REMEMBER LYON REVIVAL MEETINGS JANUARY 6th TO FEBRUARY 3rd

WORTH THE MONEY.

Performance At The Opera House of High Merit.

The theater-going public of Shawnee, who were intrepid enough to brave the threatening weather and witness the rendering of "Miss America" by the Irma Opera Company at the opera house last night, were rewarded by a musical and intellectual treat such as one is seldom permitted to enjoy outside of the metropolitan play houses. As a comic opera "Miss America" is among the best of its kind, and the company playing it is far above the average of the traveling opera troupes. The leading lady has a clear soprano voice of rare scope and remarkable sweetness, and her every appearance was the signal for enthusiastic plaudits from pit to gallery. When in response to an encore she sang, "The Last Rose of Summer" and the full range and power of her magnetic voice rang out in the simple notes of the familiar old air, the entire audience sat spellbound, and during the interludes you could plainly hear the ticking of a watch so great was the hush which had fallen on her hearers. The leading man won his way to the hearts of the audience, by his sunny smile and graceful bearing, almost before he had spoken a line, and afterwards with his fine base voice heightened their appreciation of his merits.

The specialties were good, probably the greatest amusement being induced by the humorous rendition of "Katrina" a German character, by a diminutive little blonde, whose eyes danced with mischief and merriment and who got into her part as though it were made for her. The best musical number of the evening was easily the singing of "Violet," and in a certain announcement last night it was stated that this pleasing number would be repeated. This company is an exceptionally strong one, and no one interested in operatic music should miss the opportunity of hearing them. The Shawnee Herald, Sept. 19, Opera house, Dec. 15, 1906.

Turkeys Wanted.

I am in the market for all the turkeys, ducks and geese also chickens that I can get at the highest price the market will afford. Bring the turkeys in a week or ten days before Thanksgiving so it will give me time to get them to market. Don't forget, but see me before you sell your poultry.

M. WALSH.

C. H. MEEKER went up to Denver, Friday last, on 3 on business.

MRS. F. C. FULLER entertained the whist club, Tuesday evening.

MRS. W. H. BAKER was hostess to a company of lady friends, Monday.

MRS. A. L. KNOWLAND arrived home, last Friday night, from Bushnell, Ill.

MISS EDITH WAITE returned to Lincoln, Monday morning, on train No. 2.

WILL HUBER's mother and sister are here from Missouri to make their home with him.

MRS. FRANK FREELOVE departed, Wednesday night, for Redfield, Kansas, on a visit to her sister.

MRS. W. E. HEFELBOWER went down to Inavale and Red Cloud, Monday, on train 2, on a visit to relatives.

JAMES M. BRADY departed, last Saturday morning, for Illinois, on a visit to his former home, the first visit in years.

MRS. R. M. DOUGLASS returned home, last Friday night, on No. 3, from her Broken Bow visit. The baby was much better.

REV. G. B. HAWKES will go to Omaha tonight to observe the progress and genius of the Torrey revival in progress there.

ROBERT ALLEN arrived home from Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday on No. 1, summoned by the serious illness of his brother George.

J. HARRY WADE of Driftwood precinct left, Tuesday night, for Chicago and Galesburg, Ill., to visit his mother, other relatives and friends.

MISS ROWENA HOFER of Beardstown, Ill., arrived in the city, Wednesday, and will be her uncle's guest, Barney Hofer, until after the holidays.

GEORGE, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allen, is very ill with typhoid fever. His condition has been very precarious, but at this writing is more favorable.

CONGRESSMAN NORRIS departed on No. 6, last Friday night, for Washington, D. C., and was on hand Monday morning, at the opening of the short session of the 59th congress.

MR. AND MRS. J. R. MCCARL departed, Monday morning, on No. 2, for Washington, D. C., where he will assume his duties as private secretary to Congressman Norris during the present session of congress.

Nebraska Wheat Goes North.

Minnesota millers claim that they use spring wheat only for Minnesota patent flour. Many retailers and bakers have heard this claim so often that they believe the statement. This is a false belief fastened upon our people by knockers against Nebraska flour. This fact was clinched last week by indisputable evidence, for two grain companies of Omaha had orders for 600,000 bushels of Nebraska winter wheat to be shipped to Minneapolis mills. Doubtless this winter wheat will be made into flour and part of it, at least, shipped back here and sold as Minnesota patent flour, made from northern hard wheat or spring wheat, as they are pleased to call it. Stand up for Nebraska, push Nebraska's products, patronize home industry and you will be directly benefited thereby.—Retail Merchants Journal.

Something New and Rare.

Here is a clipping from The Florist Journal: Gloire De Lorraine has created a commotion in the flower world that no other plant ever approached, it is without question a decidedly sensational variety. It is always in bloom. We also have a nice lot of Cyclamen, Begonias, Ferns etc. We have a few Chinese Sacred Lilly bulbs left; plant them now and they will bloom for Christmas. McCook Greenhouse, phone 91.

Don't Grasp the Humor.

THE TRIBUNE fails to fully grasp the humor of The Republicans position on the water works question. The people of McCook are not the owners of the water works—and hence are only interested in getting what they pay highly for. The making good rests with the company not with the people or the city, at least not until there is a transfer of title and property on a proper and equitable basis.

Rent the Bixler For Revival.

Those in charge are pleased to announce that they have rented the Bixler opera house for the Lyon revival meetings, January 6th to February 3rd. This action will be generally approved—as the tabernacle idea could not be popular in mid-winter.

Try the Mild "Examiner."

They are putting out a new brand of cigars at the Grigg's cigar factory. It is a mild, delightful article. Try one. 11-16-06

Perkins-McCray Wedding.

John A. Perkins and Mrs. Pearl McCray, both of our city, were united in marriage by Rev. A. F. Green of the Baptist church, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The ceremony was performed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will South in the Rishel building, in the presence of a few friends of the contracting parties. They will make their home in West McCook.

Thompson-Anderson Nuptials.

Don L. Thompson and Miss Gerda M. Anderson, both of Grant precinct, this county, were happily wedded, Thursday of last week, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson of that precinct. Elder H. H. Berry of McCook officiated. The bride is the esteemed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson, highly respected residents of Grant precinct, the groom the sterling son of Ex-Treasurer O. L. Thompson of the old guard. The young couple departed on No. 6, the same night, for Omaha and other points in eastern Nebraska, to be absent about two weeks on a wedding trip, after which they will settle down in the home precinct with the well-wishes of everybody.

"Dick's Dilemma."

The Players' club are now adding the finishing touches to their second production, "Dick's Dilemma," a snappy farce-comedy which is bound to please. Their second appearance is booked for the Bixler opera house, Friday evening, Dec. 21st. The play has gone plenty in it, with wholesome comedy—"un-galore" The company is handling the production vigorously and effectively and an evening of clean and enjoyable amusement is in store for McCook's theatergoers. The success of their initial appearance will be more than duplicated—it will be excelled.

"A Penny For Your Thoughts!"

Yes sir, just as we guessed—"What to get your affectionate mother for Christmas." We suggest a good warm shawl. Some are buying furs. A modest gift is a pair of fur-top undressed kid mittens. Those warm knit Newport scarfs aren't bad either. We can show you anything that women wear, or men, boys and girls. Made up or by the yard, and our services are at your command for your Christmas wants. No trouble to show goods—that's how we sell them. The Thompson Dry Goods Co.

Business Men Will Contribute.

THE TRIBUNE has hopes that the viaduct and crossing question will yet be equitably and satisfactorily settled at the present location—south of Manhattan street—and on terms fair and possible to the city of McCook, the people of South McCook, those on the South Side, and to the Burlington company. And the business men of McCook are willing to contribute to that result.

Bell Social.

A bell social will be given by the Christian Endeavor at the Congregational church next Friday evening, to raise money for the church bell. Many unique features have been arranged for, and all, young and old, are urged to come. Admission 15 cents.

It arouses energy, develops and stimulates nervous life, arouses the courage of youth. It makes you young again. That's what Rocky Mountain tea will do. 35 cents, tea or tablets.

L. W. McCONNELL.

The President's Message

may be safely laid aside while we tell you that no nation on earth can supply you with blue flannel shirts and gray flannel shirts and green flannel shirts and other flannel shirts as economically and quickly as we. The whole balance of trade is largely in your favor at our store, $1.00 to $2.50.—The Thompson D. G. Co.

An Evening With Dickens.

An appreciative audience enjoyed an evening with Dickens at the Bixler, last Friday evening, and good reading doubtless received a stimulus in many McCook homes.

Congressman Norris entertained and instructed all, in his lecture on Dickens. A student of the great novelist and familiar by travel with many points made famous by Dickens' works, he was in a special position to say the final word, and it was gracefully said and well.

The social-literary-music period, while not realizing all expected on account of the departure for home of some of the audience, was worthful and suggestive of greater possibilities along that line in the future. There were readings from Dickens by Dr. S. C. Beach, and Mrs. F. W. Bosworth and several clever charades by Mrs. Bosworth—"Great Expectations" and "Sketch Book" being well done. Mrs. W. B. Mills played an effective piano number and Miss Hazey Hare and Mr. John Gaarde an appreciated violin-clarinet duo.

The stage was very effectively decorated for the occasion—the handsome garden scene of the opera house being utilized in connection with flowers, palms and appropriate furnishings, flags etc.

THE TRIBUNE hopes the future may have in store for McCook other such educational and uplifting affairs, and that the public library cause and good reading may prosper immeasurably.

Burial of Edward Hine.

The remains of Edward Hine were buried in Riverview cemetery, last Friday afternoon, from the Baptist church of our city of which deceased was a member. Services were conducted by Rev. A. F. Green at 1:30 o'clock.

Deceased was born 30 years ago in Indianapolis, Indiana. Died at Hastings, Colo., Monday, November 26th, 1906, death being the result of a fractured skull sustained in a fall from a scaffolding whereon he was working as a carpenter. Edward's mother died when he was about one year old and from that time until he reached man's estate he lived with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hine, well known to many TRIBUNE readers as one of the early settlers of this vicinity. He came to McCook with the Hines in 1883 and this was his home up until three years since.

CARD OF THANKS.

We are all very grateful to all the kind friends for assistance and sympathy in the burial of Edward Hine, and thus publicly acknowledge and express our appreciation therefor.

L. FLEISCHMAN AND FAMILY.

A Statement.

Through the work of the Dorcas society the debt on the parsonage of the Congregational church has been recently paid and the church now holds its entire property free from debt. In view of this fact the trustees and pastor of the church desire to take this opportunity to publicly thank all those who during the years of struggle have helped with their efforts and money to attain this much desired end. With its fine plant free from debt the church faces the future with hope and courage.

Actions Speak Louder

than words. When both actions and words give the same testimony, no one questions the sincerity. recent shoppers for dress skirts have left no doubt in our minds that our line is very superior in all points, and our alteration department most prompt and satisfactory. No charge for altering any of our skirts. Prices for Misses and ladies' skirts $2.00 to $6.75. The Thompson Dry Goods Co.

It Costs Nothing.

You will be pleased to receive this suggestion, that no article of personal wear is so gratifying to the feminine heart and therefore so pleasing for a gift, as furs. The bright kind, the right kind, the dressy kind, are found in greatest abundance at The Thompson Dry Goods Co's. $1.00 to $12.50.

Manager Bixler is corresponding with the Boston Ideal Opera Co. for two nights, December 28th and 29th. The booking of this attraction depends on the advance subscription of tickets, as the company requires a cash guarantee. They play "Mikado," "Mascotte" and "Fra Diavola." Everyone interested in first-class plays for McCook should push along this proposition.

The missionary society of the Congregational church will give a Kensington at the home of Mrs. O. M. Knipple, Monday afternoon, Dec. 10th, at 2:30 o'clock, where in an informal way, the members and their friends may meet Miss Wainwright, a returned missionary, who in native dress, will tell of her work in Japan. Any one interested, is cordially invited to be present.

From the gratifying words THE TRIBUNE hears from the rehearsals of the Players' club, the people of McCook will on Friday evening, December 21st, have the pleasure of hearing a farce-comedy in "Dick's Dilemma" of most enjoyable quality. The club has entered upon the preparation of this play with an earnestness and enthusiasm which spells success in capital letters.
