

GREETING TO THE JUNIOR NORMAL

The proprietor of the Model Shoe Store extends to every member of the Junior Normal a hearty welcome and cordially invites every one to call at The Model and see what an excellen stock of shoes is carried there. LADIES' OXFORDS, in canvas and all kinds of leather, just the kind to make you feel comfortable, in school and out. For tender, sensitive feet they assure the wearer relief. The cost is no greater than you pay elsewhere for shoes not nearly so good in stock or workmanship. We deal exclusively in shoes. The large stock we carry will enable you to get a perfect fit, the most essential thing in a shoe to insure ease and comfort to the wearer.

They have a new son at Edgar Smith's, this week.

John Muirhead of the boilermakers has gone with his family to Trenton, Mo., to be gone several weeks.

John McPadden of the boilermakers was called to St. Marys, Kansas, Saturday night by the death of his sister.

ROBERT BURNS is in the city, today. He has been attending college at Syracuse, N. Y., during the past session.

Will Rolfe, J. W. Eastman, Elmer Willis went up to Sheridan, Wyo., to take a chance at the Crow reservation, close of last week.

Farmer C. H. Harman was instrumental in saving the company a disastrous wreck of No. 76, Wednesday. As the train was passing his farm he noticed there was a broken wheel in the train. By persistent effort he finally got the attention of the trainmen and the train was brought to a stop without much damage being done. The wheel was broken in halves.

An Auspicious Nuptial Event.

Last Thursday evening, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. John F. Helm of Red Willow, Mr. Henry Christian Giese of Leavitt, Nebraska, and Miss Nettie Estella Helm of Red Willow, were united in marriage under happiest auspices and with elaboration and detail perhaps never excelled in the history of Red Willow county.

The ceremony was performed under a superb bell of white roses and foliage in the swell-window of the back parlor, Rev. M. B. Carman of McCook officiating and using the ring ceremony. The bride approached from an upper chamber preceded by her maid of honor Miss Aimee Menard of McCook and bridesmaid Miss Pearl Zint of McCook and was given away by her father, the while F. C. Becker of Grand Island, brother-in-law of the groom, played Mendelssohn's wedding march on the violin, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. M. Straus of Chicago.

The bride's dress was of white swiss mull on train, trimmed with baby Irish lace, chiffon and ribbons; she wore a white chiffon veil and carried a bouquet of white bride roses.

Little Vera Dixon of Chicago, a niece of the bride, was ring-bearer, carrying the dainty mystic circle in a large white rose.

Mr. Alfred Weller of Leavitt, Neb., was best man.

The maid of honor and bridesmaid carried bouquets of pink roses.

The parlor was beautifully decorated with white cut flowers and ferns.

Among those present from out of town were: Mrs. Mary Giese, Miss Odie Giese, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Becker, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lauderman, all of Grand Island, Neb.; Mrs. M. Straus, Mrs. Cora Dixon, Little Vera Dixon, all of Chicago, Ill.; Alfred Weller and Hugh Scilly, both of Leavitt, Neb.; Mrs. Nora McKinney, Childress, Texas; Mrs. E. M. Earnest, Stratton, Neb.; Miss Flossie Cline, Cambridge, Neb.

The presents were numerous and handsome.

After the ceremony an elegant four course dinner was served, the guests being served at five large tables on the lawn; the bridal party occupying the front porch. A superb bride's cake, elaborately and beautifully decorated, was afterwards distributed among the 200 or more guests from the bride's table.

Those assisting were: Mrs. Vina Wood, Mrs. Z. L. Kay, Mrs. Adele Phelan, Mrs. Joseph Menard, Mrs. H. C. Clapp, Mrs. C. L. Fabenstock, Mrs. W. V. Gage, Mrs. L. H. Stayner, Mrs. Walter Stokes, Miss Sadie Everist, Miss Fay Stayner, Miss Maud McBrayer, Miss Mae Wasson, Miss Pearl Rogers, all of McCook.

The residence was darkened and the interior illuminated with gas.

The young couple will remain at the Helm home for a few days before going to their future home in Leavitt, where the groom is connected with Standard Beet Sugar Co., holding the position of assistant superintendent.

Trains Nos. 1 and 3 stopped at Red Willow station on that date to accommodate the guests.

THE TRIBUNE adds to those of a host of friends and well-wishers its congratulations and best-wishes for the prosperity and happiness of these most estimable and worthy young people.

WHAT MOTHER DOES NOT WISH FOR HER-SELF, FOR HER DAUGHTERS, AND FOR HER LITTLE ONES, EVEN, TO STAND WELL IN THEIR COMMUNITY. IT IS THE DUTY AND SHOULD IT NOT BE THE PLEASURE OF HUSBANDS AND FATHERS TO PROVIDE GOOD CLOTHES FOR THEIR WIVES AND DAUGHTERS. THE WIFE DESERVES IT AND THE DAUGHTER CANNOT GO IN THE CIRCLE YOU WOULD HAVE HER MOVE IN UNLESS SHE WEARS GOOD CLOTHES. FOR THOSE WHO HAVE NO TIME TO MAKE THEIR OWN CLOTHES WE HAVE GARMENTS READY TO WEAR. WE HAVE LOOKED OUT FOR THE ECONOMICAL SIDE FOR YOU. FOR THE MOTHER OR DAUGHTER WHO SEWS WE HAVE PROVIDED MATERIALS ON WHICH SHE WILL NOT WASTE HER TIME. RESPECTFULLY, C. L. DEGROFF & Co.
