

Another Sensation

Not Gossip or Hearsay
BUT THE ACTUAL TRUTH

Until Saturday night, April 7th, we will sell all those silk taffetas now displayed in our north window at

35c Per Yard

These are not 85c 90c or $1.00 Silks but they are silks which sell the world over for 50, 60 and even 75c per yard. You cannot make money any easier than by securing some of these sensational bargains for

Petticoats, Drop Skirts Linings, Waists or Shirt Waists Suits

Lace Curtains

All patterns and prices. Our new spring assortment presents values in lace curtains that have never before been offered in McCook. Come and look over our complete line before you buy. It will pay you well. DON'T FAIL to look over our stock of

Ladies' Dress Skirts, Summer Dress Goods

Fancy Ribbons
Muslin Underwear
Silk Petticoats
Mercerized Petticoats
Gingham Petticoats, etc.

H. C. Clapp

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS

New Walsh Block - Phone 56 - McCook

BARTLEY.

A brother of Sylvester Wymore and his family left here Monday evening, for Portland, Ore.

Perry Premier came in from Lincoln, Saturday, and visited with his father and family over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Duckworth, of Indianola, visited in Bartley, Saturday and Sunday, with Mr. Minnick and wife.
Mrs. Duckworth is Mrs. Minnick's sister.

F. W. Miller will turn over the post office to S. W. Clark, Saturday evening after mail closes, and Mr. Clark will move it across the street.

Mr. Miller and daughter Maude have been careful and obliging attendants upon their duties. We feel sure Mr.
Clark will do well and we do not ask him to do better than Mr. Miller and his assistant have done.

Henry McKean has a child sick with the measles.

Mr. Meeker was down from McCook last week surveying in town and vicinity.

The nominees for town officers to be elected next Tuesday, are: A. F. Mc-Cord, A. J. Dodd and H. E. Athey, trustees for two years; Ira Sheets and F. G. Stillebauer, trustees for two years. They are all good men.

Henry Butcher is putting up a new windmill and pump.

The jubilee singers held forth to a crowded house in the M. E. church Saturday night.

While sons of A. L. Cochran and D.
Evans were out hunting last Saturday, the former accidentally shot the Evans boy, who is slowly recovering.

Guy Curke and wife were visitors here over Sunday, returning to their home at Holbrook Monday, on 12.

Mr. Kliesick is putting up a good barn.

W. W. Lemasters is improving his home by an addition to his house.

Frank Jennings was at McCook on business Monday.

Lyman Jennings went to Lincoln last week to visit a while with his daughter, Mrs. Rollings.

The Ladies' Aid Society made arrangements to improve the interior of the Christian church.

John Hardy is hauling out lumber for a large barn.

Geo. Wheeler is hauling lumber to build a house on the Talcott farm.

"Cash," "Receive on Account,"
"Charge," "Paid Out" and other cash register printed supplies at THE TRIBUNE office.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY NO. 1.

Mrs. W. P. Burns and Miss Hazel are visiting her daughter Mrs. S. C. Drago at Friend, Neb.

Mrs. Nelson Downs and family took supper at Mrs. W. P. Burns, one day last week.

Miss Nellie Walsh closed a successful term of school at Ash Creek, last Friday, and returned to her home at Douglass, Otoe county, Neb., the next day.
She made many warm friends while among us who express the wish that she may return for the next school year.

Fred Adams has moved onto the place recently vacated by G. H. Rowland—a part of the Fitch farm.

August Bahr had his pump up three days, this week, for repairs.

Percy Catlett of Bartley has purchased a half section near Colonel W. E.
Corwin's "Lakewood" ranche and will occupy it at once.

W. N. Rogers left, Wednesday night, to complete arrangements for his joint sale at that place, April 18th. Experts who have seen his herd recently claim he has the finest bunch they ever saw go into a sale.

NORTH SIDE.

J. B. Smith has returned from Dubuque county, Iowa, where he has been visiting with his parents.

The patrons of school district 41 surprised the teacher, Miss Ethel Middleton, Friday, it being the last day of school. The ladies brought plenty of good things to eat and a splendid time was enjoyed by all. The pupils of the school made Miss Middleton a nice present. She gave good satisfaction as a teacher.

Will Proctor has moved to his farm, which he purchased of Fred Carter.

J. S. Modrell is soon to start the erection of a new house.

Tom Chamberlain now drives the finest pair of high steppers on the road.
Jessie Doyle and sister and Miss Roxa Byfield were visiting at D. C. Shaw's and Martin Kennedy's, Sunday.

Fred Carter and family have moved to their new home east of McCook. Before leaving their new home their neighbors gave them a happy surprise at D.
C. Shaw's.

Geo. Henderson is now living north of the Willow. We all welcome George and family, and most especially Grandma Carter, back to this neighborhood again.

Two brothers of Mrs. D. C. Shaw have bought farms and will be residents of Red Willow County.

All Groceries Sold Cheaper

Than Any House Can and Give Credit

25c Can Baking Powder.....20c 80 ounce Can Baking Powder.....65c Lemons per dozen.....25c XXXX Coffee per pound.....15c Sugar higher but give 17½ pounds.....$1.00 Walter Bakers' Cocoa per box.....25c Bulk Cocoanut per pound.....20c
J. T. and Standard Navy Tobacco.....35c Horse Shoe and Star Tobacco.....45c
Dr. Price's Breakfast Food.....10c

Cut Prices On All Can Goods and Groceries

5 pound package oat meal.....20c Rock Salt per ton.....$18.00
U J I Tea, best Jap Tea in the world.....60c
2 Cans of Pears.....25c

We do not cut prices on a few articles to get your trade, but

Sell All Goods Cheaper Than Ever

J. A. Wilcox & Son

M'COOK TRIBUNE

Only One Dollar the Year

GREAT BULL OPPORTUNITY

AT McCOOK, NEBRASKA, APRIL 7, 1906

W. H. McLemore, the well known Short Horn breeder, of Central Iowa, with headquarters now at Kearney, Nebraska, will sell at Public Auction, at the BLUE FRONT LIVERY BARN, McCook, Nebraska, 40 big growthy Bulls and 5 Cows and Heifers of breeding age.

We trust that all stockmen and stock farmers will realize the full significance of this good offering and lend it their presence on day of sale.

45 High Class Short-horns to go through the ring without reserve. Selected from the best herds in Iowa and Missouri and the offering as a whole is believed to be the best to occur anywhere in the state this season. 40 Bulls, ranging in age from 12 to 30 months, with from two to seven Scotch Tops, carrying as good pedigrees as you can find in the Herd Books, heavy boned, low down, blocky kind.

Catalogue is being prepared with a view to giving all the information possible.

These cattle will all be recorded in the American Short Horn Herd Book, and a certified copy will be furnished with each animal sold.

Also on the same day the Kentucky Jack Co., located at Kearney, Nebraska, will sell 5 Registered Jacks, from 4 to 6 years old, to the highest bidder, with a sale guarantee.

TERMS OF SALE 2 percent discount for cash. 8 months' time with approved security drawing 10 percent interest. V. Franklin, of the Citizens Bank of McCook, Nebraska, will clerk the sale.

All cattle sold at this sale will be cared for for one day following sale, and will be loaded on cars as directed.
For catalogue of Short Horns and Jacks, address

Col. Z. S. BRANSON, of Lincoln, Neb., Col. H. H. BERRY, of McCook, Neb., } Auctioneers

W. M. McLEMORE, Prop., Kearney, Neb.