

Stock Reducing Sale

In order to reduce our grocery stock largely by the first of the coming year we have decided to give our patrons the advantage of a

Reduction of 10 to 20 per cent.

on many items in our large line of fresh and first-class goods, such as

California Fruits Coffees, Etc.

You will save 5c a pound on your coffee, and proportionately more on other items.

Take Advantage of This Opportunity

The "IN-ER-SEAL CADETS" will be with us Saturday aweek.

"Never Fail" 5-gallon Oil or Gasoline Cans for $1.50. They are world-beaters.

J. A. Wilcox & Son

DANBURY.

John Delong is building a barn 20x60. Edward VanPelt sold his land to some eastern man.

W. A. Minniear and family expect to move to California soon.

Jar. Robinson is building a fine residence in the north part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dolph and child are visiting at the home of former.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dolph went to Norton County, Tuesday, on a visit.

Mr. Calvin of Indianola is training the choir in the Congregational church.

Marion Dow of Indianola visited friends and relatives in Danbury, Sunday.

John G. Raes Comedy Co. was with us Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Mr. Ray of Lincoln has bought 50 acres of land of W. A. Minniear for $5,000.

The farmers' elevator is looming up. We understand it is to be completed in 30 days.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Stilgebour a baby boy, Nov. 14, mother and child are getting along very well.

Clifford Burbridge and Griff DeMay attended the basket supper at the Miller school-house, Saturday night.

Mrs. Phillips of Indianola visited at the homes of Mrs. J. L. Sargent and Mrs. J. E. Noe the first of the week.

Mrs. Cathcart and Mrs. Greenway were called to Red Oak, Iowa, on account of their mother's serious illness.

J. L. Newman shipped two car loads of hogs to St. Joe, Sunday. In the future Mr. Newman will do the buying and shipping.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stilgebour returned from Omaha, where Mrs. Stilgebour had an operation performed for a cataract on her eye, Wednesday.

A fire occurred in J. E. Dolph's house Monday morning. It damaged quite a lot of their clothing. They got it extinguished before it did much damage to the house.

Mr. Simonton sold his land for $4,500. W. A. Minniear his land for $10,000 to Mr. McGuire. J. L. Sims to W. A. Minniear 1/2 section for $6,000. Mr. Smith to Soren Simonsen for $2,500. Sam Messner to Mr. Rodman of Missouri for $1,800.

Pain may go by the name of rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, pleurisy. No matter what name the pains are called, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will drive them away. 35 cents.

L. W. McConnell.

SCHOOL CREEK.

Mrs. Grey is on the sick list.

Anna Sargent is spending this week at home.

Charles Vandervort and family visited his mother, Sunday.

Gilbert Rankin is treating John Dutcher's house to a coat of paint.

Mrs. George Wheeler and Edith Allen of Indianola called on Mrs. John Dutcher recently.

Ed Mack and aunt Mrs. Hunter of Iowa started for Carlyle, Colo., to look after their land interests there.

OBITUARY.

Newman Dutcher was born in Hermitage Co., N. Y., May 3, 1813. He died at the home of his son C. K., Nov. 3, 1905, aged 92 years 6 months.

At the age of 33 he moved to Ohio where he lived nine years. Then he moved to Greene Co., Wis., where he lived three years. On account of poor health he came west as far as Floyd Co., Iowa, where he farmed 28 years. Then he again moved west to Nebraska in 1883.

His wife and 9 children survive him. His sons J. W., E. S. and C. K. and families and daughter Mrs. Hunter of Iowa were present at the funeral, which was held at the M. E. church in Indianola at 2 o'clock, Nov. 4, conducted by Rev. Erastus Smith pastor of the M. E. church assisted by Rev. Hawkins, pastor of the Congregational church.

A large concourse of friends followed his remains to their last resting place.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

Allen and Frank Hakenkamp have been losing horses from sore mouths.

Perry Shepherd and wife and baby visited at D. H. Shepherd's, last Sunday.

Mrs. Marion Kimerling is visiting at her mother's Mrs. J. B. Kilgore's near Indianola, this week.

Mrs. August Miller died at her home on the Willow, November 11th, and was buried, Sunday, from the Lutheran church. The little two weeks old babe died and was buried last week. Mr. Miller has the sympathy of all in his loss.

Salemen Wanted

to look after our interest in Red Willow and adjacent counties. Salary or commission. Address Clover Oil and Paint Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

Dr. O. C. Reynolds
Rooms 19-20 Barr Block.
Surgery and Gynecology
Phones: Auto. 2418, Bell 850, Lincoln, Neb. 2655.

INDIANOLA.

Gus Shupert was an Indianola visitor, Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Powell of Lincoln is the guest of her sister Mrs. Thomas Duncan.

Mrs. Simmons of Beaver City is here visiting her son L. B. Simmons of the depot force.

Henry Shouse has been out at his brother-in-law's, this week, helping him on the farm.

Mrs. A. M. Teel took the train for Wauneta, Sunday night, where she expects to be for some time.

I. M. Smith was in Indianola between trains, Tuesday, and called on a few of his friends during his short stay in town.

Alex Brown of Missouri Ridge has gone to Dodge City, Kansas, to see his brother who is very low with dropsy of the heart.

Mrs. Christian Stevenson who has been visiting Agent Lawritson and family left for her home in Holbrook, Sunday morning.

The lectures are over at the Catholic church for the present. We are in receipt of the news that we are to have another course soon.

A ball was given at the opera house in honor of Henry Crabtree and bride, last Friday evening. A large number was in attendance.

The Adventists hold their meetings every Saturday, at the home of Mrs. Phillips. We have not been informed as to the name of their minister.

C. W. Dow is having some new sidewalks put down in front of his new implement house. It is of concrete and W. P. Elmer is doing the work.

L. B. Simmons was granted a vacation to recuperate and rest up for awhile. He has been a very faithful and efficient helper in the office for a long time.

Dick Roper, whose home is in Oregon and who has been working in McCook the past summer, visited friends and relatives in Indianola a few days, this week.

Henry Crabtree Jr., and Miss Rose Meyers were married, last week. They will go to housekeeping shortly in the house recently built on the Powell ranch.

Mrs. Hatcher's sister who has been in these parts for the past several weeks on business and pleasure combined, left on No. 5 Sunday evening, for her home in the west.

R. E. Smith is putting the finishing touches to Wm. A. Dolan's new house. It is almost finished and presents a very pretty appearance. It will be ready to move into soon.

Word came to Indianola, last Saturday, that W. E. Rollings who has been living in Lincoln for the past few years, is dead. Mr. Rollings was a resident of Indianola in days gone by.

Miss Verna Brown who has been visiting relatives in this county left for her home in Dodge City, Kans., last week, in answer to a telegram announcing the serious illness of her father.

Fred Burt has bought a farm near Haigler and will take possession in the near future. We are sorry to lose these people for they are among our best citizens, but hope that our loss will be their gain.

Wm. Porter of this place now has one of the finest farms in Dundy county. He bought six hundred and fifty acres. His farm is situated about eight miles from Haigler. He will not move his family until spring.

Mr. Holland living west of town had the misfortune to break his leg one day, this week. He seems to be particularly unfortunate in this instance, as this is the third or fourth time the same limb has suffered a fracture.

Mrs. A. N. Puckett died, Saturday morning, at half past two o'clock and was buried, Sunday afternoon, from the Congregational church, sermon by Rev. Hawkins. Many beautiful tokens in the way of flowers were in evidence. A large crowd of relatives and friends were present at the funeral.

BARTLEY.

E. R. Moon has been quite sick, this week.

Mrs. Frank Purvis is visiting friends in McCook, this week.

Rev. Kirby and wife of this place are Benkelman visitors, this week.

Mrs. Lewis Hart was immersed in the river, last Sunday, by Elder Wilson.

Mr. John Wilber and wife of Wahoo are here visiting Mr. Webber's parents.

Miss Nellie Rittenberg and Miss Grace Brown were visitors in Indianola, Tuesday.

Mrs. Will Hanson of Holbrook is in Bartley, this week, visiting friends before moving to Bloomington, Neb.

Otis Farrer has rented the property recently vacated by Mr. Ryan who has returned to his old home in Indiana.

Harvey Athey and H. L. Brown were in Cambridge, Tuesday, getting pointers on electric light system with a view of putting in electric lights in Bartley.

A large number of the relatives and friends of W. D. Williams gathered at his home, last Sunday, to help him celebrate the anniversary of his forty-third birthday. The occasion was also the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Williams' marriage.

RED WILLOW.

Mrs. Hatcher's sister has been visiting her.

Nearly everyone has his fall grain sown.

Mrs. John Longnecker is still confined to her bed.

Mr. Smith will improve his place by building a granary.

Mr. Holland fell and broke his leg. Do not know the particulars yet.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Taylor and son visited Mrs. Longnecker, last week.

Wm. Randel has the stone hauled for building the foundation for an addition to his house.

Mrs. Holton Longnecker left the farm to remain a few days in McCook before returning to Colorado.

Miss Clandia Hatcher is much pleased with her school in Oklahoma and they are pleased with her and offer an increase in salary.

There will be a protracted meeting at the church the last of the month. Elder J. E. Wilson will preach. Everyone invited to attend.

A number of Mr. Sexson's friends gathered at his home to remind him that he is a year older. They had an enjoyable time.

Mrs. Meyers returned from her visit to her sister, this week. Will said it had been nine years since she was away and he hoped it would be nine more before she went again.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY NO. 1.

Miss Sadie Evertson is on the sick list.

W. E. Bower returned home from his visit, last Saturday.

Miss Lovie Jacobs is staying with Mrs. Gerald Wilcox for a few weeks.

Alexander Conrad returned home, last Friday, after a short visit with his grandparents in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hammell are re-joining over a fine baby girl which came to them on election day.

Mrs. G. H. Angell and two children Joy and Willie accompanied her father on a visit to her sister Mrs. Will Miller of Trenton.

W. H. Smith and daughter Bessie went to Trenton, this week, to look at some property and visit his daughter Mrs. Will Miller.

Miss Lovie Jacobs and nephew Clay Wright went to Hayes county to attend a dance in Mr. Wright's new house. A fine time is reported.

W. N. Rogers was pleasantly surprised by the appearance of an old time friend from Tamora, Neb., this week, who will visit with him for a few days.

Ira L. Kennedy is busy hauling rock for the foundation of a new house which he will build for himself in the near future. It will add one more new box for the route.

Charlie Byfield's nervous system was visibly effected, last Saturday, while going over No. 1. At a point on the route he was shocked to find that his bag of letters was missing. He retraced a considerable distance of the way without success and finally set his face southward again in hope of finding that which was lost. A little farther along he received shock two times—he was sitting on the bag!

LEBANON.

The McCart Brothers have rented Abbott Bros.' new livery barn and furnished it with new rigs.

Ernest Fletcher's new house is nearing completion.

Mrs. Ward C. Hunt from Holdrege, with her two children are here visiting.

Moses Thompson has moved from Wilsonville onto his farm southeast of town. His son Walter has moved onto the farm which William Sullivan bought of Chas. Thomas.

Walter McTaggart was a McCook business visitor a few days back.

Miss Daisy Sluts writes from Creston Iowa, that they have a larger and prettier home in Creston than here.

They are holding special meetings at the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. H. Scofield being helped by Rev. Books.

Mrs. W. R. Pennington has been quite sick.

Amos Thomas has built a new house on his farm southwest of town and his son Bennie and wife will live there next year.

Public Stock Sale.

Thomas Andrews & Son and A. C. Shallenberger will hold a sale of Short-horn cattle and Clydesdale horses at Cambridge, Neb., November 25, 1905. They will sell 12 bulls and 24 cows and heifers bred to their great herd bulls.

The cattle from these herds are famous all over the country and have furnished the winners at Nebraska and Iowa state fairs and American royal show. "Bar None" second champion bull of Nebraska will sell, also other equally good. Three stallions and five mares will be offered. Write A. C. Shallenberger at Alma, Neb., for catalogue.—11-13-2ts.

Be Humane

to your faithful animals. Buy a horse blanket at W. T. Coleman's. A large and fine selection.

New changeable Gloria Silks in navy, wine and gray, 42 inches wide, $1.00 yd. Thompson's.

Would You Refuse a Dollar Offered You?

No! Of Course Not.

Well, that is what we are offering you and that is what we give you; for on every five dollars spent with us, we will save you on the average of a dollar; and

A Dollar Saved is a Dollar Made

so join the ranks of THE WISE and file in to the NEW STORE where your money finds nothing but bargains and where EVERYBODY is treated alike; where ONE PRICE is given to all, and where YOU are not charged with the losses sustained by extensive CREDIT BUSINESS.

OUR GOODS

Are All New

Are All Fresh

Are Up-to-Date

Were all bought right; are all sold right, and will make you glad you came. OUR MANY SATISFIED CUSTOMERS are our best advertisements AND WE WANT YOU as one of our reporters.

Come and See Us

IT'S DRY GOODS WE SELL

H. C. Clapp

New Walsh Block - Phone 56 - McCook

A $5 Suit of XTRAGOOD Clothes FREE to the Best Boy Detective

The man who sells XTRAGOOD boy clothes for Ederheimer, Stein & Co., Chicago, is coming to see us within ten days. We will give FREE any XTRAGOOD suit in our store to the first clever boy under 16 years of age who finds THIS man before he leaves town.

What You Must Do

When you think you have found the right man, say to him, "YOU ARE FROM EDERHEIMER, STEIN & CO., CHICAGO, AND SELL XTRAGOOD CLOTHES." Remember these words. If you say anything else he will not answer.

H. H. TARTSCH

The Clothier

Stokes' Grocery

PHONE 95
CITIZENS BANK BLOCK
M'COOK, NEB.

NORTH SIDE.

S. O. Houge sold his farm, Saturday. James Kirby sold his farm, last Saturday.

Irve Spaulding attended the Wilcox sale, Tuesday.

John Fitzgibbons of St. Ann was doing business in McCook, Saturday.

Fred Carter is done threshing and is now busy hauling off his wheat.

Joe Kennedy came down from St. Ann and visited with his parents. He is now working for Joe Harr.

Mrs. D. C. Shaw has been very sick the past three weeks, but at present is very much improved.

Miss Ethel Middleton of McCook is teaching a very successful term of school in the Kennedy district.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Little were doing business in McCook, Tuesday, and visiting friends on the Willow.

Walter Hickling was offered $25 an acre for his 160-acre timber claim. This is a good piece of land all broke out, but no other improvements.

Corn husking is the whole thing now days. Corn is making from 25 to 50 bushels to the acre of good quality. There is not a very large acreage, this year. From three to four cents a bushel is the price paid for husking.