Vocal (Selected).....
Mrs. P. F. McKenna.
(a.) Spring Song..... Mendelssohn
(b.) The Shepherds in the Field..... Malling
Largo ("New World Symphony")..... Dvorak
Vocal (Selected).....
Mr. C. H. MILLER.
Spinning Wheel..... Saint-Saens
Hercules, chained to the rocks, struggles to free himself, while Omphale, near by,
is indifferent to his suffering, and calmly spins. Furious at her contempt, Hercules struggles the harder at his chains until, exhausted, he sinks back upon the rocks. Omphale laughs merrily at his suffering and idly turns back to her spinning wheel.
Lamentation..... Guilman
(Written on the death of his friend Abbe Ferosi, killed on the field of Avon.)
Vocal (Selected).....
Mr. S. C. CARROLL.
March in E Flat..... Welby

The Orders Observe The Day.

Three lodges of the city observed Memorial day, last Sunday, the Knights of Pythias, A. O. U. W. and M. W. A. At 2:30 the Knights to the number of about 40 members marched from their castle hall to the Congregational church, where they were addressed by Pastor G. B. Hawkes briefly, but most acceptably on the appropriate subject of "Brotherhood." A splendid anthem and several familiar hymns constituted the music numbers.

After the church services the brethren marched to the cemeteries and as is their beautiful custom decorated the graves of departed, with attendant ritualistic ceremonial.

A. O. U. W. AND M. W. A.

At three o'clock in the Methodist church the A. O. U. W. and M. W. A. held joint Memorial services. The members of both of these orders, together with their lady auxiliaries, the D. of H. and Royal Neighbors, marched to the church in organization, where they were addressed by Rev. M. B. Carman along lines harmonious with the day. There was also music appropriate to the occasion.

The duty of decorating graves had been well performed in the morning by joint committees from the several orders.

Violently Insane.

Charles Dueter of Hayes county, who came to the city, a few days since, for treatment, became most violently insane, and on Tuesday night was taken down to Lincoln by Sheriff Peterson and Deputy Osborn. They had a hard fight from start to finish, but finally got their man safely in the asylum.

An Opportunity

To hear one of Nebraska's great educators on the subject of higher education, Dr. D. W. C. Huntington, Chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University, will preach at the Methodist church, Sunday morning and evening. All are cordially invited.

The Fourth on the Willow.

Under auspices of M. W. A. the 4th will be celebrated on west side of H. T. Church's ranch on the Willow. Amusements, contests, fireworks, bowery dance etc. Come.

An Important Business Change.

This week the large hardware and implement business of W. T. Coleman was purchased by Messrs. W. B. Mills and R. B. Simmons, two young men especially well known in railroad circles for many years. The deal includes the ownership of the brick block now occupied by the business on West Dennison street, with the frontage on Main avenue as well. The work of invoicing the large and varied stock is now progressing and will be completed, the end of this week, when the new firm will be in full charge.

The new firm will be known as The McCook Hardware Co. Both Mr. Mills and Mr. Simmons will go into the active management of the business, as soon as their places in the operating department of the Burlington railroad company can be filed by the company.

These young men have both been residents of McCook for many years and they go into this new business with the best wishes of many friends for their success and prosperity.

Program for Fourth of July.

Grand Organ Recital.

A grand organ recital will be given on the new pipe organ in St. Patrick's church on Tuesday evening, June 19th. Dr. John M. Mayhew of Lincoln will conduct the recital. Dr. Mayhew, organist at the First Presbyterian church, Lincoln, is one of the best, and most widely known pipe organ performers in the west. He will give you a treat. Tickets 25c. No reserved seats. Tickets for sale at McConnell's drug store.

Scraped the Bone.

Alva, son of Henry Simmerman of Coleman precinct, has been in Denver, this week, for an operation to one of his arms. The trouble is an old one. The arm was opened and the bone scraped. He is getting on pretty well and is expected to return home at the end of this week. J. H. Mitchell accompanied him, returning home, however, in advance.

Is Christianity Dying Out?

This question will be answered at the Congregational church, next Sunday morning, in an illustrated lecture by the pastor. Fifteen colored charts will tell to the eye the story of Christian progress in many different ways and lines. All are cordially invited to hear this lecture.

Fifty Per Cent Increase.

The McCook Junior Normal will, this evening, close its opening week, with an attendance over fifty per cent in excess of that of last year on first week. By Tuesday evening of this week the enrollment had reached 149, as against about 100 at the end of the first week, last year. The enrollment has since grown until the close of the first week shows an increase over the first week, last year, of 60 per cent or better.

What more need be said about the too evident success of the McCook Junior Normal and the junior normal idea?

County Committee Meeting.

June 15th, 1906.
The Republican County Central Committee is hereby called to meet on Wednesday, June 27th, 1906, at Indianola, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of selecting a date and place for the Republican County Convention and to transact such business as may come before the committee. All members of the committee are requested to be present.
