:30 o'clock, Thursday evening, June 2, 1904, when Mr. George H. Thomas, superintendent of the city schools of McCook, and Miss Blanche E. McCarl of McCook, were united in marriage by Rev. James Wallace Larkin, former pastor of the Harvard Congregational church, who is now located at Oakland, Iowa. The ring service was used and very impressively performed.

Those present were Mrs. Sarah R. McCarl and Miss Ida McCarl, mother and sister of the bride; Messrs. T. E., B. L. and J. R. McCarl of McCook, brothers, and Mr. Lee Long, cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Griff J. Thomas and Mrs. Harrie G. Thomas, Harvard, parents and sister of the groom; Rev. and Mrs. J. Wallace Larkin, Oakland, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wollenburg, Lincoln.

After the ceremony the guests sat down to a bountiful wedding supper, followed by an evening passed most happily with vocal and instrumental music and sociability.

The bride and groom arrived in Harvard on No. 3, last (Friday) evening, and will remain here a few days with the home folks, when they will proceed to McCook and "get their house in order"—Mr. Thomas entering upon his duties as principal of the McCook Junior Normal school, week after next.

The groom needs no introduction to Harvard readers—he passed from boyhood to manhood here and has a host of friends who congratulate him upon the splendid record he has made as an educator and the excellent character he has maintained as a man. His bride is a graduate of the McCook high school, later a teacher in the McCook schools, and for the past year a student at the University Conservatory of Music. She is a young lady of very pleasing disposition, highly accomplished, and will make a worthy helpmate to the man of her choice. We extend to them The Courier's choicest benediction.—The Harvard Courier.

RECEPTION AT HARVARD.

Harvard, Neb., June 7.—Superintendent George H. Thomas of the McCook city schools, and his bride were given a reception from 8:30 until 11 o'clock last evening, at the home of his parents in this city. About one hundred and twenty-five of our citizens attested by their presence to the esteem in which the young man is held in this community. The decorations were red and white carnations and the national colors.

Our Fruit Phosphates.

There can be nothing more delicious and healthful than the phosphates served at our fountain. Our syrups are made from pure fruit juices or from the fresh, ripe fruit, and the result is a refreshing, satisfying beverage that cannot be excelled. Orange, cherry, lemon, strawberry and others. McCONEILL, Druggist.

Another Birthday for The Tribune.

Last week marked THE TRIBUNE'S entrance upon the twenty-third year of its existence. Of the twenty-two years it has been published without break or change, without a merger or loss of identity, the paper has been under its present management twenty-one years—a record unequalled by any other publication in Southwestern Nebraska.

Next comes Fort Washakie, then the Indian reservation, after that the Yellowstone park.

S. G. GOEKEN writes the publisher briefly from Clarkston, Wash., that the Goehens are all in good health and live in a forest of fruit trees and vines. May 31st they picked 40 baskets, 800 pounds, of cherries. They have a 5-acre orchard, six years old, estimated to have 30,000 pounds of cherries. No one complains of storms or drouth or buffalo gnats. If it rains, he says it is O. K., and if it don't rain, we have plenty of water at $10 a year for 5 acres. He adds that Miss Eunice was married, May 4th, to Mr. B. Mickelson of Hastings, Neb. A postscript states that they can see snow on the mountains today, June 2d. That that is a fine place to live in. While land seems high at $400, $800 and $1,000 per acre, when you have a bearing orchard of 5 or 10 acres, you have lots of work and a nice income.

Garlick-Somerville Wedding.

The union of Mr. Guy E. Garlick of Saint Ann, Frontier county, and Miss Ella Somerville of this city was happily consummated at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Somerville, a few miles southwest of McCook, last Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. M. B. Carman of the Methodist church being the officiating clergyman.

The ceremony was witnessed by the relatives of the contracting parties and a number of invited guests. A wedding supper was served after the ceremony.

The young people were nicely remembered with gifts.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Somerville and is highly esteemed by all who know her. The groom is postmaster and merchant at Saint Ann, Frontier county, about 20 miles north of McCook.

THE TRIBUNE voices the sentiment of many well-wishing friends here and in the Saint Ann neighborhood in offering congratulations and wishing them a bon voyage.

Cut Out Toy Pistols and Cannon Crackers.

Readers of THE TRIBUNE will recall the new city ordinance recently passed by the council regulating and restricting the sale of fireworks, and prohibiting the sale of certain kinds of fireworks, notably "any toy pistol using explosives, air-guns, rockets and any and all fireworks containing dynamite, gun cotton, giant powder or any other kind of explosive of a higher grade than common gun powder." The ordinance is a proper safeguard to life, limb and property, as will appear from the 1903 record. In addition to those made cripples for life and others painfully disabled, there were 406 deaths. Of this total 363 were caused by the toy pistol and blank cartridge and 17 by cannon crackers.

This is not a certainty, but a possibility.
