A Dollar in Your Pocket

and more coming Saturday night—the chances are you will spend the dollar; probably for something you do not need, possibly for something you would be better off without. If that dollar was in the bank you would keep it and add to it until you had enough to make an investment so you could make more money.

Many of the larger bank accounts were started in a very small way and gradually builded to their present size.

Why not start an account with us and build up to where you can live on the interest of your investment? It's worth while trying—making a start helps—start today.

No. 14 is getting the finishing touches in the roundhouse, this week.

A car of freight was burned in the yard at Akron, Colo., last Sunday.

Three new SIs have recently been received at McCook, Nos. 2826, 2827, 2828.

C. M. Hollinger has been transferred from the blacksmith shop to firing the heater.

Chief Clerk M. Lawritson entertained his brother, C. Lawritson, early in the week.

The shopmen—or at least all of them that can be spared—are enjoying a holiday today.

A fire alarm about 12:30, Thursday morning, seems to have been without warrant in fact.

Engine 2704 was put out of commission at Akron, Thursday morning, in an accident at Akron.

Engineer L. P. Neilson drew thirty days for that Hastings yard accident with No. 1, recently.

Engine 1963 died up the road, the other day, and engine 2811 went up and brought her and train in.

Harry Ellison and crew brought No. 76 on thru to McCook, Tuesday, on account of shortage of crews.

Conductor Neal Beeler has been transferred to Oxford and Conductor J. C. Davis comes to brake out of McCook.

Engine 656, recently out of the shops here, has been sent east of the river, and is to receive attention in the Aurora shop.

Conductor John Morris returned to his run, last Saturday, and Conductor A. H. Bagley resumed his regular run on the McCook-Holdrege local.

Engine 314 an A class mill was brought in from down the road, Wednesday, in a freight train, and has been placed in the backshop for an overhauling.

An engine and several cars were badly wrecked at Roggen, Colo., yesterday morning. Charlie Emerson went up, last night, to direct the picking up of the wreckage.

Saturday night at Kenesaw, a 40 foot car of machinery was destroyed by fire. A car of merchandise was also damaged. The cars were part of train 77. Conductor M. S. Parks was in charge.

A car of coal went into the turntable, first of the week, damaging the gasoline engine badly. The man in charge of the engine had just left his little coop, or he would have been part of the debris.

The Lincoln State Journal announces the fact that Mrs. Eaton has commenced proceedings in divorce against her husband, the late Sup't Cornelius L. Eaton of the McCook division. Cruelty is the stated grounds.

An emigrant car was burned between here and Akron, close of last week. The emigrant had a close call for his life. Four head of horses and all his effects were burned. Conductor F. W. Rank was in charge of the train.

While shunting some cars in the yard, first of the week, three freight cars took the turntable track. Net results are a demolished car containing coal, a badly scrapped gasoline engine and cab. The turntable is being operated by hand power while the engine undergoes repairs.

Since Daniel Willard's visit last week, an order has been promulgated making the limit of speed at which S1 engines can be run at 50 miles an hour. The famous gray hounds P3s must not exceed 55 miles an hour. This means that last time, is lost forever, and that schedule time must be steadily maintained to bring the passenger trains into port on time.

DANBURY.

Mr. Doud and J. E. Noe were business callers at Marion, Tuesday.

Cliff Burbridge commenced clerking for Phillips Glien, last Saturday.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

Sup't G. H. Thomas left, this morning, for Chicago, to attend the national teachers' convention.

The public schools are having a vacation, today, Washington's birthday, in all grades.

The assembly program, Thursday morning, consisted of a piano solo by Mrs. G. B. Hawkes, a violin solo by Mr. Roswell Cutler, a vocal solo by Mr. F. M. Kimmel, and two chorus numbers by the high school choir.

The beginners' class, this week, drew about thirty new pupils to the school. It is expected that the number will be considerably augmented by those beginning next week.

An exceptionally pleasant session of the teachers' club was held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Tartsch, Monday evening, Misses Bullock and Abbott being hostesses. It was distinctively a social session. There was a brief music program with numbers by Mrs. G. H. Thomas, Miss Ludlow, Miss Rywell, Miss Lumry. But the chief item of entertainment was the contest in poetry instituted. Each guest or member was given a piece of paper at the top of which was done in water colors a picture, calculated to stimulate the pedagogic's muse. The one soaring to sublime heights—and in this instance it was a guest Miss Quick, county sup't—secured a dainty and artistic booklet composed of the twenty poetic efforts, bound in a hand-painted cover of appropriate design and superscription, a sort of Pedagogic Poetical Pickings. It was withal a unique affair, culinarily climaxed with a luncheon in three courses.

RED WILLOW.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer were out on Sunday to see Nellie Longnecker, who is able to be up.

The death of Ben D. Parry, at Marysville, Ky., has broken the last link connecting the writing of Uncle Tom's Cabin with the present. When Mrs. Stowe was collecting material for her book, she visited in Washington, Ky., and her host appointed Mr. Parry to escort her where she wanted to go, and to render assistance, and this becomes a Red Willow item of interest, because of this correspondent's personal knowledge of places mentioned in the book, and his acquaintance, as a child, with the family visited by Mrs. Stowe, and later with the gentleman who just died, at 86 years of age.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

Smith's sheller shelled corn for Oliver Mahon and Wilson Bro's, last week.

Making It Clear.

He—Will you marry me? She—No; I'm not a clergyman. He—Well, will you permit a clergyman to marry us? She—Yes; you to somebody else, and me to—well, somebody else.—London Fit-Bits.

Exhausting.

"They say early rising is very unhealthy."
"Of course. Many a woman has broken down her constitution getting her husband up in time for breakfast."
