Red Willow County S. S. Association. The Red Willow County Sundayschool association held a two-days' session in Indianola, this week, Monday and Tuesday, October 16th and 17th. There was a good .attendance, delegates being present from nearly every school in the county, and the interest was fine. The program as printed in last week's TRIBUNE was given practically in its entirety, with a few substitutions of participants.

One of the features of the meeting was the music under direction of Mrs. Calvin of Indianola, with a choir made up in that city.

Mrs. Root of Beaver City and Dr. Bailey of Aurora were helpful assistants on the program.

Rev. Wilson of Bertley spoke on "The Study of the Word," which was one of the Danbury and Beaver country, midthe most excellent efforts of the sessions. week. Mrs. T. E. McDonald of Danbury had Good Secretary."

Mrs. A. C. Marsh of East McCook gave an interesting sketch of that mission Sunday-school.

A splendid paper was read by Mrs. I. M. Beardslee of McCook on the topic, "Helpful Things for the Sunday-school."

The ministers of the several Indianola churches were valued and appreciated helpers in the work of the association.

Miss Mamie Haines, state primary sup't, was called home by the serious illness of her father and her place was supplied by Mrs. Root of Beaver City on the program.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the association in McCook, at a date to be determined later.

The following officers were elected for the next year:

Cecil Matthews of Bartley, president. Miss Hotz of Indianola, vice-president. Mrs. H. A. Rouch of McCook, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. I. M. Beardslee, sup't of home department.
