

Big Bargain Week.

During the week of December 21st to 28th inclusive, The Nebraska State Journal will accept $3 from mail subscribers for the whole year of 1907, without Sunday, or $4 with Sunday. The regular price is $4 and $5. This cut price is only good during this Bargain week, and all you have to do is to mail your remittance to the State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., during that time, and you will receive the paper the whole year of 1907. Such a cut price is possible on account of large savings made by taking solicitors off the road. Instead of paying out railroad fare, hotel bills and other expenses, these savings are given to our subscribers direct by this big bargain offer. The coming session of the legislature will be the most interesting one ever held in the history of the state, and no matter what your politics are you should read The State Journal at this time. Reforms will be made in our present laws, reforms that interest you in dollars and cents. No matter what other papers you are taking, during such a session of the legislature you should be a Journal reader. Write a postal asking for a sample copy. The Journal stands for all that is best for Nebraskans and wants you to feel that whatever is for the public good is for its good. There is a new deal in Nebraska governmental affairs, and you should be watching every move. Farmers and all the other producers of the state are vitally interested in what will be done at Lincoln this winter. Remember the Bargain Week—December 21st to 28th. The Journal is the paper for you.

DANBURY.

S. W. Stilleboer has sold 200 acres of his land to Mr. Saunders. Consideration $13,000.

A brother-in-law of Mrs. T. E. McDonald is here visiting relatives.

Alta Morgan and Ethyl Andrus were McCook visitors last Saturday.

D. C. Boyers have moved into their new house.

S. H. Stilleboer and son have been visiting his brother Foster in Bartley this week.

Mrs. Ed Eno is convalescent.

Esther and Joe Dolph went to Wilsonville Saturday, to visit their sister, Mrs. Peacock.

The brick layers are about ready to commence on the second story of our new school house.

J. E. Noe has his house about ready to move into.

Word was received from the Fields family last week. They seem to like the country near South Bend.

Whooping cough is about broken up in this neighborhood.

Myra Poole and Beth McDonald went to Lebanon Saturday on a visit, returning Monday.

Mr. Enins of Alma, Neb., was in Danbury last week seeing how the new school house was progressing. He went up to the city of Marion to lay out the place for the new bank.

Robinson & Robinson's new brick building is about completed. They have put cement walks in front of it, being the first in town.

At the show last week those taking prizes are as follows: Ada Hethcote, child's prize; Mrs. Nellie Dolph, the lady's prize; Mrs. M. M. Young, prize for getting the most soap boxes. We understand that quite a number of the boys are feeling quite bad about the loss of their money in voting, as the prizes were not the best.

TALK OF BIG MERGER.

Burlington May Become a Part of the Great Northern.

"It is rumored that James J. Hill is contemplating a complete merger of the Burlington with the Great Northern road, involving the loss by the Burlington of its name and its identity. At present the Burlington works in close relation with the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific. Vice-President Willard said that he did not believe that a merger was contemplated. President Harris is out of the city."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 19.—The Bee says today:

"Within one week the equity which the Northern Pacific now holds in the Burlington will pass into the hands of the Great Northern and within fifteen days the Burlington and Great Northern will be merged into one vast system, with James J. Hill in control.

"This statement was made to a reporter for the Bee this morning by a man close to the official family of the Hill roads who has just returned from Chicago, where the intricate operations of his gigantic transaction are now being perfected. He makes the statement without reservation.

"For prudential reasons this man extracted the promise his name would not be used in this connection.

"So far as the lines of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Burlington are concerned, these three roads lack but one little link now of being, in fact one great system. When the short cut from Billings to Great Falls, Mont., is completed, the unification will be consummated. The western terminus of the Burlington is Billings, where it meets the Northern Pacific. A line has been in process of construction for some time from Billings to Great Falls, where the Great Northern runs on its way to the coast.

"This line will soon be finished, and when it is, the three great railroads will be joined and merged, physically, into one vast system, but, the federal government objecting, the Northern Pacific will not be named in the union."
