The great speech of President Roosevelt to the Union club in Philadelphia should be read by every householder in the land. The true, logical propositions therein showing the kindness of his great heart and the broad views he holds. Seldom has a speech been made the equal of that and none the superior. How thankful we as a nation should be that we have so great and good a man at the head of this government.

"I thank Dr. Pierce for the kind advice he gave when I wrote to him."

"I am thankful to the friend who first recommended your medicine," writes Mrs. Annie M. Brook, of Smithfield, Fayette Co., Pa. "We have a twelve pound baby, three weeks old. I took three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' before baby came, and the time was only one hour and a half. Have had five children, and before this always had a severe time, lasting two or three days, and never was able to do any work for about two months afterward. Now I am doing all the work for four children. My friends say I look better now than ever before. We told one of my sisters to take 'Favorite Prescription,' which she did, and when her child was born the time of suffering was very short. She has better health now than since her marriage, some years ago. We cannot praise Dr. Pierce's medicines enough. I thank Dr. Pierce for the kind advice he gave when I wrote to him. Whenever I see other women suffering I tell them about your wonderful medicines."

The benefits resulting from a consultation by letter with Dr. Pierce are testified to by thousands of grateful women who have been made new women by his medical advice and fatherly counsel given absolutely without cost or fee.

Sick and ailing women, especially those suffering from chronic diseases, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for the cure of womanly ills. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is the best preparative for maternity, giving the mother strength to give her child, and making the baby's advent practically painless.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Failed.
All efforts have failed to find a better remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles than Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. J. N. Paterson, Nashua, Iowa, writes "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." Sold by A. McMillen.

SCHOOLBOY BLANDERS.
A. H. B. of Ascot sent to the London Globe some specimens of "howlers" perpetrated by board school children and collected by a board school master. On the nature of gases, "An oxygen has eight sides." In natural history, "A eukoo is a bird which does not lay its own eggs." "A mosquito is a child of black and white parents" and "A blizzard is the inside of a fowl." In geographical study we get the following: "The equator is a menagerie lion running round the earth and through Africa." "A meridian is the place where they keep the time" and "The inhabitants of Paris are called Parisites." Among answers we have heard before is that of the child who declares, "Izaak Walton was such a good fisherman that he was called the judicious hooker."

HANDLING ANIMALS.
Done Properly, Hardly the Most Vicious Will Resist It.
"There is hardly a living creature," said a naturalist, "that will not permit a human being to touch it if it is done in the right way. It is necessary to be gentle and patient and at the same time without fear. I have seen natives scratch the heads of tigers and lions within a few days after they were trapped. Hunters of wild elephants often crawl among a herd and rub their legs. The great brutes, although they are on the alert, will permit the caress and stand still until the plucky hunter is able to slip a rope around the leg of the animal he wishes to capture."
"In our own country I have seen many men who can creep to a trout stream and gently place their hands under a trout. Very softly they rub its belly, and the trout will lie quite still until with a sudden jerk it is landed on the bank."
"I have also seen professional rat catchers put their hands, palm upward, before a rat hole when the ferrets were driving them. As a rat ran out it would sit still on the rat catcher's hand. Then with his other hand he would stroke it delicately, and in three times out of four he would manage to lift the rat without alarming it and drop it into his bag."
"I have even known a man who could handle the salt water blue crab, the most belligerent and vindictive creature in the sea."

BOER AMUSEMENTS.
Among Them Are Pole Climbing, Ax Throwing and Spade Racing.
The Boer is a firm believer in the advantage of exercise, though his ways are not ours. One favorite form is pole climbing. This consists of having one arm tied behind the back and swarming to the top of the pole with the aid of the legs and the free arm. It sounds simple, but it is not half so simple as it seems.
Another exercise is throwing the hatchet, or ax, to be more correct. An ordinary wood chopping ax is used for this. This is swung round the head until it reaches a sufficient momentum, when it is released. The man who throws the farthest does not of necessity win, as it is necessary that the blade should bury itself in the earth on reaching its destination. It requires a considerable amount of skill to accomplish this.
Another kind of amusement is spade racing. The men stand with one foot on either side of an ordinary spade, grasping the top of the handle between the hands. At the signal they start forward by a series of jumps. If a man's foot leaves its proper place he is disqualified. There is no more severe strain on the muscles of the leg than this. The distance for such a race as this is generally twenty paces.
The Boer is gifted with wonderful endurance. At long distances he could hold his own with any, but he would not stand any chance with our men at sprint racing, as he lacks the necessary speed.

The Sacred Scarab.
The sacred scarabaeus was for many centuries venerated by ancient Egyptians, a cult shared recently by Hottentots and akin to that of the holy cricket of Madagascar.
In explanation of this Thespian said, "The Egyptians do not venture to give form to their gods; they use symbols of occult meaning." A black and a golden green beetle were both regarded as emblems of Ra; the sun god; of Ptah, the creative power, and of rebirth, resurrection and immortality.
Every beetle was held to be male and self produced. Its thirty toes symbolized the days of a month, and the pellet of dung in which it rolled along its eggs was a type of the movements of the sun.
In ancient Egyptian philosophy the sacred scarab is spoken of as the first living creature that sprang from the mud of the subsiding Nile. It was closely connected with astronomy and used as an amulet of sovereign virtue for the living and the dead.

Origin of "Grass" Widow.
"Why should a woman separated from her husband be called a 'grass' widow?" asked a young man of the antiquary. "The term 'grass' widow," the latter answered, "has nothing to do with the herbage on our lawns. 'Grass' is a misspelling, sanctioned by custom, of 'grace.' In the past, when divorces were rare, a woman separated legally from her husband was called a 'veuve de grace' by the Roman church, and the French called her a 'veuve de grace.' The meaning of both terms is the same—'widow by grace.' We took the 'veuve' from the French and translated it properly into 'widow,' but the 'grace' we incorporated into our language, misspelling it in the process. You would be technically correct in writing 'grace' instead of 'grass' widow, but it is probable that no one would understand what you meant."—Philadelphia Record.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.
In the district court of Red Willow county, state of Nebraska.
In the matter of the application of Mabel M. Kimmell, administratrix of the estate of Anna Cuniguada Flor, for license to sell real estate.
This cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Mabel M. Kimmell, administratrix of the estate of Anna Cuniguada Flor, for license to sell the following described real estate, to-wit: Lots thirty-six and thirty-seven, in block two, in south McCook, Nebraska, for the purpose of paying the indebtedness against said estate, amounting to the sum of Sixty-four and twenty-one hundredths dollars, and the cost of administration and expenses, there not being sufficient personal property to pay said debts and expenses.
It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at my office in McCook, Nebraska, in said county of Red Willow, on the 25th day of February, 1905, at nine o'clock a. m., to show cause why a license should not be granted to said administratrix to sell said real estate for the purpose of paying said debts and expenses. It is further ordered that notice of this hearing be given by publication in THE McCOOK TRIBUNE for four successive weeks.
Dated this 13th day of January, 1905.
E. C. Orr, Judge of the District Court.

In these days of diversified farming, many farmers and stockmen in the corn belt carry on profitable lines of mail order business. A number of the farmer readers of THE TRIBUNE are dealers in pedigreed live stock, such as cattle, swine horses and poultry; while some are interested in other farm specialties, such as seeds, vines and nursery stock, and do a good business both in and outside of Red Willow county. There is no reason why there should not be a steady stream of money flowing into this locality from all parts of the country, enriching our people and benefitting all classes. By advertising in THE TRIBUNE any offer you desire to make to the people of this section will be effective. If you desire, however, to reach buyers, generally throughout the West. The Iowa Homestead, with its upwards of 60,000 prosperous farm readers (nearly double the actual circulation of any other Iowa farm paper) will bring you customers whose orders should be mutually profitable. The Homestead is popular with the farmers of all sections, just as it is here, and is an excellent advertising medium as it is valuable for the reader. THE TRIBUNE will forward either subscriptions or advertisements for The Homestead

I used L. K. for hog cholera and it was all right. It cured my hogs. I had three sick ones and they all got well and done fine. I also used it for chicken lice and mites and it is all you claim for it. It is the only medicine for hog cholera, I think.
GOTTLIEB FERRE, Harrington, Neb., Dec. 11, 1902.
I am using Liquid Koal and am well pleased with it. I am sure I saved my hogs with it last year, and am going to keep it in stock all the time as it is the best thing I ever had on the place for everything it is intended for. It is good for chicken cholera, lice on stock, insects of all kinds; it will destroy all kinds.
