Chairman. Secretary.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobek of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for liver and kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by L. W. McConnell, druggist.

Union Outdoor Meeting.

The Methodist, Baptist, Congregational and Christian churches of our city united in an outdoor meeting in the city park, last Sunday evening. "Christian Citizenship" was the topic upon which each of the pastors spoke. In view of the approach of July 4th, the meeting took on a patriotic coloring. There was a large attendance and for the most part good interest. The short addresses of the different ministers were characterized by earnestness and warmth. All in all the meeting was quite satisfactory. It may be that more of these union gatherings may be had in the park during the heated season.

Small waists are no longer in style. It's the round plump waists that come by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea; that's all the go. 35 cents. Tea or tablet form. L. W. McCONNELL.

Weak Hearts

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the final result. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, takes the strain of the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Sold by L. W. McCONNELL.

Two Horses Stolen.

Two saddle horses from Perry Stone's cattle ranch at the mouth of Driftwood creek were stolen from the public hitching square back of the Citizens bank on the night of July 4th. The thieves accommodatingly stole saddles and bridles too. A suitable reward is offered for information leading to recovery.

Five Hundred Miles in 12 Hours.

Word has been received that the winner of the carrier pigeon fly between McCook and Minneapolis, Monday, made the distance, about 500 miles, in 12 hours and 7 minutes; the second bird arrived there just 19 minutes later. This is said to beat the world's record.

IDEOGRAPHIC FIGURES.

A Lesson in English That Was Taught by a Chinaman.

That we have partially adopted the Chinese method in our written language was a new thought to me and one that I got from the proprietor of a Park avenue laundry when, in the natural Caucasian fashion, I referred to his written language as being very inferior.

"John," I said, "why do your people use those chicken tracks instead of having an alphabet, as we have?"
"A B C" too much trouble," he answered quickly. "Why, you use chicken tracks, too, sometimes."
"We don't use them," I replied.

"Yes; you use them very good. I show you." Then he dipped his convenient brush in the ink and wrote the number "89" on a sheet of brocade paper. "That name of street over there," he continued, pointing. "You say 'eighty-nine' you don't write it with 'A B C.' That Chinese. One mark is one thing—you say 'idea,' yes, idea. You don't put down 'n-i-n-e'—and here his brush came into use again—"you put down '9.' That's very good Chinese. We do that all the time."

"That is ideographic," I suggested.
"Yes, English have much ideographic. All figures ideographic. See?" And again he used his brush. "You make 'and' and you say 'minus,' 'plus.' You don't spell with 'A B C.' That is a mark for idea—ideographic. You make 'M' and say 'thousand.' That Chinese way. Very good. I say, 'How hot?' and you write 'H-S-T?' All Chinese. No 'A B C,' no many letters, only marks and ideas.

"Fine way. English know some fine Chinese ways. See! '8,' '9.' You know them. Ideas! You say ideographic. You make many Chinese marks—marks for stars, for plants, for measures, for weights and signs for hundred and hundred many things; same as Chinese. Good!"

I actually left that laundry wiser than I entered it.—New York Herald.

A DRAMATIC LAWYER.

Effective Climax That Resulted in Settling a Murderer Free.

Lachaud, the great French advocate, was renowned for deliberate and telling dramatic improvisations, as it were, upon the original theme.

At one time, for instance, he was defending a murderer on Dec. 24. All day long he harassed witnesses, recalling them, causing delay after delay before getting his final address to the jury. It was well on in the evening before he commenced. Then suddenly, at the height of his passionate appeals for the prisoner, the slow, solemn bells of the cathedral next door pealed for the midnight mass—the first mass of Christmas morning. Lachaud stopped as if overwhelmed by a sudden warning.

"Do you hear?" he said solemnly after a moment's silence, and his manner conveyed that all his own glib eloquence had been shattered by the divine interruption of Christ himself. "The Redeemer comes to amend our pliable endeavors. Which of us would dare now, on this great day of mercy and forgiveness, to condemn another human-being and, above all, to condemn one whose culpability is more than doubtful?"

The prisoner was acquitted without the least difficulty, though his death sentence ten minutes before had been regarded as certain. The actual sound of the pealing bells had been too much for nerves already strained to snapping point by the fatigue of a long day's sitting.

But nobody guessed, except the few who knew Lachaud intimately, that he had been maneuvering from the time the court opened in the morning to get that one stirring effect. The prisoner was a dead man without it and saved as certainly if it could be brought off successfully.—Kansas City Independent.

Simple Headache Cure.

Here is a headache cure that is said to be a marvelous remedy and to relieve the sufferer when all else fails. It is easy to make and easy to apply, and it consists simply of black pepper and cayenne. Take a quantity of black pepper and put it in a handkerchief. Then fold the handkerchief over so that the grains cannot fall out and saturate the whole thing with camphor. Bind this "plaster" on the head and lie down. In a very few moments the headache will be relieved and the patient will be asleep. When the handkerchief becomes dry saturate again with the camphor; that's all. People who have tried everything else say that this home remedy relieves them quickest. At any rate, it is worth trying.

Jules Ferry's Escape From the Mob.
Jules Ferry had a narrow escape from violence at the hands of the Paris commune, to whom he was especially odious. He eluded their pursuit through a church, letting himself down in a basket out of a rear window while the mob was forcing the outer door. The basket fell to the ground with a thud and gave its occupant a severe shaking up.

Where Invention Is Necessary.
"Have you made any improvements in your invention?"
"I have," answered the enterprising scientist. "One of my assistants has just discovered a new way to put stock on the market."—Washington Star.

Life's Surprises.
"Life," said the tobaccoist to the wooden Indian, "is for most people a continuous process of getting used to things that they haven't been expecting."—Syracuse Herald.

She Tried Five Doctors.

Mrs. Frances L. Sales of Missouri Valley, Ia., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney trouble five years; had severe pains in my back and a frequent desire to urinate. When riding I experienced much pain over the region of the kidneys. I tried five physicians without benefit and then concluded to try Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three $1 bottles I was completely cured." Sold by A. McMillen.

No Pity Shown.

"For years fate was after me continuously," writes F. A. Gullede, Verbena, Ala. "I had a terrible case of piles causing 24 tumors. When all failed Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. Equally good for burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c at McConnell's drug store.
