SPECIAL MEETINGS

Sunday 11 A. M., at Bixler Opera House, Conducted by Lyon and Stentz-- Four Churches Unite.

The grand union meetings for which plans have been made the past three months, will begin next Sunday, Jan. 6, at the Bixler opera house at 11 a. m., when Mr. Lyon will preach his first McCook sermon, and Mr. Stentz will sing and lead the large chorus. Four churches of McCook have united for these meetings, viz: The Methodist, Baptist, Congregational and Christian. These churches will discontinue their services except Sunday school, during the progress of the union meetings, and will unite their entire energy to the success of this union effort. Sunday the meetings will be held at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m., at both of which Mr. Lyon will preach. The week-day services will be held every night this week at 7:30. Each night the chorus will lead the singing, Mr. Stentz will sing a solo and Mr. Lyon will preach. All the services will be held at the opera house.

MILFORD H. LYON.

The executive committee met at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon, heard reports of the committees and made final plans. The reports showed all committees doing successful work and the promise that all will be ready by Sunday. It was evident that unity and oneness prevail among all the uniting churches.

This week the opera house is undergoing several changes to make it more convenient for this kind of meetings. A temporary platform is being built over the orchestra pit somewhat below the stage to accommodate the speaker and the two pianos, while upon the stage raised seats will be built for the chorus so that all can be seen from the audience. Mr. Lyon, the evangelist, is a man of wide experience. He was born in Iowa, graduated from the University of Iowa, for two years was president of Ellsworth college and for a number of years a successful pastor in Chicago. He has been in this work for seven years and has held eleven union meetings in Nebraska, including Crete, Columbus, Fremont and Blair. In each place he met with success. He is a Christian gentleman of true character. His methods are safe and sane, to which no honest person can object. He seeks not for numbers and external effect, but for lasting results. Mr. Stentz is a young man also from Iowa, he has a fine tenor voice and is an experienced chorus leader. He is also an earnest Christian and a true helper to Mr. Lyon.

Messrs. Lyon and Stentz will arrive in McCook Saturday on No. 1, and will make their headquarters at the Commercial hotel. Mr. Stentz desires to meet the members of the chorus at the M E church Saturday evening at eight. A cordial invitation is extended to all those who can sing to join the choir. Below will be found a list of the committees and the ushers: Executive Committee: Rev. A. F. Green, chairman, L. Lindemann, G. E. Thompson, Rev. G. B. Hawkes, A. Mc-

Mrs. C. H. BARRETT went down to Bartley, this morning, to see her daughter Mrs. Perry Gunther, who is ill. Mrs. E. E. MAGEE and little Bruce left for Ashland, yesterday morning, to make a short stay at Fairmont en route. R. B. SIMMONS was in Omaha and Council Bluffs, close of last and early part of this week, making purchases in his line.

Mrs. WALTER HICKLING and son Charlie arrived home, Monday night on No. 5, from a week's visit in Omaha and points east. W. E. HEFFELBOWER, high school assistant, expects to take up his residence on his irrigated tract near Loveland, Colorado, soon.

Death of Claude Bailey.

So far as human sympathy goes Traveling Engineer and Mrs. C. M. Bailey have a wealth of it from McCook friends in the sad death of their eldest son Claude, yesterday morning, about six o'clock.

Claude returned home from Denver, (where he has been attending the Sacred Heart school,) for the holiday vacation, badly run down physically from what the school authorities claimed was an attack of quinsy, but which local physicians and a summoned city expert said was diphtheria.

Heart complications caused his death in a few days despite every effort made for his relief.

CLAUDE EDWARD BAILEY was born in McCook, November 4th, 1891, died January 3rd, 1907.

Funeral services at Catholic church, Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Claude was a popular boy of parts and great promise. His untimely death is deeply and keenly deplored.

"The Mikado" and "La Mascotte."

The Boston Ideal Opera Co. gave McCook two enjoyable comic opera performances, end of last week, in the Bixler, Friday evening presenting "The Mikado" and Saturday evening the even more comic "La Mascotte." Both of these light operas are long on comedy—and so is the company—consequently they made a hit. The average McCook audience has a magnificent stomach for theatrical "fun," and they got it with some good music in the bargain.

All in all both appearances were quite satisfactory and pleasing. The company, augmented by five new members, will present a new opera in McCook, early in February, when they will doubtless be well received.

A Good Indian's Prayer.

Powers that be, make me sufficient to my own occasions. Teach me to know and to observe the rules of the game. Give to me to mind my own business at all times and to lose no good opportunity of holding my tongue.

When it is appointed for me to suffer, let me, so far as humanly be possible, take example from the dear well-bred beasts, and go away quietly to bear my suffering by myself.

Help me to win, if I win I may; but—and this, O powers, especially—if I may not win, make me a good loser. Amen. ROBERT FROTHINGHAM.

Mrs. Sharkey Gets Decree.

The petition of Mrs. Bernard J. Sharkey for a divorce from bed and board of her husband, who is an engineer on the Burlington, running from Lincoln to McCook, was granted by Judge Frost yesterday after almost two entire days had been spent in the introduction of testimony for both sides and lengthy arguments by counsel. In addition, she was given all the personal property and alimony of $2,000 as prayed, with the provision that in lieu of the alimony Sharkey might turn over to her all title in the homestead where they were living, and which was one of the matters over which the family had trouble which ultimately culminated in the divorce proceedings. Mr. Sharkey wanted to deed away the property, but the wife objected, and, so she alleged, he threatened to secure a divorce from her on that account. She started her action first however, but Sharkey at the hearing, evinced an emphatic desire that the divorce be made absolute instead of only partial, as was desired by the wife. The court found in favor of the wife however.—Lincoln Journal.

The twelfth annual ball by C.W. Bronson lodge No. 487, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, held in the Bixler opera house, Monday evening, was a great and characteristic success. There was a large and brilliant attendance—leaving nothing to be desired.

Prisoner Walks Out.

George Monroe, who has been occupying the county jail for a few weeks under sentence for securing money under false pretenses by circulating spurious paper money, walked out of jail, last Saturday, and has since made himself so scarce in this neighborhood that he has not and likely will not again be apprehended. Sheriff Peterson was absent at Geneva, attending a meeting of Nebraska sheriffs, and the jail was temporarily in charge of his father-in-law, George Fowler. After attending to matters about the jail Mr. Fowler in leaving failed to lock the outside door—he is not able to explain how—and the prisoner walked out. Red Willow county's jail seems to be hoodooed.
