

Mothers Praise It.
Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. A. L. Spafford, Postmaster, of Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved and cured her and I cannot praise it too highly." One Minute Cough Cure relieves coughs makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, draws out inflammation, and removes every cause of a cough and strain on lungs. Sold by L. W. McConnell.

Disastrous Wrecks
Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Loie Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by L. W. McConnell, Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00 Trial bottles free.

LEBANON.
Clarence Dotts has a new mail box. Roy Clark is husking corn for B. A. Johnson.
John Adams has moved in with the blacksmith.
Walter Devoe has purchased the F. S. Sovern building.
Samuel Kincaid is home after an all-summer's absence.
Leonard Fiechter was able to be up town, last Saturday.
James Horton and William Huntzinger have new stock tanks.
Rudolph Qador has bought a rubber-tired buggy for the baby.
W. M. Morgan has moved into Lebanon and is in charge of the dray line.
Mrs. Charles Smith is visiting her sister Mrs. Martin Nichols in Orleans.
Pearl Garrett is staying with her sisters Annie and Nina and dressmaking.
Ora Rodwell has bought in with Howard Ruby in the meat market and confectionery.
Pearl Cartwright and Platte Cumming attended the turkey shoot at Danbury, Saturday.
The mission circle of the Presbyterian church will meet December 1st with Mrs. F. M. Pennington.
Word comes from Norcatour that one of the store buildings there was destroyed by fire, last week.
C. O. Finch is arranging to feed 200 head of cattle near Lebanon. He has bought some alfalfa.
The aid society of the Methodist church will meet November 30th at Mrs. M. C. Stevens' home.
John Logan has rented his farm in Tyrone precinct for 1902 to Joe Moore, getting a cash rent.
Mrs. A. C. Bartholomew and daughter May drove over to McCook, Saturday, returning home Sunday.
Henry Crabtree and sister drove over from Indianola, Saturday, and were guests of George Newlands.
Wm. Halsey had a new well put down near his house and will move his windmill down from the old house.
Donald Bennett will put down a new well on the farm bought of Mr. Daffer, last spring, known as the Kincaid farm.
The object of the basket supper in district 81 two weeks ago was to provide money with which to buy a library and dictionary.
Arrangements have been made to have a furnace put under the Presbyterian church, and the work of excavating was begun this week.
Robert Murphy had the misfortune to drop the windmill he was erecting for L. A. Sheldon in Tyrone precinct, breaking the main casting.
The Lebanon school teachers were entertained at supper and spent the evening at J. W. Sluts' home, Saturday night, November 19th.
Miss Emma Hoobler arrived last week and will keep house for her brother Frank. Mrs. Hall left this week for her home in Grafton, Nebraska.
D. A. Waterman drove over last week and visited his daughter and family. He says that John lives six miles from Oberlin, Kansas, on a rural free delivery route.
Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Cumming were up from Hill City, Kansas, recently with two four-horse teams, after some potatoes. They took back with them about 100 bushels.
Two more of Howard Ruby's children have the scarlet fever. The fever seems to be broken and they are doing well. George Weatherwax has been helping care for the children.
M. C. Stevens has sold his interest in the hardware store to Marion Overstake, who will move up from the Stevens farm. We understand that Mr. Stevens will take charge of his farm for a while at least.
Ruth E. Riggs left on Saturday's train for Beaver City. She has been visiting at Oberlin, Cedar Bluffs, and nursing sick grand children at Lyle, Kansas. She will work for Sheriff Modlin in Beaver City.
Mrs. E. P. Day went over to her father's Mr. Bantham's, before the sale. E. P. Day is over there now. (Mrs. Day is not a sister of F. G. Stillebauer as was reported from Bartley to THE TRIBUNE, last summer.)
We understand there is to be a telephone line run out from Oberlin, Kansas, north and east, to come by Dan Logan's and Frank Van Vleet's, thence north to the state line, where the Danbury people will join them.
They had a basket supper in Sherman precinct, Kansas, last Friday evening, and took in $23, with which they will buy a bell—the balance to be invested in books for a library. Miss Mabel Nichols is teacher.
Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pennington visited at William Meadville's, Sunday, to see Mr. Meadville from Crete, Nebraska. The old gentleman is an old soldier and would be pleased to meet the old soldiers in this neighborhood.
There will be no school, Thanksgiving Day. Miss May Moore will spend the vacation at her home in Indianola and Miss Hannan in McCook. There will be no school, Friday, but this day will be made up by the teachers.
Mrs. W. H. Scofield gave a reception to the Wilsonville mission circle. About fifteen ladies were up from Wilsonville and a number of the Lebanon circle responded to an invitation and were present. A delightful time is reported.
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Shoemaker buried their 18-months-old baby at Long Branch cemetery, last Friday. This is near their old home. They live now four miles east of Lebanon. The little one fell into a candy bucket containing about six inches of water. While the frantic mother ran to call the father the little one perished.
P. B. Garrett received a card from his brother Rev. Frank Garrett, who was on his way to China as a missionary. The trip from Lebanon to Nankin, China, took 28 days, about 20 days being spent on water. On the ship with them as far as Vladivostok were 43 other missionaries and ten children. The trip was a pleasant one, only two days of stormy weather during the voyage. A number of the missionaries were from Monmouth, Illinois.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Cowden are home from Benkelman, where they have been visiting Mr. Cowden's daughter and family. The son-in-law Wise Wiggins came through at the same time with his father-in-law's cattle 250 head that he has been pasturing during the past summer. Mrs. Wiggins came home with her husband for a few days' visit. They started back, first of this week. Mr. Wiggins reports the cattle having done well, this season. They allow ten acres to the cow. In Colorado, where they were two years ago, they required twenty acres for each animal.

NORTH OF LEBANON.
Mrs. Kriebel is ill.
Mary Harsch is among the ailing ones.
And THE McCOOK TRIBUNE and the Chicago Inter Ocean are only $1.05 per year.
Eugene Dutcher was over, Monday, buying potatoes from Walter M. Pennington.
Gottlieb Groech, in response to a letter from his father, left last week for his home in Cuming county, this state. Max will follow as soon as he finishes his corn.
Three young men from the Ash Creek neighborhood are husking corn in this vicinity. Corn huskers are about as scarce as hen's teeth, here and near Lebanon. About all the writer hears from the farmers is, that they need corn huskers.
Rev. Predoehl preached at Osburn, north of McCook, last Sunday. This is his last appointment at that place, as we understand he has accepted a call to preach in Hamilton county, this state. He will preach every Sunday at his home church until leaving for his new charge, about January 1st.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.
For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflames the mucous membranes lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.
Kodol Dyspepsia Cure relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour rising, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.
Kodol Digests What You Eat Make the Stomach Sweet. BOTTLES 50c. Regular size, $1.00, holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50 cents. Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO., Chicago, Ill. For Sale by L. W. McConnell
