

It is a question of perspective—if you have the right one, you see more than appears on the surface in the Primary Election returns to be found in this issue. You perhaps will not be inordinately proud of what you see: jobs, trading, knifing, etc., for instance.

THE TRIBUNE stated, last week, on the strength of the early returns, that Charles E. Eldred had carried Red Willow county for district judge. Later and official returns show that he did not, but they do not prove to the satisfaction of the publisher on the basis of anything fair and square in politics that he ought not to have carried it. A little carbolic acid in the ethics of Red Willow county politics wouldn't hurt.

SCHOOL CREEK.

School began last week with twelve pupils enrolled.

The hum of the threshing machine was heard last week. Small grain turned out pretty well. Some wheat went as high as twenty-five bushels per acre, averaging about eighteen.

Mrs. S. E. Vandervort is on the sick list but is improving.

B. F. Rohrer's cousins Ethel and Winnie Rohrer, and Mrs. Rohrer's sister Gertrude Andrews returned to Friend after a week's visit.

John Dutcher is busy looking after the interest of the county fair.

The corn in this immediate neighborhood is looking good.

B. F. Rohrer attended the meeting of candidates at McCook, Saturday.

DANBURY.

Mrs. Rex Miller and mother Mrs. Loveck left Monday via McCook for Wray, Colo.

W. J. Stilgebouer and family left last Saturday for Covina, California.

Mrs. J. E. Noe is visiting in Indianola this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mustgrave arrived home from Cheyenne, Wyo., last Friday.

H. L. Goodenberger has sold his hardware store to Mr. Dailey.

Cliff Burbridge who has been visiting here for the past week returned to McCook Saturday.

Clarence Young had the misfortune to have the tip of one of his fingers taken off in the printing press at the News office.

Cliff Naden, our candidate for county treasurer, joined the Methodist church last Sunday.

Little LeRoy Thomas got his finger cut off, Wednesday.

Lee DeLong and Crosoe Allen left Wednesday evening for Montana.

Mr. Clifton has sold his quarter section to eastern parties.

J. I. Evers of Valparaiso, Neb., is here visiting friends and relatives.

The Curtain Was Down.

A party of countrymen were in London enjoying the sights. At last they came by one of the theaters in the Strand.

"Suppose we go in," said one. "Better see how much it is first," said another.

After inquiring the price of admission they decided to send one of the party inside to see whether it was good enough or not. After remaining for some time the delegate returned.

"How is it?" asked one.

"No good. A lot of fellers fiddlin' in front of the big picture." Come on!"

Home, Sweet Home.

The chief reason for leaving home is that one may the better enjoy coming back to it. Home is the place we have so studiously suited to our own needs that it fits us like an outer envelope. In no other house do we feel so absolutely ourselves.—London Truth.

The Irate Father's Bull.

Bulls are not the exclusive property of Irishmen. The dictum of the Connaught peasant that the most insulting answer you ever made to any enemy was not to speak at all to him is more than equalled by the declaration of the irate British father who declared to his sulky son on the bank holiday morning:

"You'll 'ave to come along of us to 'Amptstead 'Eath and go nowhere else. You've come out to enjoy yourself, and enjoy yourself you will if I break every bone in your body."—Dundee Advertiser.

RED WILLOW COUNTY WINS

Second In the Second District Scoring at the Nebraska State Fair at Lincoln, Last Week.

THIS EXHIBIT WILL BE IN M'COOK

During the Fall Races of the McCook Driving Park Association, Which Will be Held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 26-27-28.—It Will be Worth Seeing.

In the agricultural exhibit at the state fair Red Willow county stood second in the Second District, scoring 854 points, and securing a prize of $147.41. The Second District is comprised of nine counties, standing as follows: Kearney 1st, Red Willow 2nd, York 3rd, Franklin 4th, Webster 5th, Howard 6th, Frontier 7th, Antelope 8th and Furnas 9th.

Stephen Bolles, William Hiersekorn and M. B. Hogan were in charge of the exhibit and it attracted much favorable comment. An effort was made to secure it for the Kansas City show, but the committee decided to bring it home and show it to our home folks, as well as visitors, who may be in McCook during the Race Meet, September 26th, 27th and 28th. A suitable booth will be erected in town and the exhibit placed just as it was in Lincoln. The showing of the different small grains, grasses, corn, vegetables, etc., are very fine and pains should be taken to see the exhibit and point it out to visitors.
