AND IT'S ALL FOR YOU

In order that we make room for our new spring stock of goods, we are going to SACRIFICE THIS ENTIRE STOCK for what it will bring. Superlatives only can describe the exceptional values that you will be afforded in this great sale. However, we are striving as much as possible to constrain ourselves to bare, conservative facts without dilution on the immensity of the values offered. CLOTHING, OVERCOATS, UNDERWEAR, SHOES, CHINAWARE, LAMPS, GROCERIES, as well as every other line in the store will go at prices far below their actual value. It is expensive to carry them over another season, and we are going to give our customers the benefit of every item quoted below for a rare economical interest to all thrifty shoppers. The magnifying powers of our bargain offerings make your quarters look like dollars, or speaking more exactly, four dimes will be worth ONE DOLLAR.

Millionaire In Overalls

Few wage earners work any harder than does young millionaire Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr. Unlike some other young men who have come into this inheritance of vast wealth, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., is a man of strong principles and a firm believer in the nobility of labor. After his graduation from Yale University, the young man decided to equip himself with a thorough practical knowledge of every branch of railroad work. Donning a pair of OVERALLS AND JUMPERS, he worked side by side with ordinary mechanics, spending two years time in the motive power and civil engineering department of the New York Central Railway. He is an expert mechanic and has already perfected several inventions, which have come into use as improvements in railway equipment. One of the inventions is a device for use on locomotives which has the effect of facilitating the removal of the fire from the firebox of an engine, thus expediting the work of cleaning the firebox.

Mr. Vanderbilt wears the Rockford brand of overalls and jumpers. All other wage earners are now asking for Rockford union made, made in Rockford, Ill., for sale by all the leading dealers throughout the country. Here you can get it for about one half their regular prices.

Odd Trousers

is a thing that should attract your attention at this season of the year. Chances are two to one that your pants are shining in the seat today. Breeches are going cheap here. $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00 trousers at 99c per leg. —SEATS FREE. Think of it; only $1.98 per pair.

Frenzied Merchandising

HAS NO PLACE IN THIS HOUSE. OUR METHODS are always open and above board and all merchandise offered by this house is of the best make in the market. We never advertise $4.00 worth of goods for one dollar unless we can deliver the goods as advertised, and you had better scrutinize goods that are advertised in this way. Our methods and guarantees will stand year in and year out, and if you want "the most and best for the least," you will always come to our store.

Remember the Dates and Place

Shoes! Shoes! Shoes!

Every size, man's widths, up-to-date styles, all solid leather. Glad of our record, when we say to the best of our knowledge, that M. E. KNIPPLE has never offered you a shoddy shoe or a poorly made shoe; never knowingly told you a lie to sell a pair of shoes; never ran a "fake sale," "for we don't know how" during our business in McCook.

We Sold More Clothing and Overcoats

in the last three weeks than we ever sold in a year before in our lives, and we sold them at but little more than the cost of the making elsewhere. We have all kinds, we have the spring suits, made of Cheviots, Serges, etc., in plain black, brown and gray mixtures, Scotch and fancy mixtures, hand padded shoulders, hair cloth, selfretaining fronts, excellently tailored throughout.

THE Phelps county bar has resolved against passes in any form to anybody. And the Phelps county bar is not far off the track.

KENTUCKY—A synonym for whisky—seems to be gradually going dry. Out of a total of 119 counties 87 are entirely "dry"—prohibition.

FINANCIALLY, United States Senator Norris Brown will not feel very much at home in the "Millionaires Club" down in Washington. But a wealth of high purpose and honest endeavor is a rarer heritage than sheekles countless.
