Conductor A. P. Bonnot has resigned from the railroad service, effective May 1st, when he and family will leave for Eau Claire, Wisconsin, where he will go into the large furniture business of his father-in-law, R. R. Williams, well known to quite a number of McCook people. Mr. Bonnot is one of the pioneer railroad men of the McCook division, having served in the capacity of passenger brakeman for almost 25 years. He will take with him to his Wisconsin home the well wishes and regrets of his fellow-railroad and many others. Mrs. Bonnot has been a notable factor in McCook's social and music circles and her departure will be a distinct loss and regretted by all.

Home for Families of Bandits.

Not actuated by remorse, but by pure philanthropy, Jim Jenkins, hunter of outlaws, has concluded to devote all his money to the maintenance of a home for the orphans and widows of men he has run to earth, in particular, and of criminals of the great Southwest in general. Jim Jenkins, now of Kansas, is now 65 years old and has spent forty years as a scout and hunter of bandits and train robbers. In this way he has made about $50,000. Among the distinguished outlaws he has chased were Jesse James and his brother, Bob Ford, Bill Dalton and Bill Cook, while he was the leader of the band that caught Cherokee Bill in 1895. In the Dalton raid in Coffeyville, Kas., Jenkins was shot eight times. He estimates his bag of bad men at about 150. The home, which is being built on a 5,000-acre farm owned by Jenkins, near Pryor Creek, I. T., is to cost $20,000.—Buffalo Express.

Subsidies to Support Art.

The government of Bavaria has voted a considerable sum for the maintenance of art institutions throughout the kingdom during the coming year. The allowances for the purchase of paintings and their preservation is particularly liberal. The various art institutions in Munich receive handsome subsidies and the German museum in Nuremberg gets an increased allowance. Various other institutions have been voted large amounts for repairs and maintenance. These art allowances in all reach $1,081,163 marks ($739,741).—Emil Hensel, in Chicago Record.

Depredations of Coyotes.

CITIZENS OF McCook and adjoining counties of Texas are in a state of terror because of the depredations of coyotes, which are killing scores of cattle. Worse than that, the slinking brutes are spreading hydrophobia among the stock. A man living in Tilden was bitten by an infected colt and died in a few days. Ways and means of getting rid of the pests are being considered.

Water Supply for Tampico.

English engineers are making surveys and plans of Tampico and the surrounding country with a view of supplying the town with drinking water and a complete system of sewerage. Should these works be carried out there will be an excellent opening for the sale of plumbing supplies. At present there is no plumbing establishment in the port.

Dust at Sea.

Great quantities of dust collect on the decks of vessels at sea, no matter if they are swept twice or thrice a day. Most of it too is found on sailing vessels. The inference is that the sails act as dust collectors, arresting the particles which drift in the air.

Within 800 Miles of Pole.

Dr. G. E. Borchgrevink has made a great advance into the colder and more perilous Antarctic regions, carrying the line of exploration to within 800 miles of the south pole.

Tomska a University Town.

A technological institute has been opened at Tomska. This is the second institution for higher education in Sibera. Tomska is now a university town.
