The Republican State Platform.

Points with pride to the achievements of the Republican party under the splendid leadership of Theodore Roosevelt, and insists that his successor shall be a man who will continue the Roosevelt policies, and suggests Secretary Tatt as such a man.

Commends the present state officials for their care of the state institutions, maintaining the credit of the state, and reducing the state debt.

Commends the Nebraska delegation in congress.

Calls attention to the magnificent record of the last legislature which carried out the pledges of the Republican party, as follows:

- "1. A state-wide direct primary.
"2. Abolition of the free pass evil.
"3. Comprehensive powers for the state railway commission.
"4. More equitable rates for transportation of passengers and freight.
"5. Equal taxation of railroad property for city purposes.
"6. Abolition of fellow servant law and full employer's liability.
"7. A pure food and dairy law.
"8. Rigid economy in appropriations.
Endorses the direct primary, and pledges such amendments as shall improve its workings.

Commends the good work of the state railway commission, in its efforts to secure better freight rates for the people of the state. Calls for the rigid enforcement of the anti-pass law.

Declares that in suits at law corporations should be deemed citizens of every state where they have filed articles of incorporation or exercised the rights of eminent domain.

Favors an enactment of the federal law forbidding the federal courts from issuing writs of injunction against state officers charged with the enforcement of state statutes.

Regards with high favor the nominees on the state ticket and invites voters who believe in official probity and efficiency to join in electing them.

The fusion statesmen who are making the feeble attempt to criticize republican management of state institutions are the same ones who were responsible for buying up two tons of rotten butter and storing it in soap boxes for the use of one institution, and feeding old soldiers on wormy prunes and butterine, and quartering their own relatives in the institution parlors, at the expense of the state, when they are in control. The way to rebuke the hungry popocratic horde which seeks to bring on another reign of plunder is to vote for a continuation of republicanism and genuine reform.

A Correction.

Box Elder, Neb., October 28, '07.

To the Voters of Red Willow County:

I am not in politics and haven't any intention of mixing in. My name has been put on the Democratic ticket without my consent and without the consent of the leaders of the Democratic party. I have the warmest feeling for the Democrats of Red Willow county, but you MUST NOT VOTE FOR ME.

I intend to devote ALL of my time in the future to breeding and raising pure bred hogs.

Yours, STEPHEN DEWITT BOLLES.

The Last Word to Republican Voters.

Indianola, Neb., Oct. 30, '07.

To all Republican voters:

I desire to impress upon your minds the GREAT IMPORTANCE of going to the polls to vote next Tuesday. If you love the Republican principles, go and vote them; if you are in sympathy with PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, (and who is not?) go to the polls, next Tuesday, and vote for the Roosevelt ideas. If you believe in the great wave of reform that is sweeping this country of ours from one ocean to the other, go to the polls, Tuesday, and help the wave along by your vote. BE PATRIOTIC, DON'T STAY AT HOME. Let me caution you all about stories you may hear about the Republican candidates, from now to election. TURN THEM DOWN AS UNTRUE, for they are, and are only told to lead you astray, and to get you to vote contrary to your convictions. In all cases they emanate from the opposite side. If the opposition can make you believe their falsehoods they have gained one vote, don't you see? The Republicans have a majority in the county, let us all work to make it the largest ever polled.

Your central committee is doing all it can to elect the WHOLE TICKET. Will you do the same. An hour or two is all that is required of your time on election day to go and vote; let us URGE upon you to spare that much time and exercise the most important duty you have to perform. DON'T FAIL TO VOTE.

S. R. SMITH,

Chairman Rep. Co. Central Com.

To the Public.

My name is Frank M. Colfer. I am twenty-four years of age and have lived in the county for twenty-three years. Those among you who came here in the early days will remember my father, Thomas Colfer, a pioneer of this county and a lawyer of some standing. He was injured and died in 1890. I have no desire to further my own interests with a view of using his reputation as a stepping stone. I simply mention this fact that you may know more fully who I am.

I am now a candidate for the office of Clerk of the District Court on the Democratic ticket and I want to state explicitly that I am no mere figure-head on this ticket. I asked for the nomination, got it, and am out to win. I am putting my campaign cards in as many places as possible, but notwithstanding, I cannot see and talk to every voter in the county. I do not own a horse and buggy and can not afford to run a livery bill of very large proportion. I have no campaign fund from which to draw, and every dollar that I spend is my own. To put the matter plainly: The salary of the office is not large and I would be foolish to spend ten per cent of a "prospective" first year salary on election alone. So I have come out in the columns of the public press to ask your support. I want you, the public, to find out what kind of a man I am, and if I can't stand the inquiry I don't want the office. I am making the campaign upon my own resources and am not tied in any way to "special interests" of any kind. I am my own manager and press agent. I am not going to malign or misrepresent my opponent. I hope to get your vote and I certainly would like your consideration.

John Johnson the present Democratic Governor of Minnesota carried his state by thousands, and in the midst of a Roosevelt presidential campaign, and why? Because when his opponent, with brass bands and torch light processions was loudly harping on National issues, Johnson was telling the people that their concern was not the affairs of congress hundreds of miles away, but the crying needs of their own state, and the people of Minnesota, forgetting party politics, rose in their might and made him governor. He won in a clean open campaign. I am not running for governor, but Mr. Johnson's methods are mine. I have asked you for support and if I get it I will make no promises I can not keep. Respectfully yours,

FRANK M. COLFER.

VOTER, when you go to the polls on Nov. 5th, remember that Charles Skalla, the Republican candidate for county clerk, has grown to manhood in this county, that he has labored among you through adversity and prosperity and that he is one of you. He is admirably qualified for the position to which he aspires and if elected will serve your interest to the best of his ability. Vote for Charles Skalla, the peoples' choice for county clerk.—Bartley Inter-Ocean.

A weekly newspaper that publishes twenty-one columns of good, reliable news each week is rare in these days of cheap weeklies, intended only to sell some article that the publisher is interested in. Credit is due The Weekly Inter Ocean for keeping its columns filled with fresh and up-to-date news. Give it a trial by subscribing through THE McCOOK TRIBUNE.

A Word of Explanation.

The names of some Republican candidates for county offices appear on the printed ballots as though they had been nominated by other parties as well. This is the result of voters placing their names on Prohibition, Socialist and other ballots at the primary election, and is a matter the Republican nominees had nothing to do with, and any effort made to injure any Republican nominee by claiming he is a Prohibitionist or a Socialist or a Democrat or an Independent, is unfair and should be frowned down by every fair voter. The candidates of the Republican ticket are not seeking votes that way and they should not be injured by an act or condition over which they had no control. The Republican nominees are all worthy of your support. Give them their hearty and to the limit.

Most men who mingle with great crowds or participate in an event of many features are absolutely unable to describe in detail any one particular feature. It is then that they find their weekly newspaper most valuable. Just so it is with the readers of daily newspapers; they have not the time or the inclination to follow every phase of the week's events and so turn to a weekly newspaper for a concise and connected account of any event of more than local interest. This demand is easily supplied at small cost by The Weekly Inter Ocean, which can be obtained with this paper, one year, for $1.25.
