

The McCook Tribune.

TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR

MCCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 31, 1906

NUMBER 14

Called and Accepted.

Last Sunday the members of the McCook Baptist church unanimously extended a call to Rev. A. F. Green, who has been temporarily filling the pulpit for several weeks. Rev. Green formerly held a pastorate in a Chicago church, but for the past three years has been doing special work for Nebraska Baptists.

His efforts here during the interim since Rev. Helmes' departed have been very satisfactory—hence the unanimity of the call.

The reverend gentleman is also giving play to his administrative and executive ability by taking steps to have a sidewalk and stone steps added to the physical features of the church property, besides active measures in behalf of the church's finances.

THE TRIBUNE expects and hopes the church has entered upon an era of growth and prosperity along all lines of activity.

Arlington's Comedians.

On Monday next, Sept. 3rd, the well known favorites, Arlington's Comedians, will open a three nights engagement at the opera house—opening play will be the great 4 act comedy drama "Sandy Bottom," it will be followed by "The Princess of Patches," and "Leah, The Forsaken." Now up-to-date specialties between acts. No waits. Moving pictures of the San Francisco earthquake. Everything staged and costumed in the most elaborate manner. This company is well and favorably known to the public of McCook and their appearance is a guarantee of first-class plays at popular prices. Carry a company of 16 people. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats now on sale at McConnell's drug store.

Mr. Skalla Explains.

McCook, Neb., Aug. 25.—To the Editor of The State Journal: So much has been said in the papers about Red Willow county delegates bolting instructions, that in justice to those who did not bolt and also to the voters of the county, the following absolute facts should be made known.

In our county convention on July 21 a vote on senator was taken. Out of a total of 130 Norris Brown received seventy-nine, Rosewater three, Judge G. W. Norris somewhere in the thirties and Meiklejohn a few. Brown had an absolute majority of twenty-eight over all others.

The seven delegates elected were: W. T. Henton, Danbury; J. E. Kelley, McCook; R. W. Devoe, McCook; Chas. Skalla, Indianola; E. S. Hill, Indianola; James Ryan, Indianola; C. W. Mallory, Cambridge.

Six of these were at the convention, all but Ryan. Three, Henton, Kelley, Devoe, jumped instructions and disregarded the will of the people that sent them. Henton was chairman of the delegation and claimed the right to and did vote the absentee for Rosewater.

The other three, Skalla, Hill, and Mallory, voted for Brown solid on every one of the six ballots and would be voting for Brown yet if a deadlock were in progress. They would never have left Brown, and they voted for Brown also at the county convention on the preference vote. They were entitled to one-half vote of the absentees, but did not deem it worth while to make a fight for one-half vote in the convention. It is needless to add that the four Rosewater votes were cast for Miles on both ballots for governor, while the three Brown votes went to Sheldon both times. The above statements are absolute facts.

Yours respectfully,
CHAS. SKALLA.

Interesting and Instructive.

Miss Daisy Davidson gave a very interesting and instructive address, Tuesday evening, in the Baptist church, on the temperance question. She represents the "Y" branch of the W. C. T. U. As an elocutionist she is worth while in a high degree. Her description of the meeting of the town board was putting the question in a very practical light. It should have been heard to be appreciated fully.

The W. C. T. U. ladies seek the cooperation of all persons who are with them in the battle against the liquor traffic.

This meeting will be held in Beaver City, Wednesday and Thursday next, Sept. 5th and 6th. A special car will be attached at McCook to No. 2, Wednesday morning, and a large delegation from McCook Woodmen should attend this log-rolling. There is quite a strong sentiment for the location of the next meeting at McCook and our Woodmen should see to it that a proper effort is made to have that accomplished. They will be strongly supported in the matter by the citizens of McCook.

The boys take with them a drill team, a baseball team and a Royal Neighbor organization, expecting in all to number about 75 people.

Additions to the Firm.
