TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR

MCCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 25, 1907

NUMBER 22

Course of Entertainments.

A committee of public-spirited gentlemen have assumed the work and responsibility of a course of excellent entertainments for the people of McCook this fall and winter. Rev. M. B. Carman is chairman and J. R. McCarl is secretary, while Rev. J. J. Loughran, S. B. McLean, G. H. Thomas, G. S. Scott, C. F. Heber and J. E. Ludwick are associated with them. They have arranged for four numbers, as follows: The Cincinnati Ladies' Cremona Orchestra, Wednesday, November 6; Laurant, the magician, Saturday, November 30; Father L. J. Vaughan, the great dramatic orator, Tuesday, January 21; and George R. Stuart, the southern humorist, Friday, February 7. Tickets for this series of entertainments will be sold for $1.50. Coupons for each separate number will be presented at McConnell's drug store for single reserved seats. The sale of these season tickets has already commenced. You will help the cause as well as the work of a disinterested company of men if you will hunt them out and offer to buy the tickets from them.

The Cincinnati Cremona Orchestra is a high-class musical organization, eight members, which has always met with an enthusiastic reception wherever they have played. This number will be given at the Menard opera house, Wednesday, November 6. An announcement as to the time of the sale of reserved seats will be made next week. Laurant, the magician, gives an evening's entertainment of magic, mystery and music, November 30. The committee believes that something new, artistic and refined has been secured in this attraction.

Father L. J. Vaughan, the first lecturer, appears Tuesday, January 21, 1908. This is Father Vaughan's seventh successful season. As a dramatic orator he has no superior. "The Power of Love" and "Sermons from Shakespeare" are two of his favorite subjects. His past experience before the foot lights has given him perfect control of his powerful voice, and this, with his fine presence and dramatic delivery, combine to thrill his listeners with the great truths he has to present.

Geo. R. Stuart, the southern humorist, closes the course February 7. "Lop-Sided Folks" and "The World's Bid for a Man" are subjects upon which he speaks. Mr. Stuart is undoubtedly one of the most unique and satisfactory platform speakers of the day. He is a natural genius of the pulpit and rostrum.

Buy the tickets, help the cause, plan for a series of high-grade and wholesome entertainments for your family's pleasure through the fall and winter months.

The Sunshine Club.

The entertainment and sale by the members of the Sunshine Club of the Congregational Sunday-school, Tuesday evening, attracted the usual large patronage and secured the customary appreciation. The club's treasury is richer by about $40.00 and the public has the memory of a pleasant evening. The program was as follows:

A Chance For You.

Just to introduce it, the publishers are offering for only 50 cents to send the Daily State Journal, except Sunday, from now until January 1, 1908, with Sunday 75 cents. These are little over half price offers, and will attract thousands of new readers. The paper will stop coming on January 1st without notice from you. Why not send in a half dollar and see what a great volume of reading matter you get for your money. Some big events are happening in Nebraska and you should keep posted by reading the paper that can tell the whole truth about everything and everybody.

Remember.

"You push the button, we do the rest." It is just as true today as it was years ago. About all you have to do to take beautiful pictures with a kodak is to press the little bulb which opens the shutter. We have a splendid line of Eastman kodaks. If you do your own developing, we have developers, paper for printing, tripods, developing tanks, etc. L. W. McConnell, druggist.

$2.35 for Bearskin Coats.

Children's white and colored bearskin coats for $2.35. Others at $3.00. For 6 yrs. to 14 yrs. $6.00. Bearskin hoods 50c in white and colors. Bearskin leggings $1.00. Bearskin muffs 75c and $1.00—with purse and cord. Bearskin cloth in four colors $2.00 yd. The Thompson D. G. Co.

One Minute Washer

runs itself half the time, Ball Bearing, durable, runs easier than any other machine. You should have one of these splendid washers. Sold by McCook Hardware Co.

New Piano Mover.

R. M. Douglass & Co. have purchased the latest up-to-date apparatus manufactured for piano moving. No chance to injure your instrument. See them.

Hot Water Bottles.

They are always handy to have in the house, new first quality rubber, non-leakable. L. W. McConnell, druggist.

Suit Cases.

New things in suit cases for $1.35, $1.50, $1.75, $2.25, $3.50, $5.00 to $8.00. The Thompson D. G. Co.

Congressman Pollard Addresses People.

Congressman E. M. Pollard of the First Nebraska district addressed the Republicans of McCook and vicinity on the issues of this campaign in the Menard opera house, Monday evening. His principal points were directed to showing that the Republican party of Nebraska had kept all of its pledges and that the party deserved what it asked—the votes of the people of the state and continuance in office.

He made some national references and especially commended the work and acts of Congressman G. W. Norris of the Fifth district, whom he most warmly urged for continuance in office on account of his splendid record and bright prospects as a legislator.

Chairman Smith of the county central committee was chairman of the meeting and made a short address in introducing the speaker and the several candidates on the Republican county ticket.

Brief speeches were made by each of the several county candidates present: Charles Skalla, candidate for clerk; J. C. Moore, candidate for judge; H. I. Peterson, candidate for sheriff; C. A. Rodgers, candidate for court clerk.

F. F. Rohrer, candidate for sup't. Congressman Pollard paid a glowing tribute to Judge Reese, Republican candidate for supreme judge, as well as to the other state nominees—H. T. Clarke, for railroad commissioner, and C. B. Anderson and George Coupland, nominees for regents.

He made a strong plea for Republicans to support their candidates from the highest to the lowest and thus to line up for the coming and vastly important campaign.

Meeting of Doctors' Club.

On Wednesday evening, October 23rd, an informal gathering of the doctors of McCook, was held in the Commercial club rooms. A most pleasant and profitable social hour was spent in conversation, and in the discussion of various topics. An appetizing luncheon, having mysteriously made its appearance, was bailed with glee, and as mysteriously disappeared.

The evening was so much enjoyed by those present, the luncheon being partly responsible, that it was decided to establish a permanent organization, to be known as the "Doctors' Social Club of McCook," the object of which shall be, as the name indicates, the celebration of occasional good times with probably a banquet for the members and their wives during the holiday season. Another feature will be the reading of a paper, on some medical subject of general interest, at each meeting, and a discussion of the same by the members.

By-the-way.

Have you noticed the difference between our kind of advertising and the other kind. Ours is specific, describing carefully the goods mentioned and giving prices as, for instance, print 6 1/2c. You get a definite fact for the attention you give. The other kind is "just talk." It gives no prices. It seeks to "jolly you." When you get to the store more "jolly." At our store you see the goods described and priced. Our published prices are a public benefit. We solicit your trade. The Thompson D. G. Co.

Laugh and Grow Fat

at the "Exhibition of the Deestrick Skule" of fifty years ago at the Congregational church, Friday evening, November 1st. The "marster" and his thirty pupils invite you to this their closing "exhibition," given under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society for the benefit of the church bell fund. Admission 25c and 15c.

Ending Corn Agony.

A quick and certain way to put an end to corn agony is to apply Lightning Corn Cure to the corn. Lightning Corn Cure is a painless, a speedy and a sure corn remover, the satisfactory effectiveness of which we personally guarantee. Use it and watch your corn rapidly disappear. L. W. McConnell, druggist.

Izzer Bed Comforts.

We make them ourselves out of 14 yds. of cloth with six Izzer batts inside. They are 6ftx7ft, well tacked and hemmed and run from $1.85 to $3.00 each. If you care for clean bedding, for ample size, for durable make, you will take no other. The Thompson D. G. Co. One price, plain figures, cash only.

Farmers, Another

raise in wagons is staring you in the face, but we have anticipated this, and have a good stock of high grade "New Moline" and "Birdsel" wagons which you can still have at the old price. If you are going to need a new wagon in the next year you should buy now. McCook Hardware Co.

Won Teddy.

The large Teddy Bear at the McCook Hardware Co. which has been causing so much excitement among the little folks has found a home with Harry Diamond who sold seventy-three sets of spoons. Verne Hodgkin was second in the contest with thirty-seven sets sold.

Delightful Flavorings.

Fine flavoring extracts, using only the choicest materials, sparing no pains to do the work well and allowing each extract plenty of time to fully mature, enables McConnell to supply you with such really delightful flavoring extracts.

Took Second Royal Prize.

Gerald Wilcox was at the Kansas City Royal Stock Show, recently, and carried off second royal prize on his big hog Colonel McCook, a Poland China weighing almost 1,000 pounds. He was the largest hog in the show.

Perfumes.

Extremely choice assortment of enchantingly fragrant odors. 50 cents an ounce. L. W. McConnell, druggist.

To the Voters of Red Willow County.

We, the Democratic Central committee of this county presuming that all tax payers and voters are interested in those things that concern the common good, have taken this opportunity of calling your attention, through the public press, to a few facts of interest in connection with the coming county election.

As everyone doubtless knows all candidates on the various tickets were nominated under the new primary election law, which was in effect for the first time, this year; and the next duty of the voting public is to elect all county officers for the ensuing term. Being firm believers in the fact that publicity is the best aid in determining the character or qualifications of any person, we wish you, the public, to know who these candidates are, and what they stand for.

Inasmuch as you are a tax payer of this county, it is absolutely essential that you know the moral and mental calibre of the persons for whom you cast your vote. You follow this line of action in all your personal business deals; that is to say, before buying any chattles or piece of merchandise you must first know the quality or intrinsic value of that for which you pay, and why should you not be equally careful in choosing the men to who you entrust both the expenditure of public funds and the administration of public affairs.

It is a reflection upon a man's intelligence to say that he votes blindly and without consideration, or that he votes not at all. To sum up the matter plainly: You are paying for something, and the question is, do you know what you are getting? It matters not whether you be farmer, merchant, salaried man or laborer you are compelled to pay tax, either real or personal, and the question which every good citizen asks himself on election day, "Am I going to cast my vote in the interests of a favored few, or for the general welfare of my county?"

We believe the candidates under our standard to be honest, intelligent and decent, and know that each and every one is a factor for good in his home community. They are seeking office with the one idea of rendering to the county a clean economic administration. We have no desire to further the interests of our party by depreciating or maligning any candidate of the opposition, but we do claim the right of asking you to enquire into the qualification of those seeking office.

We trust that you will not only go to the polls on November 5th, but ask that you mark your ballot with the same care that you exercise in the management of your personal affairs.

The constitution of the United States assures you a vote in national, state, county and local affairs, and regardless of your past or present political affiliations, we respectfully ask your support for the following candidates:

- For Treasurer, N. J. Uerling, of Indianola.
- For Clerk, Wm. M. Hiller, of McCook.
- For Sheriff, Chas. Masters, of Indianola.
- For Clerk of District Court, Frank M. Colfer, of McCook.
- For Sup't Public Instruction, Claudia B. Hatcher, of Indianola.
- For Assessor, Wm. Meyers, of Red Willow.
- For Coroner, W. A. DeMay, M. D., of Danbury.
- For Surveyor, Andrew Barber, of Indianola.
- For Commissioner, Marion Plummer, of McCook.
- For County Judge, Jacob Steinmetz, of McCook.

BARNEY HOFER, Secretary. 10-25 2ts* I. A. SHERIDAN, Chairman.

Reader Would Collect Cash.

County Attorney Reeder of Red Willow county consulted with Attorney General Thompson concerning an unpaid judgment guaranteed by a bonding company. This concern was on the bond of a county treasurer who was short $6,500. The concern, alleged County Attorney Reeder, refused to "make good." A statute demands that all bonding concerns with unpaid judgments cease to do business in the state. B. G. Gossard, county treasurer of Red Willow county did not live the simple life when in office and when he finally resigned and took up his abode in the "dipso" ward of the Hastings asylum, an expert discovered that his accounts were $6,500 or thereabouts, shy. Mr. Reeder has not started embezzlement proceedings against Gossard, but he intends to do so. In the meantime, he wants the bonding concerns to "come through" with the cash his county has lost in the gay life of its ex treasurer.—Lincoln Star.

Bucknell-Akers.

Wednesday night, October 23rd, at eight o'clock, occurred the marriage of Mr. John R. Bucknell and Miss Rosa Alice Akers, at the home of the bride's parents on upper Manchester street in the presence of relatives and a few near friends, Rev. M. B. Carman speaking the words that made these excellent young people husband and wife, as they stood under a wedding tower of white lace and smile. The bride was dressed in white arlene chiffon, carrying a bunch of white roses; the groom wore conventional black.

A three-course lunch was tastefully served. Mrs. Hurley Dye had charge of the guest book. The couple are well known in McCook and have a host of friends. Mr. Bucknell will be remembered as cashier and ticket agent for the Burlington and later book keeper in the Citizens bank here. He now holds the position as assistant cashier of the Upland Banking Company at Upland, Neb., where he takes his wife to a home all ready for occupancy. Both are members and workers in the Methodist church. The bride has for years been one of the leaders in church work here, a member and one of the first soprano singers in the Methodist choir. Mr. and Mrs. Bucknell departed, Thursday morning on No. 2 for Hardy, Neb., the home of Mr. Bucknell's parents. After November 20th, they will be at home in Upland, Neb.

Monday night, the Methodist choir with their wives and husbands and the pastor and wife gave Miss Akers a shower surprise of cut glass, serving dainty refreshments and spending the evening in song and happy remembrances. COM.

And Monroe "Hiked."

A male biped by the name of Monroe C. Hawkins appeared before Police Judge Berry, last Saturday morning, charged with assaulting W. G. Jones, janitor and mail carrier for the Burlington at this point, last Friday night. Hawkins was drunk and making an indecent exposure of his person, when Jones sought to eject him from the waiting-room at the depot. Hawkins took a club that Jones had in his possession and struck Jones over the head with the same, causing some scalp wounds, fortunately not of a serious nature, however. Justice Berry gave the assault a fine of $50 and costs, and Hawkins went to jail to board out on the assessment. Monday morning, when Marshal Pence had the prisoner down town in a restaurant for breakfast, Hawkins preferred a "hike" to breakfast, and the officers have not seen the fellow since. He is presumably still "going some."

A Correction.

Your printer in last week's Tribune made us offer "Men's heavy high-collar ulsters 5c each." Of course no one was deceived, but no one was made wise as to the actual price which is $5.00. Possibly the printer regarded $5.00 as only a nominal price for such a garment. True too. Drop in and inspect them. The Thompson D. G. Co.
