TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR

MCCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 31, 1907

NUMBER 1

THE MAY DAY FESTIVAL

By Children of the McCook Public Schools, Last Friday

WAS A MARKED SUCCESS

Better Weather Would Have Filled the Bixler - Splendid Audience Notwithstanding the Threatened Storm and Rain

The concert in the Bixler, last Friday evening, by the children of the McCook public schools was all that was expected and more. The full chorus, high school chorus, and grade numbers, notwithstanding it was announced the program would cover the regular music work of the year, were much enjoyed and appreciated, being given with commendable spirit and form.

The "Flower Girls" song by twelve girls was a notably pretty and effective number.

The soloists were all so warmly greeted that reappearances would only satisfy.

Miss Ruth Wiehe's solo, "In June," exhibited the sweetness of her voice very acceptably.

"Love Me, and the World is Mine," gave full expression to Miss Elsie Campbell's well developed vocal powers.

"Why," was very sweetly sung by little Gesuline Foley.

The duet, "Hark, the Meadow Lark," by little Adam Sinner and Amelia Brening, was well done and came in for much appreciation.

But the program was all enjoyed, and the scene of 300 school children banked on the stage was in itself an inspiring one—an effect heightened at the close by the unfurling of "Old Glory" and by colored lights.

The program was directed by Miss Budlong, supervisor of music.

Proceeds go toward the purchase price of a new piano for the new high school building.

A Lecture Course Secured.

The Tribune is pleased to announce that another lecture course has been secured for McCook by a committee of citizens embracing Rev. M. B. Carman, Rev. J. J. Loughran, J. R. McCarl, W. S. Bixler, F. M. Kimmell, G. H. Thomas, C. F. Heber, S. B. McLean and A. Barnett.

Five attractions have been selected—The Rooney Boys—a musical aggregation; The Cleveland Lady Orchestra; Laurant, a magician; Father Vaughn and Mr. Stuart, both lecturers.

Details and dates later.

Anniversary Plans.

The plans for the 25th anniversary celebration of the Congregational church on June 23-25 are progressing nicely. Word has been received from Rev. Geo. Dungan, the first pastor of the church, that he will be present; also from Deacon G. B. Nettleton, one of the first settlers of Red Willow Co., and first deacon of the church; and from Rev. W. J. Turner that they will be here. It is evident that this will be of great interest to all of the citizens of McCook.

FOR THOSE JUNE WEDDINGS.

Wedding gifts are more carefully chosen these days and partake of a more practical character than formerly. Our modern stock of pictures, china, bric-a-brac, etc., makes it easy to select suitable gifts. It is goods of this class that please best. They have beauty, durability, usefulness and intrinsic worth.

For wedding, commencement or any other gift occasion we can furnish articles that will please and at any price you wish to pay.

L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Twenty-Seventh Volume.

THE TRIBUNE enters the twenty-seventh year of its existence with this issue of the paper. Since September, 1883, the paper has been under its present management, an existence under one and the same management not equaled by any other newspaper in this section of Nebraska. It is doubtless one of the few business enterprises in McCook whose ownership and management have remained unchanged since the earliest days of McCook.

THE MAN HUNT STILL ON

There are no New Developments in the Spaulding Assault Case.—Mrs. Spaulding Improves.

Up to the time of our going to press, this (Friday) afternoon, there are no new developments in the Spaulding assault case.

Charles Nall, who was brought here from Grand Island, first of the week (Tuesday), has been released—the authorities feeling certain that he was not the party wanted.

Wednesday morning Sheriff Peterson departed for the northwest, to join a posse hunting the fiend north and west of North Platte. This fellow is said to be heading toward the Bad Lands and is considered by the authorities to be the right man—a criminal of great cunning and of skill in evading arrest and one whom it is very difficult to follow.

The rewards offered for the capture of the assailant now aggregate $1,000. Of this sum Red Willow county offers $200, Frontier county $100, and the $800 balance is made up by the family and individuals of that neighborhood.

Mrs. Spaulding's condition is reported as improved, and improving this morning, and the case is now regarded as growing more and more hopeful, a fact all will hail with greatest delight.
