As a reader Mrs. Gates is capable of giving an entire evening without a company, but this season she has been persuaded to star at the head of a company of such artistic strength as to place them in advance of any popular concert troupe before the public. The company will consist of Walter Bentley Ball, baritone; Elba Hjortstedt, the Swedish violinist and Grace Gilmore, pianist. These three delightful artists will, with Mrs. Gates, give a program unique, novel, popular and artistic.

A book of five season tickets will cost $2.00, single admission tickets, 50 cents each. All tickets may be obtained at McConnell's. Season tickets may also be obtained from members of the committee and from soliciting salesmen. It is a patriotic community duty to pitch in and help make the course a success.

MISS REGINA PROVANCE, who has been the guest of her sister during the past summer, departed on No. 2, last Saturday morning, for Baltimore, Maryland, Mrs. J. M. Trammell accompanying her as far east as Chicago.

A Word About Former Citizens.

A personal word from a member of the family brings the good news that the Doles, former residents of Red Willow county and of McCook, are getting on nicely in their several homes and occupations: A. G. Dole is a justice of the peace at Missouri Valley, Iowa, and busy; Leslie is located at Sloan, Iowa, where he is manager for the Nye-Schneider Co.; he was married in June last; Harry is in Seward, Nebraska, is manager for the Searle Chapin Lumber Co.; Garry is employed in the shops at Belle Plain, Iowa. All are doing well and have a warm place in their hearts for McCook friends.

Shurtleff-Jones.

HUMBOLT, Neb., Oct. 27.—Mason Shurtleff and Miss Alverda Jones, two well known young people of this city, who left rather mysteriously, last week, the former to look after business interests at McCook and the latter to visit friends at Edgar, evidently decided to form a life partnership, as word comes of their marriage, which occurred early in the week at the Hotel Hampton in Holdrege. The couple will make their home here, where the groom has for some years been in the business of buying horses. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones of this city.

Gave Him Fright of His Life.

James McAdams received the fright of his life, Wednesday evening. He was hauling his little daughter in the home yard, and after giving the sled some impetus, stepped aside and dropped the rope,—only to observe a wire drawn across the path, but he was powerless to stop the sled! The wire cut the little girl about the mouth and broke one tooth slightly. From the profuse bleeding he thought at first glance that her throat had been cut! Her injuries are severe.

Fowler-Leader.

McCook friends recently received cards announcing the marriage of Dr. James Harmon Fowler, formerly of our city, and Miss Ethel Leader of Marengo, Iowa. October 12th is the date of the happy event. They will be at home in Lancaster, Wis., after November 15th, the doctor having located there in May last. Warmest congratulations.

In Serious Condition.

Robert Sutton's condition is regarded as grave. He was operated upon, yesterday afternoon by Dr. Garten of Lincoln, assisted by Dr. Beach of this city, for an abscess on the base of the brain, the result of an old ear trouble. The operation was successful, but the seriousness of the disease and the weakness of the patient are still disquieting facts in the case.

The Buying Power of Your Dollar is greatly increased by buying the Hamilton-Brown Shoes at Stulken's Shoe Store. In order to make room for large stock of new shoes coming I will sell my present line of school shoes at a discount of twenty per cent.

Think of it! A new piano for $175, $200 or $225. See them at Sutton's.

OBITUARIES.

CRISPIN.

I. N. Crispin, who was stricken down with paralysis about two weeks since, peacefully went home, Monday morning of this week, at the residence of his daughter Mrs. D. C. Marsh. Services were held at the home, Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. M. B. Carman. Tuesday morning on 2, the remains were taken to Superior, Nebraska, for burial besides the body of his wife who preceded him to the home beyond eleven years since.

[ISAAC NEWTON CRISPIN was born in Ohio on June 21, 1830. Moved to Henry county, Iowa, when a young man. Was united in marriage with Ellen Brewington in 1852. Seven children were born to them, four surviving, Owen of Superior, Will of Helena, Mont., Mrs. J. H. Keever of Omaha, Mrs. D. C. Marsh of McCook. Deceased became a member of the White Rock Methodist church in Republic county, Kansas, over thirty years ago, and has been an official ever since. He was converted at the age of seventeen years. He was an ardent Christian throughout life and leaves his bereaved children, now all grown to womanhood and manhood, a priceless legacy in the purity and splendor of a long life usefully and well spent.]

Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Keever accompanied the remains to Superior.

The bereaved children are remembered by many friends in much sympathy in this sorrow and loss.

CARD OF THANKS.

We are mindful of every kindness and are most grateful for the assistance rendered us so graciously during the illness and after the death of Father Crispin.

MR. AND MRS. D. C. MARCH.

SCOTT.

(GEORGE SCOTT was born in Herkimer county, New York, June 13, 1821. At an early age he entered the Baptist ministry after being graduated from Hamilton university of that state, and was in active gospel service for 55 years, most of the time on the western frontier, going into unorganized territory, preaching, organizing, building a church or a parsonage, and then going on into other fields, his own hands—he was a carpenter by trade—doing much of building of churches and parsonages. He served as pastor in Dennison, Cedar Rapids, Des Moines, and Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Beatrice and Tecumseh, Neb.,—ten years at the latter place. The remains were taken to Tecumseh, last Friday night, and Rev. E. A. Russell, a veteran associate, officiated at the burial on last Saturday.

Deceased is survived by four children, (the wife having gone to the spirit land some eleven years since), E. J. of Goodland, Kansas, A. T. of Wyoming, George S. and Nellie of our city, and to them goes out the tender sympathy of a host of friends.

Rev. Scott was one of those rare, lovable characters one never forgets, and his whole life has been a benediction.

DRUMMOND.

Alexander C. Drummond died at his home in South McCook, Monday, October 30th, 1905, of old age. He was born in Scotland, October 17th, 1822. He was united in marriage with Susan Atkinson, April 16, 1844. They came to America in 1850 and located in Wisconsin. Have been residents in McCook since 1857. Deceased worked in the Burlington round-house here until he was 77 years old. He was the father of twelve children, five of them and his aged wife surviving him, seven having gone on before. Two daughters live in British Columbia, two sons in Wisconsin, one son in the Ohio soldiers' home, and one daughter living here Mrs. R. S. McDonald.

Brief services were conducted at the home, Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. Harry Shepherd and Elder H. H. Berry, burial following in Longview cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McDonald are most grateful to all the kind neighbors and friends for assistance and sympathy.

TUTTLE.

Mrs. Eunice Tuttle passed away, Monday, October 30th, 1905, on the Tuttle ranch on Dry Creek, southeast of the city. Funeral services were held on the ranch, Wednesday, Rev. J. E. Tirrill in charge, after which the remains were conveyed to the cemetery at Cedar Bluffs, Kansas, where interment was made.

Eunice Tripp was born January 27, 1825. [Her father Isaac Tripp was born in 1796; her mother Mary Tripp was born in 1806]. Deceased's husband died October 12th, 1892. Five sons and two daughters survive, three sons Harry, William and George being present at the funeral.

That Chicago Rate Conference.

At the recent railroad rate conference held in Chicago to endorse President Roosevelt's stand on the railroad rate question and upon the general question of railroad control by the federal government, quite a number of the Nebraska delegates bolted the regular conference and held a separate meeting of their own.

This is the list of names as they were reported at the Chicago meeting:

John T. Dorgan, Lincoln.

John H. Beekes, Plattsmouth Real Estate exchange.

F. Colpetzer, Omaha Commercial club.

C. H. Dietrich, Hastings Commercial club.

Charles E. Jones, Omaha.

William Glass, Omaha Commercial club.

G. L. Hammer, Omaha.

W. C. Bullard, Omaha Builders' club.

A. Barnett, president McCook Commercial club.

John W. Long, Loup City Commercial club.

Euclid Martin, Omaha Commercial club.

George L. Meissner, Crete Commercial club.

C. H. Perkins, Omaha.

C. H. Stockholm, Omaha.

Frank H. Young, Broken Bow Commercial club.

John B. Watkins, South Omaha Commercial club.

So far as the McCook Commercial club is concerned, it is but fair to state that the credentials carried by President Barnett of the club were attested to by the members or part of the members of the executive committee of the club, and that no action was taken by the members of the club. Hence Mr. Barnett's action in allying himself with the railroad element which was refused admission to the conference and held a separate "protesting" meeting cannot in any sense be regarded as representing the sentiment of the McCook Commercial club on that question. At least a respectable element of the club is decidedly opposed to such action and the matter will very probably come to a decision at the first regular meeting of the club.

President Roosevelt should be endorsed, and if his friends in the club come out as faithfully as the opposition will he will be endorsed. If his friends stay at home, he will be turned down.

What shall it be?

The cap manufacturers of this country have been making a great study during the last ten years to get something for the head wear that would be warm, give good wear, at the same time be stylish. Keith Bros. Co. of Chicago feel that they have at last reached the climax in cap manufacturing and are offering the trade their new line of inside fur trimmed bands in all the new up to date colors and shapes through their special agent for McCook and vicinity, F. M. COLSON, Prop. of Bee Hive.
