

The McCook Tribune.

Nebraska State Historical Society

TWENTY-FOURTH YEAR

MCCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 27, 1905

NUMBER 22

CITIZENS' ENTERTAINMENT COURSE.

Not a money-making scheme, but a public-spirited enterprise to provide things to see and hear that are worth while.

Five Great Attractions for $2.00

Good music, instructive lectures, profitable entertainment for the entire winter.

All Numbers Will Be Given in the Opera House.

NO. 1.—NOVEMBER 15.
THE BOHUMIR KRYL CO.

Bohumir Kryl, the world's greatest cornetist; the sensation of two continents; Miss Julia Heinrich, contralto; Carl Heinrich, baritone and violinist; Miss Phoebe Mae Roberts, reader. An evening of real music enjoyment.

NO. 2.—EARLY IN DECEMBER
THE CHICAGO LADY ENTERTAINERS

They introduce interpretative readings, solos, duets, trios and quartets. Each member is a talented artist in her particular sphere. They have won approval and endorsement, without a single exception, in the various cities of the forty-two different states where they have appeared during the past three seasons.

NO. 3.—JANUARY 22.
REV. FRANCIS T. MORAN

As a lecturer he has been heard in a great many of the large cities of our own country and has also spoken in Rome, Paris and other cities of Europe. It is safe to say that no more successful lecturer is now before the public. "Father Moran ranks with the best orators of this country and his lecture tours have been decidedly successful."

NO. 4.—JANUARY 29.
DR. JOHN MERRITE DRIVER

He is the popular successor of Frank Crane at the famous People's church of Chicago. Vast audiences throng McVicker's Theatre every Sunday morning in the very heart of Chicago, to hear him discuss the foremost problems of the world. He will interest and instruct any audience.

NO. 5.—MARCH 20.
LULU TYLER GATES
and her
COMPANY OF ARTISTS

As a reader Mrs. Gates is capable of giving an entire evening without a company, but this season she has been persuaded to star at the head of a company of such artistic strength as to place them in advance of any popular concert troupe before the public. The company will consist of Walter Bentley Ball, baritone; Ebba Hjertstedt, the Swedish violinist and Grace Gilmore, pianist. These three delightful artists will, with Mrs. Gates, give a program unique, novel, popular and artistic.

A book of five season tickets will cost $2.00, single admission tickets, 50 cents each. All tickets may be obtained at McConnell's. Season tickets may also be obtained from members of the committee and from soliciting salesmen. It is a patriotic community duty to pitch in and help make the course a success.

Doings of Cupid, This Week.

Will C. Harmon of McCook and Miss Julia A. Goodenberger of Marion, this county, were united in marriage, last Sunday, October 22nd, 1905, at the home of the bride's parents in Marion, Rev. M. B. Carman of this city officiating. The wedding occurred at three o'clock in the afternoon and was witnessed by relatives and friends of the young couple. An elaborate dinner was served after the ceremony. The young friends were the recipients of numerous pretty and useful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon are both well and favorably known to a large circle of McCook friends. They will make their home in a newly-prepared dwelling in West McCook, and go to housekeeping with the well-wishes of all.

Orville E. Barkley of Red Cloud and Miss Laura E. Abernathy of Alma were made husband and wife, this week, Rev. M. B. Carman performing the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weliben of our city, Wednesday evening, October 25th, 1905, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Barkley is an employe in Keegan & Okerson's barber shop.

Wheat is beginning to move pretty freely now. Manager Garvey of the Ferguson elevator tells us they are shipping about 15,000 bushels a day. Their total shipments for the month of October will aggregate 40,000 bushels.

You can buy a new piano at Sutton's at $175, a better one for $200 and still a better one for $225. Call and see them.

Best calicoes 5 cents a yard at Thompson's.
A. McMillen, prescription druggist.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.

ERNEST CORDEAL is home for a short visit.

MISS VERA HILEMAN is home from Omaha on a visit to the home folks.

JOHN SCHLEGEL of Culbertson was here on business yesterday.

MRS. A. CALHOUN has been visiting Beatrice relatives and friends since close of last week.

CITY ATTORNEY LEHEW is officiating with C. F. Babcock now, over Lon Cone & Bro.'s store.

MRS. W. A. DEMAY and Mrs. Mitchell Young of Danbury were visitors of the county seat, Tuesday.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM PARKES of Red Cloud visited McCook and Indianola relatives and friends, last week.

MR. AND MRS. G. H. THOMAS were Harvard visitors, Saturday and Sunday, returning home on 5, Sunday night.

MRS. C. W. BRONSON returned, Sunday morning on 2, from visiting her mother up in Dundie county, near Hiawatha.

MISS MAMIE CHANDLER has been ill for the past week, unable to be at her desk in the Barnett Lumber Co. office.

MRS. A. L. WHITEFORD of Savannah, Mo., is a guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brittain, of the South Side.

J. B. MESERVE arrived, last Friday on No. 1, from New York, where he has been spending a few months on business.

MRS. S. J. COOLEY departed, Tuesday morning, for Gage, Oklahoma, on a visit to her son W. W. Cooley, to be gone several weeks.

MR. AND MRS. J. B. MESERVE departed on 12, Thursday morning, for Ashland, Nebraska, on a visit to their daughter Mrs. E. E. Magee.

MR. AND MRS. ROY SMITH of Denver announce a visit from the stork at their home, Saturday last. It's a fine ten-pound boy, and none are more delighted than the grandparents here.

PRESIDENT A. BARNETT of the McCook Commercial club is representing the local club in Chicago, this week, in the national convention of commercial clubs held there on the 26th.

MRS. ELLIS FORD returned home, early in the week, from her Illinois visit. She left Miss Edith in Onarga, where she will go to school in the seminary at that place during the coming winter term.

REV. J. J. LOUGHRAN of St. Patrick's church received the news, Tuesday, of the death of his aged mother in Edgerton, Wisconsin. He departed on No. 2, Wednesday morning, for Edgerton, to attend the funeral.

SHERIFF AARON WOOD of Texas county, Mo., arrived in the city, Wednesday on 13, and on 14 the same night departed for Houston the county seat, with his prisoner "Pink" Sells, who has been held in the county jail here for safe keeping against his arrival. Sells is wanted in Missouri by a young woman he has wronged.

MISS JEANNETTE VANDEPOEL, formerly in the millinery business here, has changed her name to Mrs. J. E. Lovell, and is making her home down in "Old Kentucky," the specific spot being Pope. Mr. Lovell was at one time a drug clerk in the employ of D. W. Loar, now of Beaver City. They have friends many here who congratulate.

MISS JENNIE HILL, who was to have opened a dress-making parlor in our city, departed for Keokuk, Iowa, her former home, close of last week, being compelled to give up her project here on account of not being able to secure suitable quarters within a reasonable time. This is a matter of regret, as Miss Hill came highly recommended as an artist in her line.

Think of it! A new piano for $175, $200 or $225. See them at Sutton's.

Do You Like Oysters? Then come to the men's oyster supper at the Congregational church, November 3. Supper 25 cents.

Clyde's Challenge. McCook, Neb., Oct. 24.—Lovell Clyde, the celebrated wing shot of Southwestern Nebraska, is out with a challenge to all the Western chicken killers over dogs.

Mr. Clyde will use his own dogs, Spike and Spoke, and their mother Bird, all of which have a national reputation as bird pointers. The above photograph shows Mr. Clyde and J. W. Spiker, the trainer of the three dogs. The picture was taken a year ago and since then Spike and Spoke have developed unusual hunting qualities. Their team work has never been excelled and the setters have a record of thousands of dead chickens.—Denver Post.

$175, $200, $225 will buy a new piano at Sutton's. See them.

Council Proceedings.

The council was in regular session, Monday evening, October 23rd, and transacted the following business of the municipality, all being present but Councilman Ward, who was absent from the city:

The contract of the city relative to the removal of the frame restaurant building on lot 5, block 28, was ratified. Bills as follows were allowed on their respective funds:

John Ekstedt, occupation fund.....	$ 70 20
Tom Burge, same.....	60 00
W. H. Billings, same.....	45 00
W. H. Harmon, same.....	5 00
McCook Loan & Trust Co., general fund.....	75 00
Barnett Lumber Co., general fund.....	39 45
Bullard Lumber Co., general fund.....	4 63
J. H. Dalton, general fund.....	20 00
McCook Water Works, water fund.....	425 00
McCook Electric Light Co., light fund.....	100 00
Pade & Son, cemetery fund.....	5 00
W. A. Gold, cemetery fund.....	40 00
	$588 63

Report of police judge and of chief of police were received and placed on file. Report of city treasurer was received and referred to the finance committee.

Resignation of Mrs. F. M. Rathbun as a member of the library board was read and accepted.

An ordinance providing a system of sewerage for the city of McCook was read first time and referred to the ordinance committee. Adjourned. (Courtesy of the city attorney.)

Hello, Central!

Hello, Central! please give us McCook; Both ladies and gents, yes, children and all;

As well as the farmers from each rural route, Who are blessed with such harvests, of all kinds, this fall.

Hello, have I got them? Well, you listen too; Yes, call your young lady friends, Here's good news for you.

Hello, did you know? well you ought to be told That the finest new stock of dry goods complete Is now being opened and soon will be sold

At prices that few, yes, or any, can meet. The stock is the finest and just bought of late, Not shelf worn and soiled; you'll see when you look

That every article is right up to date; Just suitable for the ladies who live in McCook.

Just south of the bank, in the new Walsh block, We'll be pleased to welcome our friends one and all;

For there's where we open this elegant stock, And you're all invited, when in town to call.

H. C. Clapp will open his new stock of Dry Goods in the new Walsh block, next Wednesday, November 1st. See advertisement on last page.

Masquerade Skating Party.

There will be a masquerade skating party at the skating rink, hallowe'en night, Tuesday, October 31st. Tickets, 25 cents. All spectators ten cents. See small bills for particulars.

A Cigar For You.

We have cigars that will suit every fancy—have one that will suit you. Try some of our cigars; you will notice the difference. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Horses for Sale.

One hundred head of draft and driving horses for sale. FRANK STILLMAN, McCook, Neb.

Wall Paper Special.

We are selling one and two room remnants at special low prices. A. McMILLEN, Druggist.

Wanted—Immediately.

A number of freight handlers at McCook. Inquire at once of Agent Scott, McCook, Nebraska.

Heaters—Coleman's.

The careful buyer is always a money-saver. Money saved is money made. See Coleman's goods and note his prices first.

Anybody Would Know

that Thanksgiving is coming from the carvers, roasters etc. being received at W. T. Coleman's hardware store.

The cap manufacturers of this country have been making a great study during the last ten years to get something for the head wear that would be warm, give good wear, at the same time be stylish. Keith Bros. Co. of Chicago feel that they have at last reached the climax in cap manufacturing and are offering the trade their new line of inside fur trimmed bands in all the new up to date colors and shapes through their special agent for McCook and vicinity. F. M. COLSON, Prop. of Bee Hive.

Has Gone Home in Peace.

Rev. George Scott quietly and peacefully slipped away from earthly scenes, Thursday morning between 5 and 6 o'clock, to his home beyond. Departed was 84 years of age and has been in feeble health for some time.

Brief services were held at the home of his son Agent George S. Scott, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and the remains will be shipped tonight on 6 for burial in Tecumseh, a former home.

THE TRIBUNE hopes to be able to pay a fitting tribute to the memory of this grand, good old man, next week.

Wrecked Engines Arrived, Wednesday.

The engines involved in the Otis and Eckley wrecks were brought into port, Wednesday afternoon, No. 1849 a R2 with her own steam, the 145 a class A in tow. Both engines are pretty badly smashed up in front, pilots etc., and were at once run into the back shop for repairs, which will be rushed as rapidly as possible, as both engines are needed in the service. The 1749 is Trammell's engine, the 145 Dungan's. Dungan was returning to McCook light from double-heading No. 3 to Akron, the night before.

To Telephone Subscribers.

Owing to the fact, that the construction of the new exchange is now in progress subscribers will be bothered more or less with their instruments not working as good as they might, until this work is completed, but I assure you our best efforts will be used to keep out all trouble, as near as possible. C. I. HALL, Manager.

A Successful Mission.

Rev. Edward J. Mullaly, C. S. P., has been conducting a successful mission in St. Patrick's church of our city, all week, with large attendance and deep spiritual interest. The mission will close tomorrow evening. The reverend gentleman is an able, zealous, eloquent exponent of the Catholic faith.

Strayed! Strayed!

From my farm 3½ miles northwest of Culbertson, two horses,—one a brown gelding, white star in forehead and about 14 years old; the other a black gelding, 8 years old. Weight 800 pounds each. Undersigned will pay liberal reward for information leading to their recovery. JOHN RITZ, Culbertson, Neb.

It May Seem Early

but Coleman is already receiving shipments of holiday goods. He is yearly enlarging and improving this department of his business and this season will of course excel any previous one—hence he is beginning early to lay in his attractions for the big holiday trade he has a right to anticipate.

The Buying Power of Your Dollar is greatly increased by buying the Hamilton-Brown Shoes at Stulken's Shoe Store. In order to make room for large stock of new shoes coming I will sell my present line of school shoes at a discount of twenty per cent.

Sugary Delights. Our candies will please you by their richness and rare quality of their flavor. They are the most delicious delicacies that can be had. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Wanted.

Everybody to come to the Hallowe'en entertainment and supper at the Methodist church, Monday night, October 30, 1905, at 8 o'clock, given by the Junior Epworth League.

Salesmen Wanted

to look after our interest in Red Willow and adjacent counties. Salary or commission. Address THE HARVEY OIL CO., Cleveland, O.

For Sale.

Make me an offer on 10 acres fine smooth land half-mile east of brick school house, McCook.

F. HARRIS, Aurora, Neb.

Can Men Cook?

Come and see at the oyster supper given by the men at the Congregational church, November 3rd. Admission and supper 25 cents.

Be Humane

to your faithful animals. Buy a horse blanket at W. T. Coleman's. A large and fine selection.

SEE OUR WALL PAPER. Then look around if you care to. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Special gospel meetings will begin at the Methodist church, next Tuesday evening. Song service at 7:45. Mrs. Lavina Beck and daughter of Lincoln, singing evangelists, will assist first ten nights. We invite the public to all these services.

Coleman sells an improved heater—the latest thing out—for farm use. It burns cobs, wood or coal. Just what you need on the farm. If you see them you will want one.

MINOR ITEMS OF NEWS.

McCormell for drugs.

McMillen's cough cure is effective.

Young men's overcoats $1.50 at Thompson's.

Best table oil cloth 15 cents a yard at Thompson's.

Horse blankets and storm robes at W. T. Coleman's.

See those new $175, $200 and $225 pianos at Sutton's.

Beet scoops, beet knives and scoop end-gates at W. T. Coleman's.

Boys' two and three-piece suits from $1.25 to $5.00 at Thompson's.

Cream in sealed 10c and 20c bottles for sale at Marsh's meat market.

Best colored carpet warp on spools 21 cents a pound at Thompson's.

FOR SALE—A six-room dwelling on Melvin street. Apply to Frank Traver.

REMOVED—Dr. Kay's office is now over Pade's furniture store. Phone 98.

At W. T. Coleman's you can have your choice of steel ranges at from $15.00 upward.

There are no bats but "Izzers" and we are their prophet. The Thompson D. G. Co.

Dress skirts from $2.00 to $8.00 in all colors and cloths. Alterations free at Thompson's.

FOR SALE—Residence on North Madison street. Inquire at house one block west of court house.

All the newest and best things in dress goods at Thompson's. 300 pieces 25 cents to $1.50 a yard.

The Lincoln Mixed Paints are guaranteed pure. A. McMILLEN, Druggist.

FOR SALE—A hard coal base burner practically as good as new. Cheap. E. H. DOAN.

Men's very heavy corduroy suits with double breasted vest; coat and vest warmly lined with heavy woolen cloth, $10.00 at Thompson's.

The men of the Congregational church will give an oyster supper at the church, Friday, November 3, from 8 to 11 p. m. A fine program and oyster stew all for 25 cents. A good time assured to all.

We have customers for two good stock farms and three wheat farms in western half of Red Willow county.—10-20-25.

REYNOLDS LAND CO., Address either Culbertson or Omaha.

C. C. Fahrenbruck, the general repair man, announces his business elsewhere in this issue. He will repair your sewing machine, bicycle, gun, etc. promptly and well. Two doors east of DeGroff's store.

The hotel at Cedar Bluffs, Kansas, has been purchased by J. E. Lawthers, who lately sold his farm over in Grant precinct, and he has taken charge of the hotel property and will manage the same.

Factory bed comforts are not worth home room. The "Izzer" home-made ones are the same size as always made at your homes but contain six bats instead of the four often used. Price $1.85 to $2.50. Thompson's exclusively.

We will pay seventeen cents a dozen cash for strictly fresh eggs until further notice. Eleven cents a pound for large turkeys. Seven cents a pound for hens. Eight cents a pound for prime beef hides. THE GURNEY POULTRY CO., McCook, Neb.

Furs.

The bright dressy, right kinds are at Thompson's. Scarfs $1.00 to $12.50. Muffs to match, $2.25 to $3.50. Misses' sensible sized fur sets at $2.25 to $4.50. All the popular kinds of furs viz: Isabella, Fox, Red Fox, Beaver, Squirrel, Electric Seal etc. You'll recognize the difference between our glossy, soft and well-made furs and the other kinds upon sight. Your inspection requested.

The Wreck at Vance, Nebraska.

One of the worst wrecks in the history of the Burlington road on that division occurred at Vance, a small station north of Bridgeport, Neb., October 15, when two freight trains met in a deep cut. Both engines were entirely demolished and the cars reduced to kindling wood. Three trainmen were slightly injured in the wreck and traffic was blocked for several hours.—Denver Times.

Oysters like mother used to make at men's oyster supper given by the men of the Congregational church, November 3rd. Admission 25 cents.

Mrs. Griffin is prepared to do dry cleaning satisfactorily. Call up phone 306 if you have any work of that kind.

Best apron check gingham five cents at Thompson's.

WALL PAPER BARGAINS.

You are now doing your fall house-cleaning and we beg to announce that we have some great bargains in one and two room patterns of artistic wall decorations, which, to make room for new stock, we will sell at a sacrifice.

These are worth your inspection; also worth twice as much money as we ask for them. We invite you to call and be shown.

We also have a complete line of screen paints. Paint your screens in the fall, if you wish them to stay in good condition.

Try our Ebony stove pipe enamel for your pipes, stoves, etc. It is the best ever.

CONE BROS., Druggists.

Try McMillen's cold cure.

Everything in drugs. McConnell.

Have you seen the fancy china at Ludwick's?

Fresh butter of best quality at Marsh's meat market.

Special prices on Hammocks at McMillen's drug store.

Heating stoves at all prices and of the very best quality at W. T. Coleman's.

Twenty different patterns in dinner ware to select from at Ludwick's furniture store.

Fred E. Bortfeld, the piano tuner, is in the city. Leave orders at H. P. Sutton's store.

If you want to know how it feels to be without corns use McConnell's Lightning Corn Cure. Ten cents.

Cash offer wanted on lot 3, block 7, First addition to McCook. Newman & Laycock, 711 17th St., Denver Colo.

FOR SALE—Four room house in South McCook. Easy monthly payments, or will trade for stock. L. M. Best, Phone 91

The season for storms is nearing. See Coleman's stock of storm robes. Note substantial quality and reasonable prices.

Men's extra fine Beaver cloth overcoats with best satin lining in coat and sleeves $15.00. Next quality $10.00. Next $5.00, at Thompson's.

Heaters for both hard and soft coal. Coleman sells the best makes the American market affords—and they cost no more than the poorer sort. See his before buying.

Remember you will find Mike Walsh just across the street from his old location, ready to buy your poultry, eggs, old rubber, copper, brass at the highest cash market price.

Drop a card to box 595 and the McCook Stove and Range Repair Co. will give your repairs prompt and careful attention. Repairs for every stove made. Examinations free of charge.

You can't do better anywhere on earth than at Marsh's meat market in any article usually for sale in an up-to-date market. Just try him. Variety, quality, price, treatment,—all guaranteed.

You can depend upon it every time—the quality of meat you get at Marsh's market. Always the best—and no higher than the cheaper kinds. No need to experiment—just remember the reliable

In his new location just across the street from his old place, in the P. Walsh building, Mike Walsh wants to see you if you have poultry, eggs, etc., for sale. He will pay you the best cash market price for them.

James Williams, county surveyor, was over from Danbury, close of last week, doing a little surveying for Joseph Menard, who is building a new brick on lower Main avenue, and for E. H. Doan, on his eighty just east of town.

The J. W. Andrews-W. H. Ferguson case, which was to have been tried in chambers, last Friday, before Judge Orr, was on that day settled out of court before the hour of trial, upon terms known to the parties in question.

C. L. DeGroff & Co. have purchased from William Zint the eighteen feet of ground upon which their clothing department is now situated. This gives the company a lot 43 feet wide which on THE TRIBUNE some day expects to see them build a business house in keeping with their splendid and growing business.