Liquid Koal Used as a Lice Killer

When diluted with water in the proportion of one part Liquid Koal to fifty parts water it is the best Lice Killer on the market. It is not expensive to use because it forms a perfect emulsion with water when mixed in this proportion.

Worms in Hogs

The hog is more infected with intestinal worms than any other domestic animal. These worms are created by impure accumulations along the intestinal track and generally produced by poorly digested food. The nature of the hog and his manner of eating renders him more susceptible of intestinal worms than any other animal. Under the present domesticated conditions he is not allowed the use of his natural instincts to obtain the necessary element that would destroy these intestinal parasites. Being shut up in a pen, he is not allowed to follow the dictates of his nature. The hog that is wormy can neither grow nor thrive, for the reason that the worms destroy all the effects of the nutrition furnished in the feed. Liquid Koal put in the drinking water in the proportion of one quart to a barrel and given them twice a week will destroy all intestinal worms and keep them free from their formation and multiplication. It strengthens the appetite and tones up the system.

Something You Ought to Know

A parasite is an organism which, during its life, lives within or on the surface of an animal for the purpose of existence, and from which it receives its nutrition and nourishment. The state or condition in which the animal is kept either hastens or retards the multiplication of them. They are injurious in at least three ways:

- 1.—As direct agents of loss from animal economy.
- 2.—As carriers of other forms of parasites.
- 3.—As carriers of the micro-organisms of infectious diseases.

Liquid Koal

LIQUID KOAL is a black, oily liquid. Liquid Koal is a liquid soap and will form a perfect emulsion with water.

LIQUID KOAL is endorsed by the leading veterinaries of the United States and by many of the State Agricultural Colleges and many of the Experimental Stations which are conducted by the government.

Science

teaches that no medicine ever healed a wound; that nature performs the healing process and medicine can only assist nature in doing her work, not only in healing wounds but also in throwing off diseases.

Those versed in medicine are aware that three-fourths of the money spent for medicine is virtually thrown away, either because of the improper use or the purchase of an improper article. But in purchasing Liquid Koal from any of our dealers you take no chances. If for any reason it does not treat successfully the following list of diseases, just go back to the dealer and get the price you paid; there will be no questions asked. We stand the loss and it costs the dealer nothing.

Following is a list of the diseases that Liquid Koal cures:

Hog Cholera	Lung Worm	Swine Plague
Intestinal Worms	Cow Cholera	Tuberculosis
Anthrax	Black Leg	Abortions in Cows
Corn Stalk Disease	Colic	Glanders
Distemper	Pink Eye	Influenza
Foot Rot	Tape Worm	Lung Fever
Texas Fever	Poll Evil	Chicken Cholera
Roup	Thrush	Lock Jaw
Blind Staggers	Catarrh	Farcy
Mange	Bots	Scours
Nasal Gleet	Inflammation of Bowls	Scratches

LIQUID KOAL acts as an appetizer and vitalizer.

Two Things to Remember

- Use LIQUID KOAL to destroy parasites on the outside.
- Use LIQUID KOAL to destroy parasites on the inside.

PUBLIC LIBRARY NOTES.

Victor Hugo (1802-85) is most highly regarded in France as a poet and dramatist, while in foreign countries his novels are best known and hold the highest place.

Hugo was the son of a soldier of the first Republic and a lady who was a royalist of the most enthusiastic type. The son therefore showed a blend of the two traditions, whose clash has made France what it is today. His most striking quality was his wealth of imagination. His creations were always imaginative—sometimes superbly so and sometimes grotesquely so—but his thoughts and imagery were always vast and gigantic.

Hugo's second trait was his egotism, which prevented him from having the saving grace of humor. He thought himself almost more than mortal, and he lived in an atmosphere of hero-worship.

Hugo's novels read like prose-epics—overwhelming and at times almost convulsive in their effort to give expression to his tremendous imaginings. One of the most striking of them is "Ninety three". The book is a great drama of the breaking out of the French Revolution, a time when every passion was at its height and was exhibited with utter unrestraint.

With such a theme Hugo was perfectly at home. He revels in the conflict of the two great forces of repression and revolt which made that period memorable.

If you have any books, new or old, you want to give to the library, just let the librarian know, either by coming to the library or calling up "Red 233", and we will gladly send for them.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisons or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable. A booklet of extracts from eminent, medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
