A Great Improvement.

The West Ward frame school house which has been moved to its new site now sits on the side hill 2 blocks north of Dennis St. and 2 blocks west of McDowell St. at a fine elevation and looks twice as big as it used to look. The basement will be marked down from $3.00 a suit to $1.99 are going quickly and their whole Clearing Sale is proving a pronounced success as have all previous ones conducted by The Thompson D. G. Co. Get your share of the bargains. A high one and contain an additional school room.

"Showered" Miss Yarger.

Miss Edna Yarger was the object of a pre-nuptial event of happy particulars, Monday evening, in the "shower" given in her honor at the home of Miss Jeanette Dutton by a score or more of her young lady friends of our city. A beautiful variety of pretty presents constituted the gift shower of her friends. Music, vocal and instrumental, and social delights past pen-picturing, were among the entertainment items. Refreshments were the culminating feature of the joyous affair.

Notice.

To whom it may concern:—Notice is hereby given that I will not be liable for any of the debts of my husband, T. C. Kelly, nor will any of my property be bound therefor.—8-17-4ts p.

VIOLA KELLEY.

Died While Away on a Visit.

Engineer and Mrs. Will A. Cline have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their baby, about nine months old. The mother and family were away at the wedding of a sister in Dunning, Nebraska, when the baby was taken with an attack of whooping cough combined with teething and soon passed away. The remains arrived here, Sunday night, and on Monday afternoon, after brief services at the residence, the remains were laid away in Longview cemetery.

Slight Fire in West McCook.

The barn and outbuildings adjoining owned by Jacob Steinmetz in West McCook were destroyed by fire, Tuesday afternoon, entailing a loss of about $100.00. The wooden part of a sod house nearby was also burned. The fire department, both carts, made the run, and succeeded in holding the fire to the above described buildings. A pretty stiff breeze prevailed at the time.

Foot Comfort.

In hot weather if your feet perspire, blister, swell, burn, smart or ache, McCook's Foot Powder will immediately ease these summer foot distresses. Will bring quick relief to your tired and burning feet. 25c.

Special Excursion Rates to Black Hills.

On August 28th, only, the Burlington will sell round trip tickets to Hot Springs, S. D., for $10. To Deadwood and Lead, S. D., $15. Remember this rate is in effect only the one day.

For Sale Cheap.

Set of 17 vol. International Encyclopedias, complete up to date. Can be seen at the Bee Hive. A bargain.

They first will visit his brother George in Oklahoma, then Iowa relatives, thence to the Pacific coast via the Canadian Pacific likely. McCook loses a valuable family in the Colemans. May their success and satisfaction in the northwest be all they hope and expect.

Death of an Aged Woman.

Mrs. Manda Levis, mother of Frank Boyd, the West Dennison street liveryman, passed away, Monday night about 11 o'clock, the cause of her death being catarrhal dysentery. She was 70 years of age. Services were held at the home in South McCook, Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, by Rev. A. F. Green of the Baptist church, after which burial was made in Riverview cemetery. [AMANDA C. LEVIS was born in 1833. Died August 20th, 1906. Was the mother of two children, Frank Boyd of McCook, Nebraska, and Mrs. Leonard Alexander of Menden, Okla. Three brothers and one sister survive her in Illinois and one brother in Oklahoma. Services were held at the son's home in South McCook.]

Reputed Their Instructions.

The delegation from Red Willow county, says the Lincoln State Journal, did not follow its instructions, three of them voting for Brown and four for Rosewater. The delegates were: W. T. Henton, J. E. Kelley, R. W. Devoe, J. E. Ryan, Charles Skalla, C. W. Mallory, E. S. Hill. It is said that three of them went to Lincoln on tickets, and four of them on passes. Rosewater in the late county convention got three votes to 79 for Norris Brown, out of a total of 130 votes.

Do Not Cut Corns.

Cutting a corn is often a painful and sometimes even dangerous proceeding. If you have corns which are worrying you, get rid of them in the right way, the easy way, the painless way—use McCook's Lightning Corn Cure, the corn remover that does the work well. 10c at McCook's.

The Recollection of Quality

long after the price is forgotten, applies to our tools, a few dollars difference on the price is no object to a careful farmer. He knows there is nothing gained by purchasing an inferior article at a low price. McCOOK HARDWARE CO.

Stewart-Yarger Wedding.

Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Yarger, Miss Edna May Yarger and Mr. Harry Dulaney Stewart were happily wedded in the presence of a well-wishing company of near relatives and intimate friends.

Rev. M. B. Carman officiated in the use of the impressively beautiful ring ceremony. A little niece of the bride, Elonia Yarger of Scottsbluff, Nebraska, was the ring-bearer. Mrs. George H. Thomas was at the piano in the wedding march.

The ceremony was consummated under an arch effect in white and green, with draperies of point de sprit, palms and asparagus ferns.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a handsome crepe de chene over white taffeta, trimmed with medallions of French point and valenciennes lace, skirt en train. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. Her going-away dress was of green chiffon cloth, with white hat and green trimmings.

A wedding dinner in four courses followed the warmly-bestowed congratulations.

The young couple were handsomely remembered in wedding gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart departed on No. 13, following morning, for Salt Lake City, Utah, on a wedding trip, stopping briefly in Denver en route.

They will be at home to their friends in McCook after September 15th.

Relatives present from away were C. W. Stewart of Alma, Neb., father of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Yarger of Scottsbluff, Neb.

These estimable and sterling young folks embark upon the sea matrimonial with the heartiest congratulations and warmest well-wishes of the community.

Was a Record Breaker.

Monday was a record-breaker in the money order department of the McCook postoffice, almost $2,500 worth of money orders being issued during the day. A most remarkable feature of the day was the issuing of about $2,000 worth of international orders destined for Greece. The number of orders issued totaled 80. McCook being the only international money order office in this part of the state does quite a business in foreign orders, especially since so many foreigners are engaged in railroad work in this part of Nebraska.

A Surprise.

Visitors to the rapidly rising new opera house are simply astonished at the bigness of Mr. Bixler's enterprise. McCook is fortunate in at 69c apiece they are as cheap as finding them. Other's white parasols priced at $1.50 are not a bit better. The Thompson D. G. Co. getting so large an auditorium.

Diarrhoea Attacks Should be Quickly Stopped.

The quicker you put a stop to diarrhoea or summer complaint, the better, as they are very weakening. McCook's Blackberry Balm quickly stops diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera morbus and summer complaint. 25c at McCook's.
