Engineer Archibald innocently became a great hero and the lion of the hour down in Rawlins county on Monday afternoon. He was pulling the eastbound passenger, which met a very heavy rain at Blakeman. When the train reached Ludell it was still pouring and Mr. Archibald asked the section foreman, just off the track, how his section was, and was informed that it was all right. Despite this assurance Mr. Archibald decided, without orders, to slow down at a certain high bridge between Ludell and Herndon, and it was fortunate for the train crew and passengers that he did, for as he approached the bridge he saw it ready to topple from its foundations, and stopped the train just in time to save a plunge into 25 feet of water. When the passengers learned of the tragedy his forethought had averted, the women kissed him, the men hugged him and wanted to raise a purse for him. Now Mr. Archibald is naturally a very modest man and all this demonstration over what he considered a small matter made him feel like an awkward school boy.—St. Francis Herald.

Orleans and St. Francis Branch.

SPECIAL TO TRIBUNE:

Orleans, Neb., Aug. 15th, '06.

The copious rains the last two weeks have saturated the corn belt of the St. Francis branch and assured the best crop of the king of grain ever grown on the Beaver Valley route.

Corn is clean, dark color, good stand and rank growth.

Threshing is progressing between Orleans and St. Francis and wheat is much better than was expected—quality extra, testing 60 pounds per bushel. Two fields of wheat yielded at Orleans 30 bushels per acre; one field at Stamford threshed 28 bushels per acre and several 20 bushels per acre. Danbury had many fields that yielded 20 bushels and all along the line comes the story of good yields and of superior quality.

The best yield of wheat on the St. Francis branch is in Cheyenne county west of McDonald near the county line. William Ert threshed 30 acres which weighed out 44½ bushels per acre. Mr. Ert has 87 acres of this splendid wheat yet to thresh. This wheat was sown in September, 1905, and put in with great care, finished with a Campbell packer. Here is a lesson for wheat raisers worthy of imitation.

Ten new threshing outfits with steamers were unloaded in Cheyenne county within the last few weeks.

Since the passenger service was put on the St. Francis branch, Jan. 1st, '06, the towns and country have made remarkable growth. This improved service has done more to develop the Beaver Valley financially and increase the population than any crops could do. The mails have increased, towns are buildings up and every train brings home seekers and land purchasers.

Atwood is building a $35,000 court house, water works and a $50,000 hotel is contemplated.

St. Francis has built two new hotels. The Fowler lumber yards has put in the largest plant in northwest Kansas. A new bank will start Oct. 1st, and a new post office building will be erected of brick or stone cement by Geo. Benkelman postmaster.

A new town has sprung up on the site of old Beardsley between McDonald and Blakeman. An elevator is being built, store buildings and residences and a new postoffice will be established soon.

Wheeler, Kansas, will have a change of postmasters and a store will be established there.

Orleans, Neb., is building 7 blocks of cement side walks 5 feet wide from Stromsburg's store to the depot. Mayor Peterson and his administration is doing good work in improving Orleans. Pete Shea has his new store finished. A new bank building will be erected soon by Mark Holland. Mr. Lane will erect a large brick where Hallis & Mahn store stood before the fire. All over Orleans many new residences are being built and under construction. Lot values has increased 3 time in price within the past year.

The personnel of the passenger crews on the St. Francis branch are as follows: East end Sunday lay-over at Orleans —conductor, William Line, McCook; engineer, Harry Tyler, McCook; fireman, Geo. Campbell, McCook; mail clerk, Henry C. Fairchild, Orleans; express messenger, William Bantor, Oxford; cream man, Ernest Pettis, Oxford. West end Sunday lay-over at St. Francis —conductor, Harry Beale, McCook; engineer, William Archibald, McCook; fireman, Doyle Cotner, Republican City; mail clerks, O. D. Renwanz, Orleans, and Ed. B. Williams, Republican City; express messenger, Harry Scidmore, St. Joe, Mo.

Mrs. Fairchild and children has returned to Orleans having been some time visiting east.

Mrs. Lane, conductor's Lane wife, was visiting at Atwood, last week.

Stewart Richard, assistant postmaster at Orleans, died at Omaha, where he went to have an operation. Stewart was born and raised at Orleans. His death was a great shock to his many friends. He was an efficient official, very bright, able and agreeable. He was sick only a short time and his sudden death was a blow to his parents, brothers and sisters.

C. D. Hume of Orleans, the well known mail clerk, who run so many years on the St. Francis branch, is not expected to live at Omaha hospital, where he

IT IS JUST AS EASY FOR ONE FIRM IN BUSINESS AS FOR ANOTHER TO "TALK". BUT WHEN IT COMES TO BACKING UP STATEMENTS THAT'S DIFFERENT. IT TAKES KNOWING HOW, MONEY AND A GOOD NAME TO GET THE BEST LINES OF GOODS INTO A STORE. IT IS A MISTAKE TO THINK THAT ANY MERCHANT CAN BUY ANY LINES OF GOODS HE WANTS TO BUY. THE MAKERS OF THE BEST GOODS HUNT FOR THE BEST STORE IN A TOWN TO HANDLE THEIR LINES AND WHEN A MANUFACTURER HAS ONCE PLACED HIS LINE IN A STORE THERE IT STAYS. THIS IS WHERE "KNOWING-HOW" COMES IN. THEN BILLS MUST BE PAID. THAT TAKES MONEY. THEN THE STORE MUST GIVE ITS PATRONS FAIR TREATMENT --GOOD GOODS FOR THEIR "MONEY". THAT BEGETS A "GOOD NAME". THE STORE THAT HAS THESE THREE THINGS--KNOWING HOW, MONEY AND A GOOD NAME--BECOMES THE WHIRLPOOL INTO WHICH THE BEST LINES OF GOODS MADE DROP AND STAY.

RESPECTFULLY,
C. L. DEGROFF & Co.
