

Green's Clothing Store

Opens Saturday

Everything for Men and Boys.

Dennison Street = West of Bank

SHOES FOR MEN

THE proper place to buy shoes is at a shoe store, and the place to buy NEW shoes is to buy at Diamond's New Shoe Store. We desire to call attention to our line of Men's Shoes which we carry in all the latest toes in bright and dull leathers. In fact you will be sure to find your shoe here—from an old man's bunion last to the neatest patent leather dress shoe.

Ladies' Shoes

A glance at our line of Ladies' Shoes will convince you that we have the shoe you want.

Shoes for Boys and Girls

Our School Shoes for boys and girls are the neatest and best school shoes for the money.

Prices Reasonable

Our shoes are of the best and our prices are the lowest. We guarantee all our shoes not to rip. If any of them should happen to rip we will sew them up free of charge. DON'T WEAR YOURSELF OUT running all over town, and then buy something you don't want. Come direct to

Diamond's New Shoe Store

RED WILLOW.

Deane Smith, who has been visiting his uncle, T. C. Smith during the summer, returned to his home in Lincoln last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagerty left Mr. Bellair's on Monday, for a visit to Denver and Colorado Springs.

Mr. Helm finished digging potatoes on Saturday.

Holton Longnecker from Rollinsville, Colorado, came in on Sunday morning for a week's rest and visit to the old home and will also be in McCook a few days.

Mr. Hotze and his sister Mrs. Otto from Kentucky, were calling on friends in the neighborhood first of the week.

Mr. Korn and brother-in-law Mr. Albertson, of Iowa, called on friends and talked about old times, when they were soldiers in the 7th Iowa Cavalry in this country. In 1863 Mr. Albertson was in camp one winter where Trenton is now located.

INDIANOLA.

Holton Longnecker of Rollinsville, Colorado, arrived Sunday morning for a visit with home folks.

Miss Bessie Toogood went to Bertrand Monday morning to visit her brother Bert and family.

Miss Katie Vering came over from Marysville, Kansas, Saturday and is now on School Creek, where she has the school for the coming winter.

Mrs. Freeman Shopper's baby is quite sick. Her mother and two sisters are with her.

N. J. Uerling and W. S. Dolan went to Holdrege last week to enjoy a few days at the carnival.

Another fine rain last Wednesday that will put the ground in good shape for the farmers.

Misses Mayme Mann and Margaret Townly entertained a few of their friends at dinner Sunday evening. The out of town guests being A. Pennington and Walters of McCook.

Judge Moore was a McCook visitor Wednesday.

C. W. Dow and son, I. R. Andrews and Charles Russell went to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the fair.

Mrs. W. D. Mackechnie has been very sick but is improving now and her friends hope she may soon regain her usual health.

Francis, the little son of W. H. Powell, was the victim of an accident last Friday evening that came near depriving him of his eye sight. As it is, he will carry the scars with him a long time. The little fellow got hold of a shell, emptied the powder and struck a match to see it go off. It exploded and burned his face quite badly. A doctor was called and his wounds dressed. At first it was thought that his eyesight was injured, but the doctor thinks not. Jesse Hadley is on the sick list.

Miss Ella Ridgley left Monday morning for Illinois after a short visit with homefolks.

Mrs. Conrad Miller and two children went to Arapahoe Monday morning on No. 2 and spent the day with friends.

Miss Nellie Andrews spent Tuesday with friends in McCook. She left on No. 1 Wednesday morning for Denver where she goes to prepare herself to be a nurse.

Mrs. Tim Haley and son Arthur went to Denver Wednesday morning on a visit.

John Murray came down from McCook last of the week for a visit with the folks on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Teel and children of Red Cloud are in town, the guests of relatives.

Eugene Wilcox left for Cripple Creek Thursday night. Mr. Wilcox goes for the betterment of his health.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haley went to Arapahoe Sunday for a visit with relatives. Mr. Haley returned home Monday night, while Mrs. Haley stayed for a longer visit.

B. Lehn's house was struck by lightning during the storm last Wednesday evening. The house was somewhat damaged but no one was injured.

R. E. Smith is taking in the Lincoln state fair this week.

DANBURY.

Jas. Cumming and wife of Lebanon, visited at the Hayes home, last Friday and Saturday.

Everitt Hebcote has put in a lunch counter in the room next door south of the post office.

Mesdames Conner and Colley of near Cedar Bluffs are here visiting friends, this week.

Miss Nellie Demaree of Wilsonville, is here visiting, this week.

Quite a number of people are attending the state fair in Lincoln, this week.

Dave Boyer has sold his town property to John Newman.

John Remington has sold his property to Rollo DeMay.

Quite a number of Moses Miles friends gave him a surprise party, last Tuesday the occasion being his 19th birthday.

Mrs. Millie Billings left last Thursday, for a visit in Lincoln.

W. J. Stilgebouer and family were Marion visitors over Sunday.

Miss Kate Greenway commenced her term of school, Monday.

H. V. Lord returned from Indiana, last Sunday.

Ben Smiley and family left for Lincoln, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. James Nutt returned from her visit in Oregon, Sunday.

Mrs. Nellie Hess and children returned from her visit in Portland, Oregon, Sunday night.

Cliff Burbridge of McCook, is here visiting.

BOX ELDER.

Charles Bolles is home from Chicago.

Mrs. G. A. Shields is able to ride out again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Modrell are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Roy King, of Iowa.

Between the quarterly conference of the church and the primary, Tuesday was a very busy day with a part of the people of this place.

Mrs. Murrain of Maywood visited her daughters, Mrs. D. B. Doyle and Mrs. T. J. Chamberlain a few days last week on her way home from Colo. where she has been visiting another daughter.

The school house has been replastered, the woodwork painted and the old seats and desks have been replaced by new ones. There has also been a well put down and a pump put in and everything ready for business Monday morning when school was opened with Miss Dora Oyster as teacher.

An ice cream supper was held at the church last Friday evening to raise money to buy a new lamp for the church. Just before leaving to go home after supper J. S. Doyle donated two nice lamps which the people of the church appreciate very much. The proceeds of the supper which were $15.85 will be used for other church purposes.

BARTLEY.

The people of this vicinity are much rejoiced that Orr and Skalla were nominated and regret that Cochran was not also one of the lucky men.

The primary system dethroned the McCook ring, which is glory enough for one day.

Rev. Haggeman has moved into the basement of the church until a new parsonage can be erected.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lang buried their son, last Friday. He was 4 years old and only sick a few days.

Mrs. Jacobs who was taken sick at the residence of Guy Richards died last Thursday, and was buried at Cambridge.

W. F. Miller has sold his residence property to Lou Higgins for $6,750 and with his daughter will move to Lincoln about November.

Mrs. Beeson who bought the old M. E. parsonage has moved into town to send her daughters to school.

A son of Mr. Bell while working at the Lou Higgins place, was kicked by a horse and is suffering from fractured ribs. His early recovery is expected.

Mrs. W. D. Williams celebrated her 53rd birthday, last Friday.

The steel cornice for the opera house has arrived and is now being put in place.

Parties were here last week, from near Orleans, looking for farms. They report crops better here than around Orleans.

Mr. Hartsock from Greenwood, Neb., is here looking after his farm and says our crops are better than there.

Mrs. A. F. McCord returned from her visit in Missouri. She had a royal good time with her many friends and relatives, but thinks the stones in the roads have grown some since she came to Nebraska. The shaking up she got riding over those roads made her appreciate the fine Nebraska roads.

Mr. Cartright of Lebanon, visited here Friday last, working for Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith and family have returned from Colorado, after a fine visit with friends and a trip to the mountains. They were glad to get back to their fine Nebraska home.

C. E. Matthews celebrated his 37th birthday anniversary, September 3rd. He received some valuable presents from his friends.

Grandma Hodgkins and her daughter Mrs. Irene Burton came down from Wauneta, this week.

Mr. Cummings, a brick and stone mason has located in Bartley and is now at work on the basement for the new meat market.

Mrs. Martin and brother have returned from a visit to Beaver crossing.

Clay Hoover has sold out his interest in the livery barn to his father and will go west soon.

J. H. Grannis

The Store for Thrifty People

September

Means new fall goods -- Dress Goods, Flannels, Cotton Flannels, Underwear and things too numerous to mention in so small a space. Also too many to put into our store, even if we have the largest store in the city. So we wish to make more room for our new fall stock by selling

All Our Summer Goods At Cost

So if you can use anything in our stock please call, make yourself richer by buying now and help us make room for our new goods.

Come in and enquire about our coupon deal. We can show you a fine line of jewelry which you can secure with coupons by buying Christmas presents now.

Telephone No. 16

RACES M'COOK DRIVING PARK

September 26, 27 and 28

PROFESSIONAL STARTER
FINF TRACK FAST HORSES
BIG PURSES FINE WEATHER
FINE MUSIC A BIG TIME

The Largest Gathering of Fast Horses
Ever Seen between Chicago and Denver

Frank James of "Missouri," Starter $3,000.00 in Cash Purses

It's Up to You

"Now look pleasant just a moment, please." Ten styles of photos—from quarter to full cabinets. Yes, you want a picture of your residence, farm or stock. Call for prices at the NEW ART STUDIO, first stairway south of the postoffice.

Special Rates Until the 15th, Only

New Art Studio E. E. Wilson

The Kansas City Weekly Star

The most comprehensive farm paper — All the news intelligently told — Farm questions answered by a practical farmer and experimenter — Exactly what you want in market reports.

One Year, 25 cents

Address THE WEEKLY STAR, Kansas City, Mo.

Buster Brown BLUE RIBBON

SHOES

School Shoes
.....for.....
Boys and Girls

Blue Ribbon Shoes are made to wear, by expert shoemakers and from the best tannages of all leathers. They are stylish and comfortable.

These are the best and most serviceable school shoes you can buy.

The Model Shoe Store

Fisher & Perkins, Props.

McCook, Nebraska