Opening Week of Public Schools. The McCook public schools opened, Monday morning, for the fall and winter term, with a very encouraging outlook. From the opening day everything opened up nicely. The attendance was astonishingly and unexpectedly large. Most of the old teacher corps are filling their old positions and the additions to the corps are regarded as strong. THE TRIBUNE has hopes of a successful and profitable school year.

The assignment of teachers is as follows:

Miss Celia A. Gorby, high school principal.

William E. Heffelbower, high school assistant.

Miss Gertrude Storer, high school ssistant.

Miss Mary Powers, 8th grade. Miss Ernini Rathbun, 7th grade. Miss Laura McMillen, 5th grade. Miss Hannah Stangland, 4th grade. Miss Gertrude Colvin, 2nd grade. Miss Effie Abbott, preparatory west. Miss Millicent Slaby, preparatory south.

The enrollment on opening days for the past four years was as follows: The first week attendance for the years 1901, 1903, 1904 was as follows: The enrollment by grades for the first day and at the end of the first week of 1904 is as follows:

Grades 1st day 1st week 12th.
