Thomas J. Pate, whose illness was announced in last week's paper, died on Thursday morning of this week. Funeral services were held at the farm house just northeast of the city, Friday afternoon. Rev. A. F. Green conducting same, burial in Riverview cemetery following.

Deceased has been for many years a resident of this neighborhood and he will be remembered by all as an honorable and upright citizen. His death is most sincerely deplored by everyone.

The wife and children in this great sorrow and loss have the keenest sympathy of the community.

Thos. Pate was born in Butler County, Penna., July 23, 1840. Died November 7th, 1906. He was married to Ellen Winthrop the 12th of May, 1867. To this union three children were born all of whom are living. He with his family moved from Illinois to McCook, in 1886, where he has resided ever since. He was a soldier of the Civil war, enlisting in the 94th Ill. Infantry, and served the full term. He leaves a wife, one daughter and two sons, to mourn his loss. For years Mr. Pate has been an honored member of the Baptist church of McCook, and served a term as deacon of the new church.

Kilties On Parade.
At the special request of Manager Bixler of the Bixler opera house, where the Kilties are to play November 13th, afternoon and evening, the Kilties will make a short parade in the afternoon. The Kilties will be headed by their giant drum major Donald MacDonald, who stands 7 feet 2 inches high.

Next in importance is the Clan Frazer troupe of Scottish pipers. Mr. Frazer is one of the greatest pipers in the world. Not the least either in their ability to be heard is the Kilties famous bugle and drum corps. The bugles and drums with pipes furnish the music for the forty stalwart Scotch Canadian laddies, who in full kilties regimentals, plaids and Glengarry bonnets, follow.

The Kilties never play when on parade; their fine music is reserved for the concerts which are to be given at the Bixler opera house.

The Shawl.

Through the centuries of ceaseless contriving of women's garments, the most primitive one ever invented, has kept its place. The shawl is a very good outer garment, in fact one of the best. It is a good slumber robe in afternoons, a good extra coverlet at night. It is the baby's best friend at all times, and is sometimes used to wrap the bread sponge in over night. No intimate forenoon calling between neighbors could be maintained at all without the shawl. Long live the shawl! Thompson's assortment is the best, $1.75 to $3.00.
