ENGINEERS SCORE A GREAT SUCCESS

Large and Brilliant Gathering—Splendid Music—Fine Banquet Etc.

A triumph was the second annual ball of lodge No. 623, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers held in the Bixler opera house, Monday evening, March 18th, each feature from opening grand march to concluding "Home Sweet Home," coming off splendidly and without jarring incident or mar.

The large and brilliant company included many from all along the division, Denver and Akron on the west, Hastings, Oxford and other points east. Engineer and Mrs. F. W. Bosworth led the grand march, the couples more than enlivening the great ball.

The music was of the usual superb Pythian orchestra quality.

The banquet was spread on the large stage, its satisfactory details being in the hands of the wives of the engineers. Mrs. Walter Stokes had charge of the dining-room and Mrs. W. D. Burnett was supreme in the kitchen. This manner of serving refreshments in the same building in which the ball was held was approved by a liberal patronage, and other evidences of appreciation.

The decorations embraced a wealth of hunting of order colors, besides B. of L. E. banners and emblems, together with several mammoth "Old Glories."

C. M. Hollinger resigned, last week, as fireman of the steam plant.

C. W. Britt, storekeeper, has been out of the city, part of the week, on company business.

W. S. Perry, sup't bridges and buildings, was up from Lincoln, Tuesday, on business of his office.

Foreman Ralph Haggard of the Oxford roundhouse was in town, Saturday, on headquarters' business.

Robert Burns has resigned his storehouse position and is now employed on claims in Sup't Young's office.

Engineer Harry S. Gore was down from Denver and a pleased participant in the grand ball of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers No. 623, Monday night.

Gottlieb Orman is having a serious time with an injured foot. Some time since a box-car roof fell on his foot, mashing the member severely. This week it was discovered that a nail had penetrated the big toe just where it is attached to the foot.

R. F. D. No. 1.

Mrs. M. J. Stroud's mother is very ill. P. H. Blunck is working on the Christian ranch for a while.

R. D. Rodgers has gone to Milwaukee, Wis., with a carload of horses.

Eltha Downs returned, Saturday last, from visiting her sister at Minden.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Baumbach, Wednesday morning of this week.

Commissioner and Mrs. F. S. Lofton are parents of a fine boy—born on Tuesday night.

The prairie fire on the Hatfield ranch destroyed about 120 tons of hay on the Hatfield, Rogers and Bixler places.
