Mauck a Straight Democrat.
The following is an extract from an editorial published in the Lawrence, Nebraska, Locomotive, a Democratic paper published in the home county of Mr. Mauck, the fusion nominee for congress: You remember how bluntly Congressman Norris stated that Harry Mauck was riding two horses in opposite directions when he became the candidate of the populist and democratic parties for congress? The platforms, he said, being absolutely opposed to each other placed Mauck in this ridiculous position. He did not say that Mr. Mauck was the regular democratic nominee, and the populists believing that because herepresented some great principles for which they have struggled and fought, could endorse him as their candidate in the hope that he would represent them to that extent, at least. MR. MAUCK IS NOT RUNNING FOR CONGRESS ON THE POPULIST PLATFORM, BUT IS THE CANDIDATE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY SUPPORTING DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES and the populists have voluntarily declared him to be their candidate.

ALBERT WILSEY of Moorefield, Frontier county, has been nominated by the republicans of his district for state senator. Legislative honors have been plentiful with Mr. Wilsey. When he was resident of York county, the republicans here sent him to the legislature. Mr. Wilsey was straight when he lived in York county and no one here has heard of him having deviated from the narrow path since going away.—York Republican.

"Our highest hopes are often destroyed to prepare us for better things. The failure of the caterpillar is the birth of the butterfly; the passing of the bud is the becoming of the rose; the death or destruction of the seed is the prelude to its resurrection as wheat. It is at night in the darkest hours, those preceding dawn, that plants grow best, that they most increase in size. May this not be one of nature's gentle showings to man of the times when he grows best, of the darkness of failure which is evolving into the sunlight of success. Let us fear only the failure of not living the right as we see it, leaving the results to the guardianship of the infinite."—J. W. Bryan.

SHYLOCK
Shylock was the man who wanted a pound of human flesh. There are many Shylocks now, the convalescent, the consumptive, the sickly child, the pale young woman, all want human flesh and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion. Scott's Emulsion is flesh and blood, bone and muscle. It feeds the nerves, strengthens the digestive organs and they feed the whole body. For nearly thirty years Scott's Emulsion has been the great giver of human flesh.

In Earnest Then.
"I have noticed," said the offhand philosopher, "that a woman will get a golf dress when she has no intention to play golf."

"That's so," agreed the man with the incandescent whiskers.
"And," continued the offhand philosopher, "she will get a ball gown when she cares nothing about dancing and a tennis dress when she wouldn't play tennis for fear she will freckle and a bathing suit when she has no thought of going into the water and a riding habit when the very thought of climbing on a horse gives her the chills and"

"Yes," interrupted the man with the incandescent whiskers, "but when she gets a wedding dress she means business. Ever notice that?"—Judge.

Dangerous Symptoms.
The story is told of a Scotch preacher who gave his people long, strong sermons and delivered them in a remarkably deliberate manner. One Sunday he asked a friend who was visiting him to occupy his pulpit in the morning. "An' were you satisfied wif my preaching?" asked his friend as they walked home from the kirk.
"Weel," said his host slowly, "it was a fair discourse. Will'm; a fair discourse, but it pained me at the last to see the folk looking so fresh and wide-awake. I mistrust 'twasna sae long nor sae sound as it should ha been."

The Inconvenience of Illness.
Patient—I can't afford to be sick. Specialist—Is your business so profitable? Patient—No; yours is.—Judge.

When a woman becomes flurried she feels for a fan. When a man becomes flurried he feels for a cigar.

OUR GOLDEN WEDDING DAY.

For fifty golden years, dear wife, We've journeyed side by side; Just fifty years ago today Since you became my bride. My bonny, dark-haired lassie dear With eyes as dark as night With blushing cheeks and rosy lips And smile so sweet and bright.

Just fifty golden years, dear wife, Since you gave me hand and heart; Tho' weal and woe together still Until us death should part. And as we've journeyed down life's stream Some clouds looked dark and blue; But your dear eyes would always see The silver lining, too.

Yes, fifty golden years, dear wife, On life's matrimonial sea. Awhile our little barque was full— Now there's just you and me. Our boys and girls all long ago Have left the old home door, And soon we'll cast our anchor, dear, Upon the other shore.

Just fifty golden years, dear wife, On life's tempestuous sea, And soon, we know, God's boatman pale Shall sail for you and me. And he will find us ready, dear, With just one prayer, that we May enter thro' the golden gate, Together—you and me.
—MRS. LILLIAN VAN.

Confessions of a Priest.
Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by L. W. McConnell. Only 50c.

ONLY ONE ISSUE LEFT

It Is the Officers, and the Democrats Will Never Abandon It.
There is one issue the Democrats have not and never will abandon—the officers. With a light heart and an easy conscience they are willing to swallow the gold standard, to enter a molle pros as to the "tariff robbery," to construct the Panama canal and to postpone independence for the Philippines until the Filipinos have donned clothes, but the officers—these they must have or the last excuse for their party's existence is gone.

Editor Pulitzer is writing page upon page of open letters in the New York World, which prints them because he owns it, to prove that Theodore Roosevelt and he alone is the issue. "The paramount issue of this campaign," the editor writes, addressing himself direct to the president, "is not as you would have it, free trade or free silver, but YOU YOURSELF—Theodore Roosevelt. This issue inforced upon the country by your unusual temperament and talent—your own strong, able, ambitious, resourceful, militant, passionate personality, your versatile and surprising genius."

If this were not meant to be alarming it would fittingly describe one side of the personality of the Republican standard bearer worthy of being printed in flaming type and posted at every cross roads in the country. Add to it the unquestioned attributes of honesty, courage and patriotism, and you have the true measure of the head of the Republican ticket. Mr. Pulitzer cannot find that the possession of any of the impulsive and willful traits he has attributed to the president has led him into hasty, arbitrary or ill-considered acts, or into any policy inimical to the public welfare or that has not been fully justified by the event.

No higher tribute could be paid to the president than the way in which he has been singled out by Mr. Pulitzer as the one engrossing, overshadowing issue of the campaign.

Now, why does Mr. Pulitzer wish to get rid of a president of such known and approved qualities to make way for the untested and unexperienced master of Rosemount? The answer is plain—THE OFFICERS. Mr. Pulitzer is a Democrat—a transplanted Missouri Democrat. He knows that the national Democracy is very hungry and very thirsty and that it is weary of feeding upon the husks that fall to the share of the opposition party at Washington.

So long as Mr. Roosevelt is in the White House Mr. Pulitzer knows that every office, outside of the classified service, will go to a Republican, provided there is no Democrat so much better qualified for it that to ignore his claims would create a national scandal.

What Mr. Pulitzer and the Democracy want is that the only touchstone of fitness for federal offices shall be the frayed maxim of David B. Hill, "I am a Democrat." Upon this issue he has no misgivings as to the "firm and irrevocable" convictions of the sphinx of Esopus. In Judge Parker's eyes the author of the maxim "To the victors belong the spoils" was the greatest statesman, not excepting Ioss Tweed, New York has ever produced. And Mr. Pulitzer believes that a Democratic mummy of the Marcy school in the White House would not permit any question of fitness to interfere between the faithful and the federal pay roll.

At present the sturdy, robust Republicanism of Theodore Roosevelt stands between the Democracy and the offices. How to remove this stumbling block in the path of the lean and hungry wanderers of 1896 and 1900 is the supreme, the only issue left to the Democracy.

If a national election could be decided by the voters wanting a job, irrespective of their fitness for it, the Democracy under the leadership of Mr. Pulitzer would be invincible.

Imperialism of Steel.
When the great iron and steel industry of the United States thrives, other American industries thrive. The Democratic party could not legislate to destroy the protection to the iron and steel industry without legislating to destroy the prosperity of the United States. The millions of additional profit and wages that have come to the iron and steel industry under Republican rule would have been earned, if at all, by foreign nations, had Democratic policies prevailed during the last eight years. The gigantic rise of this industry during the last eight years added enormously to the wealth of the United States, and every branch of American industry and agriculture was stimulated by it. "Prosperity at home and prestige abroad" has indeed been intimately connected with the increasing imperialism of steel, which once was Pauper but now is King.

The auspicious and momentous fact is that never before in the history of the world has comfort been enjoyed, education acquired and independence secured by so large a proportion of the total population of the world in the United States of America that has occurred under protection.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

So uniformly successful has Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proven in all forms of Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, and Leucorrhoea, that, after over a third of a century's experience in curing the worst cases of these distressing and debilitating ailments, Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in cash for any case of these diseases which he cannot cure.

IT STANDS ALONE.—The "Favorite Prescription" stands alone, as the one and only remedy for these distressingly common forms of weakness, possessed of such positively specific curative properties as to warrant its makers in proposing, and binding themselves to forfeit, as we, the undersigned proprietors of that wonderful remedy hereby do, to pay the sum of $500 in legal money of the United States in any case of the above diseases in which after a fair and reasonable trial of our treatment, we fail to cure. No other medicine for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments is backed by such a remarkable guarantee; no other medicine for woman's ills is possessed of the unparalleled curative properties that would warrant its manufacturers in making such an offer; no other remedy has such a record of cures on which to base such a remarkable offer.

Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and turn your back on any unscrupulous dealer who would insult your intelligence by attempting to foist upon you some inferior substitute, under the plea that "it is just as good." Insist on having the article which has a record of a third of a century of cures and which is backed by those willing to forfeit $500 if they cannot cure you.

In cases attended by a leucorrhoeal drain a solution of Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets should be used conjointly with the use of the "Favorite Prescription." They are sold by all druggists, or sent post-paid to any address, on receipt of 25 cents in stamps. Send 31 cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address: WORLD'S DISPENSARY, Buffalo, N. Y.

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.
