TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR | McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 23, 1906 | NUMBER 26

Revival Stirs Fremont.

Special Dispatch to the World-Herald.

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 17—The union evangelistic campaign in this city led by the noted evangelist, Rev. M. H. Lyon, is becoming the chief center of interest. The big tabernacle seating more than 2,000 is thronged each night. A chorus of two hundred voices, led by Mr. J. D. Stentz and a fine orchestra, are a great attraction. Mr. Stentz has an exceptionally fine baritone voice and his solos are much enjoyed. Last evening a special excursion on the Northwestern brought in a full train load of people from Blair and other eastern towns. Mr. Lyon is a university man of ripe scholarship and was for several years a Chicago pastor. All classes in the community are being interested in the meetings.

Mr. Lyon will be in McCook, January 6th to February 3rd.

Died From His Injuries.

A telegram received from Mr. Emerson Hanson, this morning, announces the death of his father-in-law, Mr. Joseph W. Parks, in Newcastle, Calif., Thursday morning of this week, from injuries received on Monday last in an explosion of a car heater. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson will pass through McCook, Sunday or Monday, on their way back presumably to Bushnell, Ill., with the remains, for interment beside the wife who preceded him to the spirit-land about a year since.

The tenderest sympathy of all goes out to Mrs. Hanson in the sad and tragic death of her beloved father, whose sweet character was the admiration of all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Cameras and Kodaks.

Before you could walk you were interested in pictures and your interest has lasted to this day. This is a universal trait, it is part of life itself. Had you had a camera in your youth it would have made this a better and more beautiful world to you. Picture making enlarges existence, developes the artistic faculties and is educational in a variety of ways. Remember the boy or girl this year with a camera.

L. W. McConnell, Druggist.

Colored Bears.

The hunters have been unusually successful this season in getting all the different colors of bears. Bear skins in brown, navy, gray, red, and green are new "getable" for $2.00 a yard at Thompson's and the white will be here in a day or two. All colors in bear skin coats at $3.00 each.

Turkeys Wanted.

I am in the market for all the turkeys, ducks and geese also chickens that I can get at the highest price the market will afford. Bring the turkeys in a week or ten days before Thanksgiving so it will give me time to get them to market. Don't forget, but see me before you sell your poultry.

M. Walsh.

An Interesting Item.

Long coats for children and misses at $2,25 to $7.50; for ladies $6.00 to $16 50; children's bear coats $3.00; and many eiderdown and other children's coats as low as 35c each; can be secured at Thompson's.

Mrs. Jennie Palmer of Hastings is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ernest DeWitt for over the holidays.

Ed Fitzgerald and family had a little scare, one morning this week, caused by a superheated stovepipe. The damage was slight, however.

Mrs. H. A. Beale went down to Lincoln, Monday morning on 2, to be with her sister Mrs. T. L. Parks for two weeks.

Mrs. John Stilwell was called to Kansas, Wednesday night, by fatal illness of her mother, who died two hours before her arrival home.

A Happy Wedding.

Mr. Edward J. Kates of Plattsmouth, and Miss Lillie Campbell of our city were united in marriage, last evening, at the home of Dispatcher and Mrs. T. B. Campbell under the happiest auspices in the presence of about fifty admiring and well-wishing neighbors, friends and relatives.

The ceremony was performed in the arch of the swell window in the back-parlor, the wedding party approaching to the music of the wedding march from Mendelssohn's Lohengrin, with Miss Ruth Wiehe at the piano.

The ring ceremony with Rev. G. B. Hawkes as celebrant, was used. Little Mary Boyle was the pretty ring bearer.

The bride was prettily gowned in white wash chiffon trimmed with valenciennes lace edging and insertion, with a handsome and elaborate yoke effect, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

The parlor decorations were in white and green, chrysanthemums and smilax in drapery effects. The wedding station was done in similar colors in a grill effect. The dining-room colors were scarlet and white, red and white carnations, the floral utilities and scarlet wedding-bells suspended by ropes of smilax adding appropriate form and tint.

Dainty refreshments were served after the ceremony, Mrs. C. H. Boyle presiding at the dining-table, assisted by Mrs. H. C. Clapp, Mrs. Albert McMillen and Miss Mokko. During the serving Miss Ruth Wiehe played several piano selections and Mr. Roswell Cutler gave a vocal number.

The young folks were handsomely remembered with gifts.

They will leave for Lincoln on Saturday morning, to remain in the capital city until Tuesday, when they will proceed to Plattsmouth where a cosily-furnished home is awaiting, and where they will be at home to their friends after January 1st.

The wedding occurred on the 25th anniversary of the marriage of the bride's parents, who were doubly felicitated on that account.

Among the guests were the brother and wife of Mr. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell of Wray, Colo.

They Pleased Everybody.

The Players' club's first appearance, Monday evening, in the Bixler, in "Cast Up By the Sea," was a wholesome and enjoyable success. They were complimented by a large, sympathetic and appreciative audience, and the verdict is one of general satisfaction and pleasure.

The cast was well taken. There was a notable absence of prompting. The players had the presentation well in hand, and everything passed off with a smoothness often lacking in quite pretentious professional companies appearing here,—in fact the club is composed throughout of splendid amateur talent as is clearly set out by the following

The element added by a delightful, tuneful orchestra was not by any means inconsiderable.

An Evening With Dickens.

A unique entertainment will be given in Bixler's opera house, Friday evening, November 30th. It will be a Dickens revival. Let everybody turn out, and make this a real revival of good literature.

The Tribune is pained to learn of the death of Mrs. E. E. Rogers at her home, two miles south of McCook, yesterday afternoon, after a short illness. Fuller particulars and abituary will be given next week.

The funeral will occur, tomorrow afternoon, burial in Riverview cemetery.

[Margret Ellen Crawford was born in Poweshiek county, Iowa, May 20, 1863.

A True Accident.

It occurred on Wednesday of this week and the date will be remembered by the leading character in the affair. She got two cents a pound more in trade for her butter than the butter houses offered her in cash. She took it all out in Fleishers German knitting yarn at 35 cents per skein and later learned that the same yarn is sold every day for 25c a skein at The Thompson D. G. Co.

Essay on Teeth.

We all have teeth. That is, sometime or other we do. Teeth are of various kinds, some are white, some are yellow and some are hollow.

Gold teeth are planted, but they do not grow. It would be hard to get along without teeth; girls sould not chew gum without them; cows would not care to stand in the shade without teeth. Gold fish should have gold teeth, but they do do not.

Hens do not have teeth at all, because they are no good to lay eggs with.

We do not always know what to do with an aching tooth, but for a Sweet Tooth, go to
