THEIR TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Congregationalists of McCook Celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the City's Pioneer Church.

This has been a memorable week in the history of McCook Congregationalists, marking the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the church—the first established in the city. The formal organization date is July 2, 1882.

The three-days' celebration opened, last Sunday morning, with a sermon by Rev. W. J. Turner of Norfolk, pastor of the local church 1898-1901. It was one of his earnest, able and eloquent sermons, its burden being that the world is the Christian's—that he should possess it—which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by a good audience.

There was special music at this service, which was solemnly concluded with the celebration of the communion.

At seven in the evening there was a C. E. rally, with Mrs. E. E. Magee of Aurora, Neb., an early C. E. member, in charge. Subject, "C. E. past and present."

The regular evening service was addressed by Rev. George Dungan of Beemer, this state, first pastor of the local church.

Special music by the choir and a solo by Mrs. C. W. Britt were features of this service.

Monday evening was given over to the relation of historical accounts of the early church and to a reception to the former pastors and members and friends of the church. There were talks by G. B. Nettleton, of Colorado, one of the early settlers of Red Willow county, first deacon of the McCook church and first sup't of its Sunday-school. J. F. Forbes, F. M. Kimmell, T. B. Campbell, Rev. George Dungan, Rev. W. J. Turner and C. H. Boyle also added a few interesting, reminiscent words of note. There was special music and refreshments were served by the ladies of the Dorcas society. Nought but the fierce windstorm without cast a shadow on the joyous occasion.

Tuesday evening marked the close, with a forceful sermon of greetings from Rev. A. A. Cressman of the Red Cloud Congregational church, his comprehensive and vital subject being, "The mission of the church." This was the fellowship meeting of the celebration. The double quartette provided music. It concluded a notable event for Congregationalism in McCook.

It may be stated with pride that the church started out to raise an anniversary fund of $700 to cover expenses of proposed improvements to the church. That amount has been covered and $150 additional pledged,—upon all of which Pastor Hawkes and the officers, membership and friends of the church are to be congratulated and felicitated.

Held to District Court.

Solomon Boyer, known in sportdom as "Blackie," and two unfortunate women, giving the names of Viola and Vivian DeYere, were given a preliminary hearing, Wednesday afternoon, before Squire Berry, under complaint of having assaulted Mrs. Penelope Thompson and with having stolen $1,000 in money and jewelry and destroying $1,000 worth of chattel effects of Mrs. Thompson. All pleaded not guilty, waived examination, and each was held to the December term of district court, their bonds being severally placed at $2,500. Being unable to give bonds, the trio were remanded to the county jail.

The alleged dastardly crime was committed June 15th. The trio made their escape in an automobile into Kansas, where, near Osborne, they were finally apprehended, arriving here on last Sunday morning in charge of officers.

Didn't Want to See Him.
Monday morning, Squire Berry heard the complaint against Samuel Ball and son John H. They were fined $5 and costs each, amounting to $13.20 in each instance. John paid, but the father appealed the case. Both were charged with disturbing the peace and quiet of Sheriff H. I. Peterson's home. A daughter of Mr. Ball is working for Sheriff Peterson. The father called to see the daughter, who locked herself in a room in the sheriff's residence and refused to see the father, who threatened to force the door. It seems that father and daughter were not on good terms. Hence the complaint.

John Ball after this case was over swore out a warrant for the arrest of George Fowler, father-in-law of Sheriff Peterson, charging Fowler with carrying concealed weapons. Fowler then made similar complaint against Ball. The hearing in both cases is set for July 3rd.

THE HIGH WIND OF MONDAY EVENING

It Caused Terror to Many Hearts and Not a Little Damage and Loss in Various Parts of City and Country.

The wind storm of Monday night was one of the worst ever experienced in this city, though the damage to property was not very large. There are no local facilities available to measure the speed of the wind, but it may be noted that on the same day the wind reached a speed of ninety miles an hour in Lincoln and wrecked the anemometer in the government observation station in that city in the doing.

Trees and small buildings all over the city were damaged, chimneys blown down, signs demoralized and a move gotten on everything not nailed down. But the total loss will be covered by a comparatively small sum.

During Monday evening's storm, Mrs. D. H. Road was quite severely injured by lightning as was also Mrs. Charles Weintz and W. H. Harmon's family. Mrs. Road was knocked speechless for the time by the bolt.

The electric light company suffered some loss and much inconvenience from fallen wires, in Monday night's storm. Old wires in various parts of the city were broken down. Service was resumed on the following evening, however, thanks to the active work of the company, Tuesday.

NOTES ON MONDAY EVENING'S STORM.
The damage to the new high school building fortunately will not exceed $300 and Contractor A. S. Ennis may consider himself fortunate. Frames and walls were damaged somewhat.

Large and fine trees on the Doan, Kimmell and Barbazette residence properties suffered more than usual damage.

Haskell Tirrill's loss amounted to quite a sum. He was temporarily living in a new frame stable in East McCook. The building was blown down and his household effects badly damaged—dishes and other breakable property being for the most part destroyed.

W. J. Porter's barn in East McCook was also blown down and wrecked.

One dial of the city clock in the court house tower was blown off in its entirety and demolished. The weather vane on the tower is also the worse off for its brisk experience. The damage is, however, small in dollars and cents, and covered by insurance.

Frank E. Utter's new house on upper Main was moved a few inches from its foundation by the force of Monday night's blow.

The chimney on the Sawyer house in South McCook blew over and went through the roof of the lean-to. Mr. and Mrs. George Walters were abed. His head was badly cut by the bricks and her arm slightly hurt. House was considerably damaged.

Notice.
To the patrons of the McCook Electric Light Co. The management will appreciate it if you will notify the office when you change residence, as it will save a great deal of trouble in keeping your account straight.
