

Vahue-Hare Wedding.

That was a very sweet and charming nuptial event at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John D. Hare, last evening, when their daughter Hazel was happily united in marriage with Dr. Earl Orsen Vahue. Rev. George B. Hawkes of the Congregational church was the officiating clergyman in the use of the impressive ring ceremony, which occurred at six o'clock in the presence of only immediate relatives of the families and a few friends.

Dr. Robert H. Gatewood was best man and Miss Edna Waite, the bridesmaid. The bride was demure and lovely in a chaste creation of point desprit over chiffon with taffeta drapskirt.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Orsen G. Vahue and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vahue of Allegan, Michigan; Mrs. Shotwell of Atlanta, Illinois; the Misses Shotwell of Chicago, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Condon of Wilcox, Nebraska.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony, to the nuptial party, Mesdames Leroy Kleven, Barney Hofer and W. F. Jones serving.

A reception of elaborate plans ensued from 8 till 11 o'clock. Mrs. W. F. Jones and Mrs. H. P. Waite presided during the opening hour of this function and Mrs. W. R. Starr and Mrs. Barney Hofer during the closing hour. Misses Elsie Campbell, Ruth Wiehe, Ethel Morrissey, Viva Phelan and Hazel Merle assisted.

Mrs. Leroy Kleven and Miss Jeanette Dutton presided at the punch bowl.

The general color scheme in decorations was white and green, in dining-room, library etc. In the latter—the punch-room—there was a real grapevine effect, unique and delightful.

During the reception Mrs. Shotwell entranced the guests with her vocal efforts, singing "Heart's Delight" by Gilgrist and other kindred selections.

An orchestra also played the reception hours.

The array of gifts has perhaps never been equaled at a similar event in this city for richness, beauty and numbers.

The happy young couple will for the present live under the parental (Hare) roof on north Main avenue.

Congressman Norris Is the Delegate.

The Republican county central committee met in McCook, Saturday last, and organized the committee for the fall campaign by the selection of S. R. Smith of Indianola as chairman, with authority to name his own secretary. A. Barnett of McCook was chosen treasurer.

The committee indicated its unanimous confidence in the primary election law by passing without dissent a resolution endorsing the same.

Congressman Norris of our city was unanimously chosen as a delegate to the state convention.

All but three of the 23 voting precincts were represented.

Dr. Brushingham will make a special plea for exalted manhood and womanhood to the young people of McCook. The address will not be sectarian but patriotic and broadly christian. ## WEST NEBRASKA CONFERENCE IN SESSION

The twenty-third annual conference of the West Nebraska district of the Methodist church which opened in our city, Tuesday morning, and will not conclude until next Monday morning, when the list of appointment will be read, has been of all absorbing interest. The morning, Tuesday, saw the meeting of the Examining Board and Under graduates in the basement of the church. The District Chairmen were: Holdrege—F. M. Ransom; Kearney—W. E. Matthews; North Platte—R. H. Carr; W. H. D. Hornaday was registrar. The opening session was of exceptional interest and crowded the church to overflowing. The program opened with a processional by the large and specially trained choir. The orchestra of twelve pieces followed with an inspiring selection. A hymn and invocation by Dr. Wilson, presiding elder of the Holdrege district, intervened before the choir rendered the splendid "Gloria" in McCook. On Tuesday evening, September 17, the body met here again, this time presided over by Bishop H. W. Warren, of Denver. There are about 100 pastoral charges and 11,000 members in the conference the territory of which comprises about one third of the state of mercial Club, gave characteristic utterance on the part of the city in his droll but hale way, and J. H. Yarger represented the local church in his warm welcome. Another orchestral selection warmed the hearts' cockles and Bishop Henry W. Warren of Denver, Colorado, eloquently and fittingly responded in style and diction which

Getting To Be a Big Boy.

The people of South McCook are before the city council seeking fire protection and electric light service. The improved physical conditions in that addition to the original city seem to warrant the extension of such service to South McCook. West McCook already enjoys both light and water service and East McCook will no doubt in time seek extension of mains and wires to that addition. McCook is getting to be a big boy now, and those owning and controlling the various public utilities and franchises will have to bestir themselves and meet the expanding situation.

The electric light people have already taken action looking to a considerable strengthening and improvement of their plant, which now fails to adequately meet present demands. They will in time no doubt be able to handle a demand from South McCook should that section of the city make a just showing of patronage.

As to fire and water service it is not clear to THE TRIBUNE upon what basis of justice they have been and are now deprived of that reasonable and essential service for which they are taxed along with the city proper.

Both of these propositions are now before a committee of the city council for investigation and report. THE TRIBUNE hopes for favorable action.

To Teach in Nebraska.

Miss Susanne Warde started to Chicago last evening to meet her sister, Mrs. John D. Young, and accompany her back to her home at McCook, Nebraska, to accept a position in the schools there made vacant by the resignation of one of their teachers. Miss Warde has taught successfully for years in the township and boro schools and she will do doubt show the Nebraskans that Phillipsburg schools and school teachers are easily first in their class.—Phillipsburg Ledger.

New Machinery Purchased.

The new machinery for the electric light plant has already been purchased and it is hoped to have the same in place within thirty days. A new producer gas engine has been bought, together with modern generators, which will give the plant a more modern and up-to-date organization, very materially improving physical conditions.
