CHICAGO LADY ENTER-TAINERS

MENARD'S OPERA HOUSE MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27th, 1905

Reserved seats checked off on season tickets, Thursday evening, November 23, 7 o'clock, at Mc-Connell's; sale begins following morning.

CHICAGO LADY ENTERTAINERS

Have won the approval and endorsement, without a single exception, of the committee, the press and the public in the various cities of the forty-two different states where they have appeared during the past three seasons.

STELLA L. HITCHCOCK

Possessing a high soprano voice of great beauty and birdlike clearness, which combined with a fine stage presence, makes her a star attraction. She is a charming lyric singer, both captivating and artistically perfect.

MARCIA M. MOORHEAD

Is a good musician and more especially an excellent accompanist, playing with great expression and spirit. She fully understands the art of following. and yet sustaining, the voice parts, so necessary to successful solo singing.

BESSIE M. MERCER

Has a rich and unique contralto voice of unusually low range, suited to pathetic and dramatic singing, and sings with equal facility in lighter vein and never wile to theill her andiance.

ESTELLE M. CLARK

As an interpretative reader is an artist and her impersonations form a chain of purest gold, each link without a flaw, encircling the entire list of characters known to the art of expression.

Dr. D. F. Fox, a lecturer well known and admired in McCook, says; The Chicago Lady Entertainers closed our last season's Jecture course in such a very satisfactory manner that they were promptly secured for the opening number this year. Most successfully did they fill the demand for an attraction that would insure not only the largest attendance, regardless of the many count. er Thanksgiving night events, but the greatest help in the advance sale of season tickets as well. It was the only re-engagement of our course. A more delighted audience never went away from our church. I give them my un-qualified commendation.—D. F. Fox, Pastor California Avenue Congregational church, Chicago.

So MISS MAUD DUNBAR was in the city says Unkapupa, the critic for the "Lyover Sunday, guest of Mrs. Abner Clark | ceumits," a magazine of the Lyceum, on her way home to Des Moines, Iowa, and he remarks further, "some people from visiting Mrs. Grace Goodwin in travel far to avoid some lady quartettes. This quartette avoids the things that stimulate traveling. They have broken up the half-circle idea, and do something more than sing. They fill each song full of expression, and put in enough action to prove that they are live, human beings. For instance; a daintier, more novel and more pleasing number can not be found on any program than their minuet song, and almost the same thing can be said of "Mammy's Little sauce, cakes, bread, etc. at Grannis' $1.85 to $2.50 at Thompson's.
