

The Sale Opened Thursday

Christmas is now at hand and you will certainly need a present or two. In order to have room for our Holiday Goods we are going to give a reduced price on all our

Cut Glass and Silverware

Friday and Saturday, December 2 and 3. We cordially invite you to come and bring your friends to see our display, whether you care to buy or not. You will be just as welcome. We have the most complete line of cut glass, baking dishes, chafing dishes, five o'clock teas, timbole irons, souvenir spoons, berry forks, oyster forks, fruit knives, etc., ever exhibited in the city. Remember, there is nothing more appreciated than a useful present--and that is the kind we keep.

W. T. COLEMAN

The Sale Closes Saturday

County and Neighborhood News

Continued from Page Two.

INDIANOLA.

I. M. Smith of McCook was in town, Monday.

Flora Hoag visited in McCook, first of the week.

Miss Laura Owen returned to Lincoln, Friday morning.

Mrs. A. Reynolds is confined to her home with the gripe.

E. J. Mitchell of McCook was on our streets, Tuesday.

S. R. Smith was a business sojourner in Lincoln, last week.

Mr. Lemasters of Bartley was an Indianola visitor, last Monday.

Miss Grace Smith returned to her home in McCook, Sunday evening.

George Mick and family of McCook visited, Sunday, at C. H. Russell's.

Roy Mann and George Henderson have gone to Palisade to gather corn.

Mamie Mann went to her school, Saturday night. She will teach south of McCook.

John Rollins returned to Denver, Sunday night, where he is working in the stamp mills.

Rev. Owens of Riverton delivered the Thanksgiving sermon at the Congregational church.

Mrs. Wm. Rawlings of Lincoln came in on No. 5, Saturday night, to visit friends in Indianola.

Mr. Ough and family of Benkelman attended the funeral of their sister-in-law at this place, Tuesday.

George Hill and wife went up to McCook, Friday night, for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Beardslee.

Mrs. E. B. Crippen's two brothers from Lincoln are in the city, the guests of Rev. Crippen and family.

Miss Annie Smith is giving her school a vacation in order to give the big boys a chance to gather their corn.

Mrs. E. B. Crippen is a little better at this time and hopes of a speedy recovery for her are entertained.

L. M. Howard is now a citizen of our little town. He lives in the house he purchased from Wm. A. Dolan.

Hazel Phillips returned to school at Franklin, Monday morning, after a few days visit with the home folks.

Mrs. Leonard Smith has returned from Seward, whither she was called by the death of her brother-in-law.

Miss May Moore, who is teaching in Lebanon, came home, last week, and spent Thanksgiving with her parents.

There was a Thanksgiving dance at George Short's opera house, Thursday night. It was quite well attended.

Miss Anna McDonald came home from the east, Wednesday evening, to be present at the wedding of her sister.

Mrs. David Rittenhouse of Cedar Bluffs came over, Friday morning, and visited with Indianola friends until Monday afternoon.

Miss Clara Smith and Miss Minnie Wicks drove down from McCook, Sunday afternoon, and visited the family of W. H. Smith's.

Professor Fletcher and Miss Hannan of the Lebanon schools accompanied by the Rev. Murr of Danbury were visitors in our burg, last Sunday.

Some of the young friends of Verne Short thought about Monday being his thirteenth birthday and treated him accordingly. A nice supper was served and the little people had a good time.

Three gentlemen, Messrs. Watson, Thompson and Stangland started from McCook for a little stroll, last Sunday afternoon, and landed in Indianola in good time but pretty dusty from their long walk. They took No. 5 back.

The young people of Indianola treated Miss Sarah Jensen to a surprise party, Friday evening, at her home four miles north of town. They played games, ate supper and voted the evening a very pleasant one.

Mrs. Henry Ough of this city died, last Sunday morning, and was buried from the Christian church on Tuesday. Sermon by Rev. Burt of McCook. A large concourse of friends followed the deceased to her last resting place. She leaves a husband and seven children to mourn her loss.

DANBURY.

Rev. Mason has returned home.

James Wingate left, Sunday night.

Mrs. Sim Billings is back to Danbury.

Quite a number of land seekers are out from the east.

Miss Jones visited her parents in McCook, last week.

Mr. Fletcher spent Thanksgiving at his home in Beaver City.

W. A. Minniear is going to make a visit to the Pacific coast.

J. L. Sims shipped two car loads of hogs to Kansas City, this week.

Ed. Redman was up from Lebanon, Wednesday, on a business trip.

Will McGuire and wife returned from their visit to the St. Louis exposition, Monday.

Willie Minniear has concluded to forfeit $100 and let Mr. Furman keep the News plant.

Dr. Campbell of Lebanon was up on professional business, Wednesday. He reports the scarlet fever under control.

Mrs. Sargent, nee Kincaid, has come back with her son-in-law Mr. Gotchall from Sheridan county, Kansas, on a visit.

A new organ was taken out for the new U. B. church on the Sappa, Tuesday, which is to be dedicated, next Sunday. A large crowd is expected.

BARTLEY.

Mrs. Hanson's sister is visiting here.

F. G. Stilgebauer's children are on the sick list.

Eugene Dutcher is building Mrs. Gammill's residence.

Miss Laura Glandon visited the Bartley school, last Friday.

Smith & Cockran are having a new floor laid in their store.

Frank Hodgkins made a business trip to McCook, this week.

Charlie Ginther and wife will move into their new home, this week.

Miss Daley, the dentist, was up from Cambridge, Wednesday evening.

Ben Wilson, a brother-in-law of Will Lyman, is here from Colorado on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Ginther are rejoicing over the advent of a fine little girl in their home.

The boys fired several cannon salutes over the marriage of Otis Harter and Leila Ritchie.

Presiding Elder Hardaway was here, last Sunday, holding quarterly meeting in the M. E. church.

G. W. Jones has received his furnace and fixtures and will soon have his house heated with hot water.

Mrs. Simonds of Cambridge, Mrs. Sipe and Agent Hanson of Bartley were initiated into the O. E. S., Wednesday evening.

Miss Katie Dietsch came over from her school on the Beaver and spent Thanksgiving at home, and also attended the funeral of her brother-in-law Dane Fletcher.

Art Stevens, carrier of Rural Route No. 1 out of Bartley, has a fine mail wagon made expressly for the business. It is painted red, white and blue and is convenient in every way.

Elder C. P. Evans of Arapahoe came up to Bartley, Tuesday evening of last week, and solemnized the marriage of Mr. Charles Ginther and Miss Mae Bell, returning to Arapahoe on 12, Friday.

Elder Roberts of Hendley, with his wife and little daughter, visited in Bartley and vicinity, a few days this week. The elder preached in the Christian church, Sunday morning, to a large audience. Continued on Page Eight.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the district court of Red Willow county, state of Nebraska.

In the matter of the application of W. S. Fitch, guardian of Edward L. Nettleton, insane, for license to sell real estate.

On reading and filing the petition duly verified of W. S. Fitch, guardian of the person and estate of Edward L. Nettleton, insane, for license to sell the following described real estate, to-wit: The south half of the southeast quarter and lot eight, in section twenty-nine, and lot five in section twenty-eight, all in township three, north, in range thirty, west of the 6th P. M., for the purpose of reinvesting the proceeds of the sale in interest-bearing securities or some productive property; and it appearing from said petition that said real estate is unimproved and that but little income can be obtained therefrom, and that it would be for the best interests of all persons interested in said estate that the same be sold and the proceeds thereof invested in interest-bearing securities or some productive property.

It is therefore ordered that the next of kin of said Edward L. Nettleton, insane, and all persons interested in said estate, appear before me at Chambers, at my office in the court house in the city of McCook, Red Willow county, Nebraska, on the 30th day of December, 1904, at nine o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why license should not be granted to the said W. S. Fitch, guardian, to sell said real estate for the purposes above set forth.

And it is further ordered that notice of this order and said hearing be given by publishing a copy of this order once each week for three successive weeks in The McCook TRIBUNE, dated this 11th day of November, 1904.

11-18-04. R. C. ORR, Judge.

SPECIAL MASTER'S SALE.

Docket 194. No. U.—In the circuit court of the United States, for the district of Nebraska.

James J. Clarke, receiver Nebraska Loan and Trust Co., complainant, vs. Walter E. Corwin et al, defendants.—In chancery.

Foreclosure of Mortgage.

Public notice is hereby given that in pursuance and by virtue of a decree entered in the above cause on the 18th day of February, 1902, I, George H. Thummel, special master in chancery of the circuit court of the United States for the district of Nebraska, will, on the 7th day of December, 1904, at the hour of 9 o'clock (Central time) in the forenoon of said day, at the front door of the Red Willow county court house building in the city of McCook, Red Willow county, state and district of Nebraska, sell at public auction for cash the following described property, to-wit: Lots seven (7), eight (8) and nine (9) in block fifteen (15) in the original town, now City of McCook, Red Willow county, Nebraska.

Geo. H. THUMMEL, Special Master in Chancery.

John M. Ragan, Solicitor for Complainant.

Easy Pill

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tonic the liver instead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers.

PREPARED ONLY BY E. C. DEWITT & CO., CHICAGO

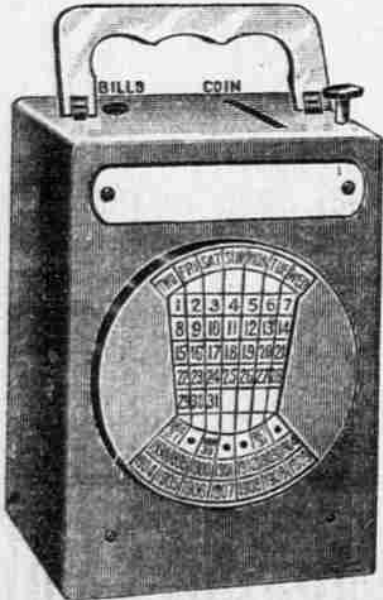

Don't Forget the Name.

Early Risers

For Sale by L. W. McConnell

A BRANCH BANK

in every home—open 365 days in the year to receive deposits. The Perpetual Calendar attached to the face of the bank makes it very attractive and useful.

We Loan You
the Bank
We Keep the Key

Bring your Savings to us once a month, and we will give you a bank, free of charge.

For particulars apply at

The First National Bank, McCook